Beveridge, exercise, ten boys and girls, Miss Carlin's room; recitation, "Invocation," Tallien Isenhardt; sketch, "Founder of Arbor Day," Beattie Thomas; song, "Oregon Grape," school; address, "Life in New England," J. S. Howard; recitation, "After the Harvest Day," May Lindsey; recitation, "Woodman, Spare That Tree," Carle Bennett; song, "Birdies' Ball," first and second grades; address, "Our School and Nature," H. F. Mulkey; recitation, "Schoolhouse Yard," Nellie Lindberg; recitation, "Little Brown Seed," Pat Lovelace; address, U. S. Collins; "Value of Trees," Worth Hazelrigg; recitation, "Planting Trees," Florence Trowbridge; song, "Springtime," school; talk, "Building Bird Houses," Mart Foster; talk, "Saving Forests," Farley Johnson; recitation, "Historic Trees," Alice Lyons; recitation, "Planting of the Apple Tree," Etta Barker; recitation, "Three Trees," Grace Brainerd; "The Nest in the Pocket," Elder Conner; "Grand Old Trees," Marjorie Coleman; song, "Arbor Day is Here," school; planting of vines and shrubbery, supervised by Mr. Bullock, Earl Ling and James Medley; "First Fruit Tree in Oregon," Carlyle Natwick.

The program begins at 2 p. m. Every one is invited.

STANTON IS BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY

Charles Stanton who was arrested by Chief Deputy Fish Warden Sam L. Sandry Wednesday morning for gaffing fish at the Ray dam was given his preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Taylor Wednesday evening and bound over to the grand jury. Failing to give bail he was taken to the county jail. Bonds will probably be arranged soon.

Stanton is charged with catching fish in an unlawful manner. He has been suspected for some time by Sandry who lay in wait for him, catching him finally in the act.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS.

J. Forsell has sold his blacksmith business and lease of Hawk shop to R. W. Ager of Billings, Mont. Mr. Ager has his family here and will become a resident of our city. Mr. Forsell left for California Wednesday.

Mrs. Earl Heft, Mrs. Roy Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Porter of Seven Oaks were shopping here on Wednesday.

City council met in an adjourned session Tuesday evening and discussed all matters of importance and adjourned until next Tuesday, April 15.

L. R. Fields, superintendent of the Southern Pacific company, and Assistant Superintendent Siefer were calling on our business men and property owners the middle of the week.

Mr. Wimer of Medford attended the funeral of Mrs. Jacob Stone Wednesday.

Warren Mee of Applegate spent a day with his sisters, Miss Mary A. Mee and Mrs. Emma Bobb, and other relatives this week.

Arthur Boswell of Portland was visiting his brother, J. E. Boswell, and family the middle of the week. Mr. Boswell was en route to H. H. Cal, where he will reside permanently.

TABLE ROCK

Rev. A. C. Howlett conducted services at Table Rock Sunday evening.

The Arrow Heads gave a literary entertainment on Saturday evening which was fairly well attended. A small admittance fee was charged to help pay for the wiring of the house for electric lights. Stanley Lydiard who has been attending the agricultural college of Minnesota, has returned to Table Rock and will take charge of the Lydiard ranch.

John Nealon, who is teaching school at Applegate, spent Sunday at home.

Our Sunday school has grown till it has become necessary to organize another class.

Mrs. Blaine and daughter, Leo, are visiting relatives and friends at Salem.

Miss Rose Nealon and Miss Ella Sage, who are attending school at Medford, spent Sunday at Table Rock.

Miss Agnes Lester of Talent is visiting at the home of her cousin, Elmer Lester.

J. C. Pendleton has been confined to his room for some time and is under medical treatment.

A war is on at Table Rock in regard to who shall furnish a piano for the Arrow Head society. Your correspondent has no comments to offer.

A big delegation from Table Rock is the program for the school rally at Willow Springs on April 25.

WILLOW SPRINGS TWIGLETS

Several Willow Springs ladies were seen at the Greater Medford club last Monday.

Mrs. Frank McKee made a sale of 50 tons of hay last week.

Miss Martina Neal was a Medford guest Saturday.

Ralph Elden spent several days in Grants Pass this week and by way of recreation sold several tons of alfalfa hay.

The Parent-Teachers' club met Friday afternoon. Mrs. Berkholz read a fine paper on "Child Welfare." The subject for the next meeting will be "Endearing the Home to Children."

Grange will meet Saturday, April 12. The first hour will be devoted to humorous readings, pantomime and songs. To the first hour of the grange meeting the public is cordially invited.

Mrs. Goodmanson, Mr. Packeam's sister, left for her home in Wisconsin. Mrs. Goodmanson and daughter have been spending several months here and enjoyed our many warm and sunny days.

Messrs. Carton, Porter and Lovren were visitors on scenic avenue Sunday afternoon.

Arrangements for rally day, April 25, are progressing nicely and everybody seems to be looking forward to the occasion with much interest and enthusiasm. All invited schools have assured us of their hearty appreciation and cooperation, and there is surely no reason why it should not be a day of pleasure and profit to all. While the occasion will be a novel one to us, it ought to bring forth good fruit and awaken the sensibilities to the fact that our schools are the places where the future guardians of our nation are being made and trained. Too little is being done for our schools, and to make them attractive, and inspire a desire to accomplish results that are to shape the future destinies of the rising generation. How much better it would be to spend less time in beautifying our own private homes, and much more in beautifying the characters and lives of those soon to take our places. Such an occasion as this will do much to stimulate a revivifying of school spirit and bring us into better companionship, fellowship and brotherly love. Two of the best educators in southern Oregon will deliver addresses of interest and, with splendid music, games and a program by the schools, there will surely be something doing all the time. Everybody should come and join in the festivities of the day. A basket dinner will serve us with the choicest "goodies" of the day and with a dessert of pleasant smiles and words of good cheer you'll all feel it's been mighty good to have been here. Watch business places for handbills.

Meritol Eczema Remedy will clear up your skin and remove those disagreeable sores. Haskins Drug Store.
