TO THE LAND OWNERS INTEREST.

THOSE who own land in the Rogue river valley which they wish to sell, will find it impossible to secure purchasers as in days gone by, unless water is also supplied. Land in Southern California is valueless without water. It is water rather than land that is purchased. The same conditions obtain in almost every successful fruit district. Experience has proven that water is essential in semi-arid sections for fruit growing—and the investor realizes this, hence demands the irrigated tract.

The Panama-Pacific exposition will bring thousands of homeseekers in its wake. But most of them will be looking for irrigated tracts. No place will prove more attractive to them than the Rogue river valley, if irrigation is made possible.

Compared with almost any of the California fruit sections, the Rogue river valley is superior in climate, in fertility, in resources. It is a better place to live the year around, and the products produced are superior to those of the Golden State.

The money spent in the construction of the irrigation and trolley systems will immensely stimulate business. It will attract a stream of people similar to that of three years since. It will create a demand for irrigated property. So it is up to every land owner to do his share in securing irrigation—not only to increase his out put and better his market, but to enhance the value of his property, and create a market for it.

Every land owner should sign up for water under the new contract. It is not a matter that affects Medford particularly—it is of vital concern to the entire valley—especially the farmers, fruit growers and owners of idle land.

CALVIN'S SON MAKES RUNAWAY MARRIAGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 22.—After seizing the opportunity presented by a supposedly uneventful trip to the theater to become married in the face of parental objection, Herbert H. Calvin, twenty-two, son of Vice-President E. E. Calvin of the Southern Pacific railroad and Miss Jane Hoge, a Portland, Ore., society girl, have announced their secret unions here today. It is said that the parental blessing is extended to them.

The young people had been friends from childhood. Miss Hoge was a visitor at the Calvin home here today. Upon returning from a trip to Santa Barbara, young Calvin invited the girl to the theater and the wedding followed.

ROSEY OFF TONIGHT FOR TOUR OF EAST

A. S. Rosenbaum, general manager of the Medford division of the Southern Pacific, will leave tonight for an extended tour of the eastern states. Hundreds of friends are wishing "Rosey" a delightful trip and an early return to Medford.

Rosey has appointed himself a committee of one to boost Medford and the Rogue river valley throughout the length and breadth of the nation. He has a trunk full of literature and intends to coerce every Pullman porter he encounters into putting this literature all over their cars.

Rosey will visit Chicago, New York, Washington, Key West, New Orleans and many other cities.

EAST SIDERS KICK ABOUT ROUGH ROAD

A movement has been launched by residents of the east side to circulate a petition and ask for the grading of the strip of road between the east end of the Jackson street bridge and pavement. The roadbed, while hard, is extremely rough, and an effort will be made to have the city order it regraded and rounded up. Two days' work with a plow, grader and roller would make it smooth. It is pointed out that it will yet be a month before the Main street bridge is paved and in the meantime the fire truck would lose much time in crossing to the east side over this stretch of road.

GARBAGE IN CREEK ENDANGERS HEALTH

Chief of Police Hittson this morning notified the garbage haulers of the city that they must stop dumping garbage along Bear creek at the south end of Cottage street on the east side. Much of the refuse is burned, but there is enough decomposed matter left on the ground to pollute the creek and to send the air for many blocks around, endangering health.

TWO INDICTMENTS BY JOSEPHINE GRAND JURY

GRANTS PASS, April 22.—The grand jury has returned two indictments, the first being against Emil Seig, indicted for larceny in the theft of a bicycle, and that of Will Dewey, indicted for failure to provide for and support his family. Seig was placed under bonds of $300, and Dewey's bonds were placed at $200.

VON KLEIN SURE OF PROVING ALIBI

CHICAGO, April 22.—Edmund E. C. Von Klein, a diamond broker, who admits that he is the son of Professor Carl Von Klein, a prominent educator of Minneapolis, and whose extradition to Portland to answer to a charge of stealing diamonds valued at $3500 has been granted by Governor Dunne, was arraigned in the South Clark street municipal court in habeas corpus proceedings, and alleging that he would be able to produce an alibi, the hearing was continued until April 29.

Von Klein was taken into custody about two weeks ago on the complaint of Miss Amy Newcombe, of Portland, who asserted that she recognized him as Jack Lewis, whom she alleges married her in September, 1911, afterward decamping with her jewels.

Miss Newcombe is sure of his identity, but Von Klein claims that the alibi he has prepared will prove conclusively that he was elsewhere at the time the alleged marriage took place in Portland. Detectives from Milwaukee are here attempting to secure Von Klein's extradition on a charge similar to the one preferred by the Portland authorities in case their efforts to remove him fail.

WILMINGTON, N. C., April 22.—Causing damage estimated at $4,000,000 fire destroyed the plant of the Atlantic Coast Lumber Company. The plant is said to have been the largest in the world.

BASEBALL LEAGUES DECLARED TRUSTS

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Declaring that the big baseball leagues entangle and coerce their players, combine to prevent competition and make up the "most autocratic and autolous trust in the world," a resolution asking for a thorough investigation of these leagues was introduced in the lower house of congress today by Representative Gallagher of Illinois.

The resolution provides a committee of seven to probe the baseball trust's workings, particularly its stifling of competition, and apportioning of territory for its exclusive use. Horace Fogel, deposed president of the Philadelphia club in the National League, has promised to submit evidence to congress sustaining the resolution also directs the attorney general to examine players' and other contracts to determine whether the Sherman anti-trust law is being violated.

GERMAN AVIATORS LAND IN FRANCE

PARIS, April 22.—After landing at Arracourt, France, in a military biplane, two German officers nearly caused an international mix-up today until they explained they did not know they were on French territory and were forced to land because they had exhausted their petrol. Minister of War Etienne, who was at Nancy, nearby started for the scene but when informed of the outcome of the incident, abandoned his journey and ordered the men released.

President Poincare, evidently annoyed by Minister Etienne's action, ordered Ambassador Cambon, France's representative at the Kaiser's court, to request the German chancellor to prevent a repetition of such "regrettable incidents."

OREGON SENATORS PLEAD FOR SUFFRAGE

WASHINGTON, April 22.—With Senator Poindexter of Washington as the principal speaker, suffrage was given a hearing today before the senate committee on woman suffrage. Senators Chamberlain and Lane of Oregon also spoke.

In espousing the cause of equal suffrage, Poindexter said the opponents of suffrage would oppose any franchise based on human right and human need. Senator Chamberlain, who introduced a suffrage constitutional amendment two weeks ago, said he thought congress could enfranchise women by a simple enactment and without a change in the constitution. He referred to the superior qualifications of women in educational and other fields, and predicted that the "effete east" could be taught much in development of good citizenship in suffrage states.

Senator Lane said he could not understand any reason for delay and would give the ballot to women at once with an apology for the delay.

GIRL SUFFERED TERRIBLY AT Regular Intervals—Says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured her.

Adrian, Texas.—"I take pleasure in adding my testimonial to the great list and hope that it will be of interest to suffering women. For four years I suffered untold agonies at regular intervals. Such pains, severe chills and sicknesses, stomach, then finally hemorrhages until I would be nearly blind. I had five doctors and none of them could do more than relieve me for a time. I saw your advertisement in a paper and decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took seven boxes of it and used two bottles of the Sanative Wash, and I am completely cured of my trouble. When I began taking the Compound I only weighed ninety-six pounds and now I weigh one hundred and twenty-six pounds. If anyone wishes to address me in person I will cheerfully answer all letters, as I cannot speak too highly of the Pinkham remedies."—Miss JESSIE MARSH, Adrian, Texas.

Hundreds of such letters expressing gratitude for the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has accomplished are constantly being received, proving the reliability of this grand old remedy.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

WIRELESS OPERATORS ON GENERAL STRIKE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 22.—A strike of the wireless operators' union, involving about 300 operators of the entire Pacific coast, was called today as a result of a failure of efforts to reach a compromise with the Marconi company.

The operators are asking for a wage of $54 per month. They now receive from $35 to $45. J. R. Irwin, commercial superintendent of the Marconi company, more than two hours after the strike was called, declared he knew nothing of it. He said his company is not affected in the least.
