

BUSINESS HALTS AS LATE SHERIFF IS LAID AT REST

With business in the city entirely suspended the last tribute was paid by a vast concourse of friends to August D. Singler today, who was shot down in the performance of his duty as sheriff of Jackson county. Hundreds of people attended the last services over the mortal remains, while every business house in town, from bank to cigar stands, was closed. A funeral cortege nearly twelve blocks in length accompanied him from the church in the last trip to the cemetery.

The services were held in the Catholic church of which he was a member, Father O'Farrell officiating. The local lodges of which he was a member escorted the remains from the undertaking parlors to the church. Local members of these orders were out in force while their ranks were swelled by members from other towns in the valley. County officials were all present as well as the city officials of Medford including the entire police force and members of the local fire department.

Father O'Farrell conducted the solemn funeral services of the church and then paid a glowing tribute to a man who sacrificed his life rather than falter in the performance of his duty. He spoke of Singler's great devotion to his family and of the many sterling qualities which secured for him the respect of all with whom he came in contact. Appropriate and beautiful music was rendered.

The floral offerings were so profuse that difficulty was experienced in transferring them to the cemetery. The organizations of which he was a member all sent elaborate floral pieces while hundreds of friends sent flowers.

So great was the crowd at the church that only half could be accommodated, while hundreds stood along the course of the funeral cortege with bare heads.

The pall bearers today were: L. L. Jacobs, T. E. Pottenger, Con Cady representing the Elks; Guy Connor, Martin J. Reddy, John Wilkinson representing the Knights of Columbus, F. E. Martin, W. T. Shoults representing the Redmen; J. M. Riggins, Ben Garnett representing the Modern Woodmen; T. A. Howell and J. T. Broadley representing the Moose.

The organizations in line were: the Elks, Knights of Columbus, Redmen, Woodmen, Moose, Fire Department, Police Department and the city and county officials.

They will leave at 10:30 in the morning on a steam train that will replace the regular motor and it is hoped there will be enough to secure a reduction in the fare.

BAN PLACED UPON WHOLESALE SALOONS

SALEM, Ore., April 25.—The ban is placed on wholesale liquor houses the same as retail dealers outside of incorporated counties by the law that will go into effect June 31, according to an opinion given by Assistant Attorney General Van Winkle to T. Jackson of Fort Klamath today. Jackson asked if he would be permitted by the law to conduct a wholesale liquor establishment on a government license in connection with a hotel outside of an incorporated city. Attorney Van Winkle held that he could not.

INDIANS OF NEAH BAY CUT OUT OF SEAL FISHING

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., April 25.—Indians of Neah Bay, who have just found out that the treaty entered into by Uncle Sam last year with England, Russia and Japan prevents them from catching seal off the coast of Washington and Vancouver Island, are indignant, and are preparing today to file a protest. They say that their principal means of earning a living has been cut off.

MIRACLE SEEN IN APPARITION IN OAKLAND HOME

She left the room but thought best not to awaken other members of the family lest she frighten them with her story.

"I wanted to be alone with him," Miss Lavery said. "I was bending over the casket, hoping that he would send us some message. As I looked into his face I said: 'Father, you will send me a message, won't you?' and then, I don't know what strange power it was, but something impelled me to turn my gaze toward the wall of the other room.

"I saw the vision—there it was, life-size—it was the most beautiful thing I ever saw in my life. I stood still and half expected it to talk, it looked so real. Why you could count the folds in the robes.

Lasts Four Hours.

"It was bright white and above the head rested a halo of softer light. The face was turned toward my father and the hands seemed outstretched to him. As I stood there gazing at it my sister, Mrs. Hart, came in and said: 'Yes, I saw it.'

The vision lasted from two o'clock until six thirty in the morning. So impressed were the sisters with the sight that they determined to call their mother. Mrs. Lavery was awestricken when she beheld the apparition. By 5 o'clock every member of the household had been summoned. From the apparition the light would dim and then shine out clear, a radiance that would envelope the whole room.

Child Sees Apparition.

The three sisters, Mrs. Harry Barbee, Mrs. Maude Hart and Miss Susan Lavery, standing by the casket in which their father's body lay, each wondering at the image of the Virgin Mary in the next room, did not speak for several minutes. The silence was broken when Maude, 6-year-old daughter of Mrs. Holland Downes, another sister, who was absent, stepped into the room.

"Oh, auntie, see the beautiful nun in white," cried the child.

The sisters merely nodded their heads and clasped their hands in awe. Then it occurred to the women to call their mother, the widow, and Mrs. Hart awoke Mrs. Lavery with the statement that her daughters wished her to come into the parlor. On the widow's entrance, she looked aghast at the image, then cried out that she knew her husband had gone to heaven and that this was the message he had sent her.

One by one other members of the family were summoned. On entering the room the newcomers were not told of the vision, but each uttered exclamations on beholding it.

Non-in-Law Skeptical.

Thomas McGinnis, a son-in-law, was skeptical and strode toward the figure, to the dismay of those present. Despite their protestations, he placed his hand through it and pounded the wall at its back, but the image still remained. Then he rushed across the room and lifted the curtains, covered a mirror, closed and shut doors to see if some shadow was not reflected on the wall at the foot of the dead man's bed. When he had satisfied himself he made the sign of the Cross and rushed from the house. With hands outstretched as though in supplication, the image still remained at the foot of the bed and the little group in the next room stood entranced.

Mrs. Barbee said today: "The image appeared as distinct and lifelike as that of a human being. It held me entranced. When I turned my head I saw, not ten steps away, the figure of the Blessed Virgin standing at the foot of the bed on which my father had lain for so many weeks before he died. My first thought was that one of the Catholic sisters who had nursed him had returned to the house and was in the next room. But a second glance told me all too well that it was an unearthly being. It was not until my little niece came into the room and uttered an exclamation that I knew another one beside myself had seen the ghostly form."

ROGUE RIVER MAY GET CEMENT PLANT; CITIZENS ACTIVE

That Rogue River may have the plant of the Beaver Portland Cement company located near that place is the hope of the residents of the little city following a meeting with President Burch of the company Thursday afternoon. A lime deposit near that place is said to be an excellent one and an effort will be made to have the plant located there. The property is to be tested soon.

The residents of Rogue River are planning to issue bonds and build a power line to the property as a subsidy. Committees have been appointed to work the matter out.

President Burch stated to the citizens that his company would look into their proposition but further than this he declined to make a statement.

MISSING MILLIONAIRE CANNOT BE LOCATED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 25.—Armed with subpoenas to compel the attendance upon the white slavery grand jury of many additional witnesses, process servers are scouring Los Angeles and surrounding towns today. The summonses were issued following the close of yesterday's jury session, at which E. J. Fleming, an attorney, was one of the principal witnesses. It is understood that Fleming's testimony provided material for the issuing of the additional subpoenas.

It is also understood that the jury will consider charges that an alleged blackmailing ring exists here. It is further claimed that George H. Bixby, millionaire financier and land owner of Long Beach, and Fleming were the principal objects of the machinations of this ring.

Bixby, for whom a bench warrant issued upon his failure to heed a subpoena to appear as a witness against an alleged process, is outstanding, had not been located today.

For Bright Eyes and Clear Nose

Remarkable Cataract Cure That Gets Right into the Affected Parts and Stops Gatherings.

S. S. S. is a Wonder for the Eyes, Nose and Throat.

It is definitely known that cataract can be cured by the simple process of inoculating the blood with antitoxin remedies that stop inflammatory conditions throughout the mucous linings of all the organs of the body. This is done with the famous Swift's Sure Specific, or, as it is widely known, S. S. S. It is taken into the blood just as naturally as the most nourishing food. It spreads its influence over every organ in the body, through all the veins and arteries, and enables all mucous surfaces to exchange inflammatory acids and other irritating substances for arterial elements that effectually cleanse the system and thus put an end to all cataractal pollution. S. S. S. cleans out the stomach of mucous accumulations, enables only pure, blood-making materials to enter the intestines, combines with these food elements to enter the circulation, and in less than an hour is at work throughout the body in the process of purification.

You will soon realize its wonderful influence by the absence of headache, a decided clearing of the air passages, a steadily improved nasal condition, and a sense of bodily relief that proves how completely cataract often infests the entire system. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 per bottle. It is a remarkable remedy for any and all blood affections, such as eczema, rash, lupus, tetter, psoriasis, boils, and all other diseased conditions of the blood. For special advice on any blood disease write in confidence to The Swift Specific Co., 137 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Do not delay to get a bottle of S. S. S. of your druggist.

TYRUS COBB SIGNS WITH TIGERS AGAIN

DETROIT, Mich., April 25.—Tyrus Cobb, the sensational batsman who has been holding out for a salary of $15,000 a year, signed today a one year contract with the Detroit American League club. The salary clause was not announced.

Cobb conferred with Navin for two hours. The outfielder said he never expected the $15,000 but had named this figure merely as a starter. It is understood Cobb will receive a substantial increase over last year's salary, which was $9000. He signed the contract subject to his reinstatement by the National Commission. He probably will not play ball for a week. Cobb said he refused to seriously consider the offer from the Cleveland outlaw league club.
