EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

O. L. Irwin of Prospect came out Tuesday night, arriving at the Sunnyside about 8:30 p. m. He was on the way to Medford to be with his wife, who is in the hospital there. Mr. Irwin is working at the power plant near Prospect.

Mrs. Elsie Van Dyke of Trail came out on the P. & M. car Tuesday morning and took the Eagle Point-Prospect stage for her home. She had been at Medford with her daughter, who has had an operation performed in the hospital there. She reports that she is getting along nicely.

A. C. Frederic of Oakland, Cal., came out Wednesday morning and procured a team and driver, at B. H. Harnish & Son's livery stable and took a trip up above Lake Creek to look at some railroad land. He returned the same day and spent the night at the Sunnyside, returning to Medford Thursday morning.

Wednesday noon Professor P. J. O'Garra of Medford, chief among the fruit and orchard men in the valley and county superintendent of the fruit interests of the valley; Clyde Barnum, deputy fruit tree inspector; N. S. Bennett of the Eden Valley nursery and J. W. Meyer, also fruit inspector, called at the Sunnyside for dinner. They were looking after some of the orchards in this part of the county.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews, who formerly lived in Medford, but now are living on a part of the old Schlender place, were in town Wednesday.

Miss Lorena Higgins of Derby, who has been visiting her aunt, uncle and cousins, the A. B. Zimmerman family, took the train for home on Thursday morning.

C. E. Marvin, a representative of Hale's piano house, came out on the train Thursday morning.

Thomas E. Nichols, one of our progressive farmers, stockraisers and capitalists, bought for himself, or rather his good wife, a Ford automobile. He says she can run it and he will have to stick to his saddle horse.

W. E. Farshar, a representative of the Mail Tribune, called Thursday for dinner. He is canvassing for the vacuum cleaner and the Mail Tribune and engaged a room for Thursday night with us.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES.

W. A. Elliott was called to Medford Wednesday by the sudden illness of his son, Frank Elliott, who was taken with appendicitis and an operation deemed necessary.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Miller and son, Dale, W. A. Elliott and Mrs. Charles Champlain motored to Medford Wednesday to spend the day.

Mrs. I. T. Galligan, who has been at the Sacred Heart hospital at Medford for three weeks, is expected home Sunday. Her friends are glad to know of her recovery.

Medford relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Porter, about 18 in all, motored out to their home Sunday and spent the day.

At Woolverton was in Medford on business the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Slead are announcing the arrival of a little daughter, Dorothy Harle Slead, who is a welcome little guest. She arrived Thursday, April 17, and at the meeting of the club that afternoon she was duly accepted as a member and congratulations extended to the mother.

While strolling along the foot of the mountain just back of the Alden ranch, Mrs. W. G. Early and daughter Lois, who are visiting at the Alden home, had the pleasure of seeing a young deer, which came within a few feet of them, gazed at them a moment, then turned and ran back among the trees.

The Riverside Recreation club was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. B.

Nye. Nearly all members were present. Mesdames Early, Thompson and Schmidt were present as invited guests. One of the pleasing parts of the program was progressive conversation, interesting topics being given each couple to discuss for a given length of time.

Mrs. Thompson of Gold Hill favored the club with some delightful piano selections, as did also the hostess, Mrs. H. B. Nye. Delicious refreshments were served. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jones on May 1.

ROGUE RIVER VALLEY UNIVERSITY CLUB.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Jackson, Nellie Stiles, Plaintiff, vs. Lawrence Stiles, Defendant.

To Lawrence Stiles, the above-named defendant:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby commanded to appear and answer plaintiff's complaint on file in the above entitled court, on or before six weeks from the date of the first publication hereof, of the date of said first publication being March 22, 1913, and the date of the last publication being May 3, 1913, and if you fail to so appear and answer, plaintiff will demand the relief prayed for in the complaint, to-wit: For a decree of this court dissolving the marriage contract now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as to equity shall seem meet.

This summons is published by authority of an order of the above entitled court, made and entered on the 21st day of March, 1913, by Hon. F. M. Calkins, judge thereof.

First publication March 22, 1913. Last publication May 3, 1913. HOLBROOK WITHINGTON, Attorney for Plaintiff.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for the County of Jackson, Fred H. Cook, plaintiff, vs. O. C. Boggs as administrator of the estate of Lucetta Woolverton, deceased, Al E. Woolverton and Chadwo Woolverton, minor child of Al E. Woolverton and Lucetta Woolverton, and Big Plaza Lumber Company, a corporation, defendants.

To Chadwo Woolverton, one of the above named defendants:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the plaintiff's complaint against you, now on file in the above entitled court and cause, on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of summons herein, to-wit, on or before the 12th day of May, 1913, said date being the expiration of six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer, for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in said complaint, succinctly stated as follows:

That the mortgage mentioned in said complaint be foreclosed and that the real property therein described, viz: Lot numbered Three (3) in Block Number Two (2) of Crescent Subdivision to the City of Medford, in Jackson County, Oregon, as numbered and described in the recorded plat thereof, be sold under the order and decree of said court, as by law provided, and that the proceeds or sufficient thereof be applied in the discharge of the judgment prayed for in said complaint, in the sum of Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00) together with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent (10 per cent) per annum from the 5th day of February, 1911, and the further sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) reasonable attorney's fees, and the costs and disbursements of this suit to be taxed.

That the defendants and all persons claiming or to claim under them be barred and foreclosed of all right, title and equity in or to said described premises, and of any and all equity of redemption therein, except as by statute provided.

This summons is published in the Medford Mail Tribune, a newspaper printed in and of general circulation in said county and state, by order of the Honorable F. M. Calkins, Judge of the above entitled court, which said order was made and entered of record on the 28th day of March, 1913, and in obedience thereto the first publication hereof is the 29th day of March, 1913.

W. E. PHIPPS, Attorney for Plaintiff. Last publication Saturday May 10, 1913.
