

Mutt's Too Impatient to Be a First-Class School Teacher

By "Bud" Fisher

EAT MORE MUTTON CUT LIVING COST

CHICAGO, April 28.—"Eat more lamb and mutton and less beef," advises Swift & Co., meat packers, "if you would reduce the cost of living." The company issued its 1913 "year-book" today, summarizing conditions in the packing industry. The packers see no hope of relief from high beef prices. Figures in the book assert that, while the population of the United States has increased approximately 16,562,000 in the last 19 years, the number of cattle in the country has decreased 7,468,000 during the same period. "From this," reads the book, "it is evident that the consumer, if he does not wish meat values to mount still higher, must advocate increased production of cattle. To relieve the pressure of the present demand for beef the increased use of lamb and mutton is urged."

SECURED INSURANCE BY FEIGNED DEATH

PORTLAND, Ore., April 28.—Charged with having defrauded fraternal orders out of $15,000, Mrs. James C. La France and a man whom the police believe to be James La France, her husband, are under arrest at Marshfield, Ore., and will be brought here for a hearing. The alleged fraud is said to have been possible by the placing of La France's clothing upon the body of another man and then collecting the insurance that La France carried. According to a message received here Mrs. La France has admitted to the police that the man arrested with her is her husband. The body on which Mrs. La France is alleged to have collected insurance was found, badly decomposed, at Estacada, Ore., last July and was identified as being that of La France by the clothing and papers.

ROEDIGER NAMED AS SURVEYOR GENERAL

TACOMA, Wash., April 28.—Richard Roediger, formerly owner of the Tacoma Tribune, has been named surveyor general for the state of Washington and his nomination will be sent to the senate this week by President Wilson. Roediger came to Tacoma in 1884. He has been interested in various newspaper enterprises here and in Alaska. For a time he was also in the customs service in Tacoma. Mr. Roediger was a recent Medford visitor. He is an old friend of Emil Mohr of the Hotel Medford.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller of Medford were visiting their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Nichols, Thursday and Friday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Wig Jacks were doing business and visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Nichols, Friday. F. Y. Allen, formerly of Trail but now of Medford, called for dinner Friday. He was out buying a carload of hogs for shipment. He said that he was succeeding quite well. J. T. Swanson of Elk Creek came out Thursday evening on the Eagle Point and Persist stage.

J. H. Trusty came out from his home on Elk Creek Thursday, spent the night with his son-in-law, Henry O. Childreth, and Friday took a load of things up home with him. Mr. King, a representative of the Medford Grocery company, was taking orders from Fred L. Heath, one of our leading business men. William Coffden and William Hustin of Trail were visiting our merchants Friday. Mr. Coffden has a homestead about five miles below Trail and Mr. Hustin is one of the old settlers in that neighborhood.

Last Friday C. M. Kidd, the shoe man of Medford, J. A. Perry, the fruit commission man and F. E. Merrick, one of the progressives of Medford, were callers for dinner at the Sunnyside. They were working in the interests of the big irrigation movement in Rogue River valley. They report they are getting along fairly well, but that it takes lots of talking to make some of the farmers understand that it is to their interest to put water on their land through that means, but seem to think that they will eventually succeed in the undertaking.

While F. E. Merrick of Medford was here he suddenly disappeared from the Sunnyside and after the other guests had eaten their dinner came marching in, in company of Miss Knox, teacher in our school in the third room. It appeared that while the company was waiting for dinner he took a notion to visit our school and there met Miss Knox, who was a schoolmate of his daughter in the university at Eugene, and while they were eating their dinner had a fine visit and I think that the arrangement was made for Miss Knox to accompany them to Medford and have her visit Saturday and Sunday with Mr. Merrick's family. S. V. Hamlin of Medford, one of the old pioneer stock, was also a caller for dinner at the Sunnyside Friday.

CENTRAL POINT POINTERS

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Ashcraft spent Friday in Ashland. County Commissioner W. C. Leever attended the funeral of the late sheriff August Singler Friday morning in Medford. Constable C. S. Sanderson made a business trip to Ashland the last of the week. The pupils of the Central Point schools enjoyed a holiday Friday. School was dismissed on account of the rally day at Willow Springs and the pupils and the entire faculty attended the meet in a body. The Rogue River Valley band and a large number of citizens spent the day at Willow Springs also. All present spent a most delightful day and appreciated the very excellent program much.

Mrs. J. F. Terry and Mrs. A. Lone were Central Point visitors in Medford Friday. Mrs. T. Kelso was delightfully surprised by the ladies of the W. R. C. Saturday afternoon who met at her home to celebrate her anniversary. The ladies carried light lunch with them and also presented the estimable lady with a beautiful dress.
