SURVEY STARTS FOR TROLLEY LINE TO CITY HEIGHTS

The first actual work on the Bullis electric railroad since the granting of the franchise was started Friday morning when Engineer Harry Foster and a corps of men started a preliminary survey of a right of way which will leave East Main street near the end of the pavement, follow the cemetery road around the hill and then head east through Siskiyou Heights.

While this route seems probable now the company is still considering a proposition to run the line up through Queen Anne addition and to Higherot, north of the Main street road, crossing the road to the south near the Lindley home and terminating for the present in Siskiyou Heights.

The road will leave the center of Medford but no streets will be torn up until the rails are on their way.

TO PLAY SERIES WITH POINTERS

The Medford ball team, which continued its winning gait by beating Talent Thursday by a 17 to 3 score, will probably line up against the fast Central Point team here Sunday. Efforts are being made to sign up a series of games with the Central Pointers an additional inducement being $500 to the winner.

Thursday's game was a pretty one so far as Medford was concerned. The visitors made a number of costly errors and their pitcher was pounded as hard and as effectively as our Bud pummeled Mandot. Later in the season two games with Weed are considered which will mean excitation crowds both ways.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF HIGH SCHOOL TONIGHT

A class of 46, the largest in the history of the Medford High school, will be graduated this evening at the Page theater. The class address will be delivered by R. B. McCabe and the presentation of diplomas will be made by B. F. Mulkey.

The seats in the parquet circle as far back as the first row of posts have been reserved for the parents and relatives of the graduating class, but the remainder of the house is free to any who wish to attend. It is certain that the new theater will be taxed to its capacity.

Girls Make Own Gowns. The seniors today are busy preparing for the exercises and in addition have arranged for a class picnic on the banks of the Rogue for Saturday.

Time will not allow each student to take a part in the program this evening. Clyde LaMar, Carolyn Andrews and Charles Prim being the only ones to participate.

The junior class is preparing to attend in force to celebrate their arrival at the senior state.

The girls who graduate, with the exception of a few who have entered the school recently, will wear gowns of their own make with a cost limit of $7.50. Some of them even made the lace and the results are a great credit to the makers and to the domestic science department. Sewing is compulsory in the lower grades and it is significant that a majority of the girls elect to continue the course in the junior and senior years.

More of the members of the class expect to take up teaching than any other line of work, as fourteen, Arthur Allder, Virginia Carder, Mabel Keizer, Elsie Sage, Gertrude Shoult, Alberta Jones, Ruth Lawrence, Ruth Wilson, Esther Reed, Lowene Payne, Agnes Dunlap, Alice Smith, Arthur Palmer and Blanche Darby, will make this their vocation.

Harold Cochran will be a dentist, Harold Blaine Radcliff, Will Beveridge, Robert M. Wilson and Frederick Heath will take up civil engineering, mining and mechanical; Ray La Mar is a prospective merchant; George Childs a plumber; Herbert Alford, a banker; and two, Theodore Fish and Milton Schuchard will till the soil.

Paul Dodge will sell fire-arms; Edson Marshall will take up journalism; Alice Goddove, Lenore Vance and Irene Smith will be stenographers; Elizabeth Blackford and Gladys Hinman have chosen music; Pearl Gould, domestic art; Lorraine Ulrich and Edith Wilson will do general office and commercial work.

Nolo Lindley, Charles Prim, Linn Smith, Ralph Balcom, John Demmer, Alice Forbes, Francis Heath, Ina Cochran, Francis Kinney, Louis Williamson and Ethel Guthrie are undecided as to vocation.

The program will be: March, "Thunshauer".....Wagner Medford Orchestral club. Grand march.....Orchestra Invocation.....Rev. W. F. Shields Welcome address.....Clyde Ray LaMar Vocal solo, "Ave Maria" (Latin).....Benediction.....Rev. D. D. Boyle

RIVERS TO MEET WILLIE RITCHIE FRISCO JULY 4

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 23.—Promoter Tom McCarey today released Joe Rivers, the Mexican lightweight from his promise to fight at Vernon July 4. Joe Levy, Rivers' manager, at once telegraphed Eddie Graney, the San Francisco promoter, the fact of Rivers' release, and asked Graney for his best terms for Rivers' services as an opponent for Champion Willie Ritchie at San Francisco July 4.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 23.—Eddie Graney, immediately upon receipt of a message from Joe Levy, manager of Joe Rivers, this afternoon, announced that he will go to Los Angeles tonight or tomorrow morning to arrange the details of the contest, including the referee. Levy's message was as follows:

"McCarey has released us. What are your best terms for a championship match with Ritchie July 4?" "I do not care to take up the details of the great match by wire," said Graney, "but will depart for Los Angeles tonight or tomorrow morning to confer with Levy and McCarey."

McCarey's Explanation. Failing to land an Anderson-Cross bout, McCarey probably will seek elsewhere for an opponent for Bud. It is not likely that he will attempt to match Luther McCarty with Gunboat Smith or Jess Willard.

After delivering to Levy his release of Rivers, McCarey explained his position, saying: "Two months ago, I gave the July

ANDERSON FIGHTS LEACH CROSS AT LOS ANGELES JULY 4

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 23.—Bud Anderson versus Leach Cross, 20 rounds, 133 pounds, at noon on the day of the fight.

This is the card for Vernon July 4 that promoter Tom McCarey, failing to land the Ritchie and Rivers' attraction, is considering today. It is certain that Anderson will accept the terms McCarey will offer, and the promoter will lose no time in presenting an offer to the New York dentist, Cross. The distance and weight will be stipulated.

Furthermore, the winner of this battle probably will be given the first chance at Rivers, should he succeed in lifting the lightweight championship from Ritchie. While McCarey refused to admit it to be a fact, no surprise would be occasioned here by the statement that Joe Levy has promised McCarey the services of Rivers for Labor Day, in return for McCarey's release of the Mexican for July 4.

Anderson-Cross bout, McCarey probably will seek elsewhere for an opponent for Bud. It is not likely that he will attempt to match Luther McCarty with Gunboat Smith or Jess Willard.

After delivering to Levy his release of Rivers, McCarey explained his position, saying: "Two months ago, I gave the July date, figuring that I had as good a card as there is in the country, with the understanding that I was to select his opponent. I tried hard to get Ritchie, as the public will see if Nolan makes public my offers. In my judgment, I was more liberal than any other promoter. However, I will not be the means of stopping Joe's chances for the title. I therefore released Rivers from any obligation whatever with me, and he is at liberty to sign for the San Francisco bout if he likes."

Levy to See Graney. Levy will wait here to talk with Graney when the successful promoter arrives tomorrow. If he closes with Graney, as he expects to do, Levy and Rivers will leave here for San Francisco June 10. Rivers will probably train at the Seal Rock house.

It is said Mrs. Leslie Carter is going vaudeville next season in a new playlet.
