ANDERSON MAY FIGHT WOLGAST

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 26.—That Los Angeles fight fans will have entertainment July 4 was the declaration today of Promoter Tom McCarey, but as to who the principals will be, the pugilistic impresario is still in a quandary.

"I have several matches under consideration," said McCarey. "Should Ad Wolgast defeat Johnny Dundee, June 10, I may try to arrange a match between him and Bud Anderson for independence day. If Dundee should be the victor it may mean another bout between Dundee and Johnny Kilbane for the featherweight title.

"Kid Williams and Johnny Coulson over the 20-round course would be a good attraction, and this may be the card finally decided upon in case Coulson can be brought to terms. Leach Cross and Bud Anderson are also under consideration for the July 4 battle."

COFFEE TRUST PROBE DEMANDED

WASHINGTON, May 26.—Unless the department of justice reopens the prosecution of the coffee valorization trust, which doubled the price of coffee and escaped trial, United States Senator George W. Norris of Nebraska will introduce in the senate a resolution demanding action by congress.

"The combine advanced the price of coffee in the face of the largest crops ever known," said Senator Norris today. "Since I began exposing the scheme the price has been reduced 4 cents per pound, although the present outlook is for a shortage in crops. That shows both the artificial character of the high prices, and the effect of a little publicity when prosecution is threatened.

"The department of justice has been bamboozled by the valorization syndicate, which is still in operation and is still victimizing the American public."

KAY BEE FEATURE AT THE STAR THEATER

Another of the famous Kay-Bee frontier, pioneer and Indiana war dramas is to be shown at the Star today. These features have become very popular with the photo play fans and Manager Sather predicts a capacity business today and tomorrow. The other films are "Mid-Pacific Carnival at Honolulu," a very interesting picture that will prove a revelation to all lovers of clean sport, and "Her Wax Figure," a rich and laughable comedy that will send you away happy and knowing that you have seen one of the best balanced shows ever seen anywhere.

DIED.

WOOLFOLK—At his home in Grants Pass, Wednesday, of paralysis. He had been a resident of the Grants Pass district for the past 24 years. He was born in Missouri in July, 1837, being at the time of his death in his 76th year. During his residence in Grants Pass Mr. Woolfolk had been engaged in mining and farming, and for many years was also a proprietor of the local brick yard, having made the brick for many of the business structures of the city.

He was a veteran of the confederate army, having served with the Missouri troops under Price. Besides his wife, eight children, six boys and two girls, survive him.

TUCSON, Ariz., May 26.—Stricken with heart failure on a train near Bowie, Ariz., Lew L. Smucker, managing editor of the Arizona Star of this city, is dead today. The body will be taken to El Dorado, Kan., Smucker's former home, for interment.

JUDGE KELLY TO THE RESCUE

"Shifty" Miles with his "Inevitable" added another scalp to his belt yesterday afternoon when Medford defeated Central Point 4 to 1. Bud Anderson opened the game by pitching the first ball and gave a demonstration of anti-dextrousness which was worth the price of admission. Bud "split" the plate with both left and right hands and there was "stern" on the ball as was proven when Catcher Hill allowed one crash against the grandstand, the reverberating tones of which are still ringing in Scorer Withington's ears. Bud was given an ovation when introduced by Captain Miles.

When 3 o'clock rolled around the Central Point team refused to take the field unless an umpire they had brought with them was allowed to officiate. Some wrangling took place and the game began. Before the first inning was over it was very evident to the spectators why the Central Point team was so insistent that their man should hold the indicator. The climax came in the second when "His Umps" changed a decision he already had given, which was too much for "Curley" Wilson, Captain and key-stone of the Central Point club. The irate namesake of our president took off his spiked shoes and prepared to go home.

Enter Judge Kelly.

For some minutes it looked as if there would be no ball game. The spectators in the bleachers and grandstand ceased their shouting when Judge Kelly who is some ball player himself, rushed onto the diamond and ploughed his way to where Catcher Wilson sat praying for "Silk" O'Laughlin to appear. Kelly and the man who made "That's all" famous had a talk and "Curly" returned to his position with the understanding that the district attorney should umpire the rest of the game.

The game was resumed and the judge gave his decisions in his Blackstonian way. When a batter let the third strike go on him Kelly would say: "Sit down," which is an improvement on "Three strikes and the batter is out," not to say anything of the time it saves. When a runner was caught napping off first, the "fellow with the green necktie" said "Get out of there" and "get" it was.

The game was good although less "crabbing" would have made it more enjoyable to the "fans." Antle made a neat running catch and Rudy Shultz made a two-base hit over left field fence. Crowded grandstand and bleachers showed that Medford will patronize good ball. The summary: Central Point—

JOKE OF IDIOTS INJURES BRIDE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 26.—Mrs. Fannie Barnat, a bride of two days, is recovering today from rough handling by a party of friends in celebration of her marriage to Rubin Barnat, of Aurora, Ill. To escape the persistent charivari party the bride and groom left their automobile and took refuge in a local hostelry. The hazers rushed to the hotel elevator which was carrying the young people to an upper floor, and crowded in. In the melee the bride's face was severely scratched and she fainted. Hotel attendants finally expelled the hazers.

FOUNDER OF TALENT DEAD

Aaron Patton Talent, founder of the city of Talent, died Monday morning at 3 o'clock of complications incident to advanced age. He came to the Rogue river valley in 1875, secured a parcel of land then known as Wagner creek which he later subdivided. Mr. Talent secured the post office for the city that bears his name, the government authorities refusing to accept the name Wagner creek and substituting that of the man who founded the settlement.

Mr. Talent was born May 18, 1836 in Tennessee. He served through the civil war as quartermaster in the First Tennessee mounted cavalry. In 1837 he married and in 1875 the family came west. The wife and six sons and daughters survive. They are: Mrs. Y. R. Hendrickson, John Talent, Mrs. E. R. Oatman, J. O. Talent, Charles P. Talent and Mrs. J. D. Beeson. The family home for the past 11 years has been at 245 S. Central from which place the funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock, Rev. Mr. McCullough officiating. Interment will be at Ashland, the Ashland Masonic order having charge of the ceremonies at the grave.

Mr. Talent was closely connected with the Baptist church and his family have been staunch members of that faith.

JACKSONVILLE NOW AFTER BIG CANNERY

A vegetable and fruit cannery with a grape juice manufactory in connection is a possibility for Jacksonville. The commercial club there is busy interesting citizens and growers in the plan and already have made tentative arrangements for a building, the old brewery on the west side of the city. It is proposed to organize a company and to sell stock at $10 a share. Those interested hope to secure the fruit and vegetables from around Jacksonville and from the Applegate. A large number of vineyards are situated on the hills near Jacksonville and the grape juice feature, while not yet definite, looks promising. There is no manufacturer of grape juice of any size on the coast. It is claimed that grapes sold at from $15 to $18 a ton leaves a profit to the grower and that they can be profitably made into juice at that figure.

CATTLE MARKET STEADY AND STRONG

PORTLAND, May 26.—Receipts for the week have been cattle, 1463; calves, 173; hogs, 3054; sheep, 7561; horses, 24. Cattle market steady to firm during the entire week. Prime grain fed steers sold at $6, many ears being disposed of at this price. Bulk of steer sales $8.50 to $8.75. Butcher stock active and first offering of heifers in weeks brings $8.00 bids from the buyers. A poor layout in cows. Market is steady to strong in all classes.

Swine trade is uneven.

General top is steady at $8.25 with an occasional load selling at $8.30 to $8.35. Liquidation continues liberal and sellers have a slight opportunity to raise market level.

Sheep house did a brisk business in medium grade lambs and mutton. Strictly prime stock was a scarce article. Spring lamb top around $7.25, prime wethers $6.00 and ewes $5.00. Sheep demand is somewhat slow and poor, thin stuff is finding narrow outlet.

Encouraging news to Rogue river valley ranchers is the prospect for good prices for hay. In California and in the Willamette valley the crop is short and in general the hay crop this year is said to be below that of last year by a wide margin. Hay here in the valley looks well although the number of tons to the acre is a little below that of last year when the spring was marked by continuous heavy rains. Those who have irrigation will have bumper crops, with a bright chance for a profit making price. At San Jose at this time last year hay was bringing $6 a ton while it now is bringing $8.

PSYCHOTHERAPY IDENTIFIES MAN

BERKELEY, Cal., May 26.—By the science of the psychotherapist, Dr. J. D. Ball today has solved the identity of a young man found in the Berkeley Hills suffering from loss of memory. His name is H. F. Mohundro of Clarkston, Wn.

Dr. Ball gave the young man a pencil and calmly explained to him the need of ascertaining his name. The patient wrote the initials "H. L." and then his diseased memory failed. He finally recalled his mother's name was Emma. Then his scattered wits rushed to his aid and he wrote his full name without hesitation. Mohundro's father, W. G. Mohundro, was notified of his son's plight, and he is expected here tomorrow.

HERE'S THE SMALLEST EGG YET RECORDED

If there is any consolation prize to be given in the informal egg contest being held in the valley it goes to a Rhode Island Red hen belonging to Mrs. Walter Antle of this city. The hen has recently contributed an egg measuring 3 1/4 inches in circumference and weighing a little less than one ounce. It is about the size of a crow's egg.

POPE DRIVES OUT ILLNESS IS PAST

ROME, May 26.—Out of doors for the first time since his recent severe illness, Pope Pius today drove in the Vatican gardens. He appeared to be in excellent health.

CARELESSLY LEFT HER HUSBAND'S BONES BEHIND

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 26.—A "can of human bones," found by youngsters in the yard of a residence on Ellis street here proved today to be the ashes of the husband of Mrs. L. A. Troffow. The widow notified the coroner today that her husband died in Portland three months ago. She brought his ashes here and intended to deposit them in Cypress Lawn cemetery but being called away suddenly, left them buried in the yard of her mother's home.

INFLUENCE OF WOMEN

The influence of women, glorious in the possession of perfect physical health, upon men and upon the civilization of the world could never be measured—but what about the ailing, nervous, depressed woman who is a damper to all joyousness in the home and a drag upon her husband? Every such woman should remember that the one great American remedy for woman's ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and give it a trial at once, and thus put herself in the way of restoring that perfect physical health which is hers by birthright.

ECHOES FROM PHOENIX

Phoenix Happenings Always Interest Our Readers.

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns?" The generous statement of this Phoenix resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

Mrs. J. Waterman, Phoenix, Oregon, says: "I have no hesitation in recommending Doan's Kidney Pills as I have had ample proof of their merit. Over-exertion or being on my feet for any length of time caused my back to ache and sent sharp pains through my loins. Frequent headaches and spells of dizziness also bothered me. I knew that my kidneys were at fault and hearing Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, I procured a supply. I began using them and they relieved the difficulties which had so long distressed me."
