The old stage road heretofore mentioned. (d) The road known as Kings' highway road, running from the southern city limits of Medford along Medford R. F. D. No. 1 in a general westerly, southerly and easterly direction to the intersection of Medford R. F. D. No. 1 with the main road from Medford to Phoenix. Not Main Thoroughfares. These highways are not the main thoroughfares of the county, but are important roads and the county will hereafter be relieved of all care concerning them and enabled to devote its energy and money to other highways. Since his first trip, Engineer Burrell has been in Humboldt and San Mateo county, California, where he mapped out a system of highways to be constructed under proposed bond issues. By means of illustrated lectures and talks he was of material assistance in the passage of a road bond issue for $1,500,000 in San Mateo county, by a vote of 6 to 1, which at a previous election had met defeat.

TRIO OF GIRLS HELD FOR RAISING CHECKS

PORTLAND, Ore., May 28.—Charged with a crime that is undertaken usually by older and more experienced persons Lucy Quelette, Christina Pablo and Ida Kennedy, three pretty Indian maidens, each 17 years old, are in custody here today charged with having raised the amounts on post office money orders and cashed them. The girls, who are students at Chemawa Indian school near Salem, were arrested there by Deputy United States Marshal D. B. Fuller. Two instances are mentioned in the indictment, one where a money order for $1 was made to read $21 and another for $5 was made to read $25. In both instances the orders were cashed. The post office authorities in checking over their accounts found the discrepancy and the indictments followed. The girls are reported to have admitted their guilt.

JACK BRITTON, BOXER, WHO CAUSED RIVERS TO GO WEST

The moment Joe Rivers, conqueror of Leach Cross and many other good lightweights, was face to face with a match with Jack Britton, the Chicago boxer, he hurried west. Rivers and his manager, who had gone east to fight Cross and had won, remained in New York City for several weeks looking about for other matches. They complained that Freddy Welsh, the British champion, and others would not meet him. Thereupon up stepped Dan Morgan, manager of Britton, with an offer to have his man box Rivers. "We will take 22 1/2 per cent and let Rivers have 27 1/2 per cent of the house to get a chance at him," said Morgan to Billy Gibson, manager of the Madison Square Club. "We are sorry, but we have got to take a train for the west at once," was the answer of Rivers' manager. Britton was recently beaten by Packy McFarland, the wonder of the stockyards and the rest of the world, but few others in his class think they can do it. All the lightweights spend most of their time side-stepping him, and he finds it difficult to get a match. Many of them will fight McFarland, for the "short end" knowing that the Chicago boy will draw sufficiently to repay them well. Anyway, McFarland is considered so good that it doesn't hurt a second rater's reputation much to be beaten by him. To be whipped by Britton, who is not rated so high, would damage them more.

IS HAL CHASE, WONDERFUL FIRST SACKER, 'LAYING DOWN'?

Hal Chase, the man who revolutionized the playing of first base, once among the most popular of ball players of the country, is now scorned by the fans. Why? "He's 'laying down,'" hellowed ten thousand at his last exhibition before the New York American League club, the Yankees, started on their first trip to the west this year. They hooted and howled at him throughout the game. Chase was batting under .200, whereas he used to be over or close to the .300 mark. His brilliant playing at first base was a reminiscence, his services to the team were mediocre—perhaps no better than those of any other of the sixteen first basemen in the teams of the big leagues. Once he was the unquestionable premier. Chase has not gone back. He is not old and stale. Occasionally he shows flashes of his form of other years. The fans were satisfied that he didn't want to play. The cause has not been determined. Some of those who pretend to know how Frank Chance, late manager of the wonderful Cubs of Chicago, now manager of the Yankees, handles his men, say he is brutal. They think this may have disgusted Chase. Others believe Chase would like to be sold to some other club of the American League. While Chance doesn't talk about it, he knows that Chase is not playing up to form. He said in Detroit the other day he would trade his first basemen if he got an equivalent. Chase has sulked at other times—last year, when Harry Wolverton was manager, and several years ago, when he quit before the end of the season and went to his California home. Any manager who can make him play up to his capability will have a good start toward winning the pennant.

COLONEL'S JULEP WAY OFF FORM

WASHINGTON, May 28.—United States Senator "Gumshoe Bill" Stone of Missouri was indignant here today when, informed of the way Colonel Roosevelt's mint juleps were made. "Crushing the mint in a julep is a crime," he said. "In Kentucky folks don't think a mint julep is fit to drink if the mint is smashed. Moreover a julep, to be really primo, should be set away in a cool spot until frost appears on the outside of the glass."

ATTENTION MOTHERS!

If You Have or Know of a Delicate Child Read This Letter. "My little daughter Louise, age 9 years, has always been delicate, anemic, had no appetite and seemed listless, and we could not seem to find anything that would help her, until we were advised to give her Vinol. She started taking it six weeks ago and inside of two weeks she showed a marked improvement both in appetite, vim and looks. Being so well pleased with the results, I continued giving it to her, and words fail to express my gratitude, and faith in Vinol both as a blood maker and body builder. As my child was an anemic for so long makes the reason all the stronger for me to recommend it to others in similar condition." Geo. E. Munro, Brooklyn, N. Y. Vinol restores health and strength in conditions like this because in a natural manner it increases the appetite, tones up the digestive organs, enriches the blood and strengthens every organ of the body. Every bottle of Vinol is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded. Medford Pharmacy, Medford, Ore.
