

FOUR SUSPECTS IN VANCOUVER MURDER

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 29.—Although no definite charge has been laid against four suspects arrested late yesterday in connection with the murder of Constable James Archibald, the police declare that among the persons of H. F. Clarke, Frank Davis, James Hamilton and Joseph Seymour known as "Blackie," they believe they have in custody men connected with the deed. Every effort is being made to forge the scattered links of evidence together and already Chief Inspector McTear announces that they have an important clue which will prove conclusive. The nature of this evidence they were not able to divulge, but it is thought to hinge on the finding of a bit of cloth near the body, which corresponds with a garment found in the cabin occupied by one of the accused.

WISHED TO JOIN WIFE KILLED SELF ON STREET

SA FRANCISCO, Cal., May 29.—Despondent over the death of his wife, George Hoerter, a saloonkeeper, blew out his brains in Portsmouth square here early today. Police from headquarters just across the street reached the suicide's body within a few seconds after the shot was fired, but Hoerter already was dead.

A note found among the suicide's effects said that Hoerter's wife died some three years ago and that he wanted to join her in Holy Cross cemetery.

CHICAGO MAN DROPS OUT OF SIGHT IN LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, Cal., May 29.—The police of Los Angeles have been asked today to aid in the search for Christian Hagadorn, 69, of Pasadena, retired merchant of Chicago, who dropped from sight two weeks ago after he had sold oil stock he owned for $900.

Hagadorn, who was an invalid recently met with financial reverses, and he had suggested to his family that he might go to Alaska to recoup his fortunes. Members of his family fear that he has met with an accident in some north Pacific port.

HERE IS CURE FOR LAZY HUSBANDS

SEATTLE, Wash., May 29.—Impressed by the arguments presented by a committee of the Federated Women's clubs, headed by Mrs. H. P. Fish and preparing for the "lazy husband" law which goes into effect June 14, the county commissioners are planning a stockade on the sixty-five acres of public land near Ballard. The first work which convicted "lazy husbands" will find confronting them is clearing the land of stumps.

The new law specifically requires that persons convicted of abandoning their families shall be put to work by the county, their wages, not to exceed $1.50 per day to go to their dependents.

EXAMINE BOOKS IN DYNAMITE TRIAL

BOSTON, May 29.—Experts employed by District Attorney Pelletier were busily engaged today examining the books of the American Woolen company in connection with the trial here of William Wood, millionaire head of the woolen trust, Frederick Atteaux, a wealthy millman, and Dennis Collins, a Cambridge dog fancier, charged with planting dynamite to discredit Lawrence strikers.

As no other witnesses were available at this time Judge Crosby yesterday ordered an adjournment until Monday.

FORT SCOTT GUNNERS HANG UP HIGH RECORD

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 29.—Fourteen hits out of a possible fourteen in one minute and fifty seconds with the six inch disappearing guns of battery Chamberlain is on record here today as the achievement at Fort Winfield Scott of the Sixtieth Company, Coast Artillery, commanded by Lieutenant Halsey. The men men shot at a target six thousand yards away and the record was established in what is known as the "emergency practice," of which no warning is given until the company is called upon to shoot.

HANS WAGNER, THE GREAT SHORTSTOP, AS HE IS TODAY

Here is Hans Wagner, the greatest mechanical baseball player known to the history of the game, back in the game. Gray shows about the temples of the veteran of fifteen campaigns on the diamond, but he has not slackened his pace. His fielding is as great and his batting as heavy as in the days when the Pirates stood to win championships. It is not Hans' fault that the Pirates are not contenders for the National league pennant this year. If every member of the crew were his equal the race would be a runaway.

GIRLS MARCH FROM BURNING ORPHANAGE

AUCKLAND, N. Z., May 29.—The orderly conduct and marching of a hundred young girls, clad only in their night gowns, through the burning corridors of the Catholic orphanage here saved them from a fiery death last night.

There was no panic and every girl walked as if she was taking a quiet promenade.

The coolness was inspired by the calmness of the sisters and their quiet handling of the situation. All reached the street in safety.

Presbyterian Church. Prayer meeting at the Presbyterian church tonight at 8 o'clock. The subject is "The Householder." A good subject mostly insures a good meeting.

GIRL HORSETHIEF HOLDS OFF POSSE

PENDLETON, Ore., May 29.—Somewhere in the mountains of Morrow county Julia Walker, 29, a quarterbreed Indian girl, armed with a gun with the use of which she is perfectly familiar, is defying the efforts of the authorities to arrest her on a charge of horsetealing.

The girl and a companion, S. W. Jordan, wanted on the same charge, were arrested on the streets of Heppner Tuesday, but while being escorted to jail, she suddenly wheeled her fleetfooted horse and dashed for the hills, followed by a fusillade of shots from the guns of her late captors.

The girl fugitive is a horsewoman of rare skill, and her marksmanship is reported to be little short of marvelous.

CENTRAL POINT VS. MEDFORD FRIDAY

The second game in the three-game series for a side bet between Central Point and Medford will take place on the local diamond Friday afternoon. Medford has one game to its credit and Central Point people threaten to bet their summer underwear that Shorty's men will not annex Friday's game. Central Point will have an exceptionally strong lineup and this game should be better than Sunday's, when an almost errorless game was played.

The grounds are now in charge of a gang of men and should be in fine shape for the big game.

VAUDEVILLE WARMLY RECEIVED BY CROWD

The vaudeville show at the Page Wednesday evening opened a series of weekly entertainments which promise to be enthusiastically received by Medford show patrons. The performance of last night will be repeated this evening. A long felt want has been supplied when good vaudeville acts are given to this city. The Leilott brothers with a musical skit, in which one brother has a very clever makeup, was the act most warmly received. For skill and humor mixed the flying Fishers were a revelation. Joe Carroll puts on a monologue that grows in favor as he proceeds and is a big laugh getter. In addition there is the Temple Quartet in a pleasing act and the headliner, Julie Ring, in the "Man She Met." This act is finely costumed and Miss Ring is a pleasing picture to behold. The pagescope shows a reel of good moving pictures. The crowd took well to the idea of vaudeville and the success of the venture is assured.

McCarthy's Estate Small.

CALGARY, Alberta, May 29.—The estate of Luther McCarthy, according to close Calgary friends, will not amount to more than $20,000. The estate comprises about $10,000 in cash in a San Francisco bank, $6,000 worth of Los Angeles real estate and his $4,000 worth of personal property.

HEN MAKES GOOD FOR SMALL EGG

In order to preserve the reputation of the flock one of Mrs. Walter Antle's hens has laid an egg of near-record size. The other day one of the hens laid a diminutive egg which started the competition among hens to see which could lay the smallest. Today one of the Rhode Island Reds at the Antle home contributed an egg measuring 7½ by 6 inches, not a record egg, but one that would do credit to a goose. The Antle henyard considers itself vindicated.

COX OF CINCINNATI MUST STAND TRIAL

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 29.—Judge Caldwell here today overruled motions to quash indictments against George Cox and other officials of the Cincinnati trust company charged with misappropriating its funds. The court announced further that all motions looking to delay will be overruled, and ordered that the trial begin Monday on the charge of wrongful removal of $352,000 of the bank's assets.

FARMERS UNION OPPOSES INDIAN LAND LEASES

SPOKANE, Wash., May 29.—Resolutions passed here by the Farmers' Union of Idaho and Washington in joint convention, opposing the leasing of Indian lands on Yakima reservation to aliens will be forwarded to the secretary of the interior at Washington today. The resolutions, open up the alien question in the northwest and were presented by J. M. Reid.

THE LATEST FASHION NOTE

Says: "It is a wise precaution against getting holes in delicate hosiery to powder the shoes before putting them on." Many people sprinkle the famous antiseptic powder, Allen's Foot-Ease, into the shoes and find that it saves its cost ten times over in keeping holes from hosiery as well as lessening friction and consequent smarting and aching of the feet.
