

DOLL SHOP AT PAGE JUNE 13

The I. O. O. F. of Medford, being so charmed with the very few specialties from "The Doll Shop" at their yandeville during convention week, decided at once to produce this very delightful piece at the Page theater, and under their auspices, June 13 and 14. Seiver has full charge of the production. Many new features and mighty pretty ones will be introduced. Eighty-three artists of Medford are already rehearsing day and night so as to perfect every "little movement." By June 13 all will be "real professionals." A "summer" will be given. "On the B. on the B. on the Boulevard," a song and dance in which the ever popular Herbert L. Alford will sing and assisted with a fine chorus of voices and all kinds of surprises in store for those who will see it. Remember the date, only one night, June 13, at the Page.

WINE AND BATHS CURED OF CULT

CHICAGO, May 31.—"Good health makes good morals, and more than half of the ills in life are caused from the feet. Therefore we worship our feet as our gods."

The declaration was made from her cell here today by Mrs. Lillian P. Eoff, head of the "Order of Fifteen," Chicago's newest cult, whose headquarters were raided last yesterday.

Great piles of red and white silk kimonos, woven hair of many shades and dozens of bottles of rare wines were found. Mystic pictures covered the walls of many rooms, all bearing strange lettering in Arabic.

One of the charges against Mrs. Eoff is giving "hot air" baths to members of her cult. Detective Reischke took one of the baths and characterized it as "some bath." Then he decided the things he saw warranted the raid.

NEW HARDWARE STORE READY FOR BUSINESS

The F. W. Shapleigh Hardware company announce they are now ready for business in their new quarters on East Main street and specially invite everybody to call and see them. They have doubled their former floor space, have increased stocks of goods in all departments, have many new things to show you and will esteem it a favor if you will call today and if not today the first opportunity you have.

The Shapleigh Hardware company opened for business here about a year ago and the move to larger quarters is to accommodate their increasing business.

Messrs. Shapleigh and Watson are up-to-date, progressive business men and show their faith in Medford and the valley by their recent move and enlarged stocks.

Tonight at 8 o'clock they announce the lucky person who gets the refrigerator.

STAR HAS ATTRACTIVE PHOTOPLAY BILL

A splendid program of films are being shown at the Star today—two "Thanhausers," a Flying "A" western featuring Mr. Kerrigan and Mr. Richardson, a "Gaumont" Weekly, and a Keystone comedy entitled "That Ragtime Band" which keeps the audience in a continual uproar from start to finish, complete the bill which was thoroughly enjoyed by all in attendance last night. The Star has also secured a well balanced bill with the usual surprise film for Sunday change. An extraordinary feature which has proven a tremendous pictorial success, with Miss Marlon Leonard in a three-reel version of "As in a Looking Glass" will be exhibited next Monday and Tuesday.

OVER 500 CHILDREN SEE MOVIES AT THE ISIS

Yesterday all children were guests of Manager Whipple at the Isis Theater. The house was packed to capacity with out little friends.

The photo plays are one of the best bills in the city, consisting of a two-reel Lubin feature, an Edison drama and a Vitagraph comedy which pleased the children greatly. This same bill will be on tonight.

JUDGE IS SILLY SAYS MRS. HEYE

NEW YORK, May 31.—Red hot answer to Judge Aspinwall's criticism of her application for $79,000 yearly alimony was voiced here today by Mrs. George E. Heye, formerly of San Francisco, who is suing her millionaire husband for divorce. The court aroused Mrs. Heye's ire when he asserted that "you society women ought to be home nursing babies instead of sitting around hotel cafes sipping cocktails and highballs and smoking cigarettes." Then he turned down Mrs. Heye's alimony application as exorbitant.

"That's what I get," said Mrs. Heye, "for allowing a Brooklyn magistrate to sit in my case. They are not familiar with the true situation, know nothing about the expenditures of New York society women and can see no further than their Brooklyn-bred noses."

"Yes, I bought $561 worth of liquors and $49 worth of cigarettes at one hotel but I bought them for guests. I did not drink and Mr. Heye knows it. Judge Aspinwall made a silly statement when he suggested that I am one of those women who keep poodle dogs, with long silky hair. But what can you expect from a Brooklyn magistrate? We never kept a dog in our family until last year when one was bought for the children."

TWO STATE OFFICIALS TO LOSE POSITIONS

SALEM, Ore., May 31.—A rumor that two superintendents of state institutions are scheduled for decapitation when the new state board of control comes into being June 2, is causing a great deal of conjecture here today as to the identity of those who may lose their official heads.

The new board, which will be composed of the governor, secretary of state and state treasurer, will have the appointing of the heads of state institutions with the exception of the higher institutions of learning, is reported to be sharpening the axe for two of the incumbents.

The state legislature at its recessional created the new board.

TOTEM POLE FALLS, BAD LUCK CERTAIN TO FOLLOW

EVERETT, Wash., May 31.—William Shelton, of Tulalip, is a discouraged man today, following the fall of a sixty foot totem pole carved by him while it was being raised at a Memorial Day celebration. The fall knocked off several totems which is taken as an evil omen. Shelton will repair the pole before another attempt is made to raise it.

FRITZI SCHEFF AND NOVELIST HUSBAND COULDN'T AGREE

One more union of genius came to grief this week when Fritzi Scheff, the prima donna, got a divorce from John Fox, Jr., the novelist. She is now free to wed again and so is he.

G. A. R. AND W. R. C. RETURN THANKS

As each succeeding Memorial day comes and goes, we see the "boys in blue" march with less firm a tread, and note the ranks are becoming thinner. But, notwithstanding the fact that the soldiers of the '60s are being mustered out one by one, the meaning and purpose of Memorial day is instilled into the hearts of the present and the coming generation, and there are always those who willingly and gladly lend their aid in making the Memorial day services a success and ever keep in mind what the old soldiers did for our nation.

And so in Medford. And therefore the local members of the Grand Army of the Republic, and the women of the Relief Corps, wish to publicly thank all who took part and assisted in the program of yesterday. And especially thank the managers of the Page theater, who so kindly gave the use of the handsome new building for the services of the day; also Rev. Shields, who gave the invocation; Attorney H. A. Canaday, who gave "Lincoln's Gettysburg Address"; Miss McDonald, for her splendid readings; Miss Hinman, who rendered two excellent solos, accompanied on the piano by Miss Vroman; Rev. Bradley, orator of the day; the Baptist orchestra for its several selections and the Redmen for the use of their hall during the afternoon.

WILSON TURNED AWAY FROM CAFE

BALTIMORE, Md., May 31.—The distinction of "turning down" the president of the United States and his family today belongs to the proprietor of the Dutch Ten Room here, a fashionable restaurant. But he was not aware of this fact until he read the morning papers.

Shipping into Baltimore announced, the president, Mrs. Wilson and their daughters, Misses Margaret and Eleanor, stopped at the restaurant for luncheon. Miss Margaret stepped forward to one of the waitresses, asking:

"Have you a table for our party?"

The waitress paid no attention to Miss Wilson and the party hurried from the restaurant. The presidential party went to the Hotel Renkert for luncheon.

NAT GOODWIN TO OPEN RESTAURANT

SANTA MONICA, Cal., May 31.—In addition to recent matrimonial acquisitions Nat C. Goodwin admitted that he has become interested in the conduct of a large pier here and that hereafter the name of the comedian will lead invitation to the restaurant.

"We'll have a place where soft lights and soft music and soft voices actually will be the order," Goodwin explained.

"And also soft drinks?" he was asked.

"A mere question of personal privilege," he replied. "I expect to make this cafe a perfect place of rest and entertainment."

WOMEN'S VOTES DOES NOT TURN PHOENIX DRY

PHOENIX, Ariz., May 31.—In spite of the vote of recently enfranchised women, Phoenix remains "wet" today, after an exciting campaign and election to determine the fate of the city as an oasis in a dry region. The majority against banishing the saloons was 352. Mesa and Tempe, neighboring towns, again voted "dry."
