

WOMEN TO HOLD ROSE SHOW FOR FOURTH OF JULY

In response to a generous invitation to women interested in the work of civic improvement, the parlors of Mrs. J. F. Reddy's home 122 Oregon terrace, were crowded yesterday afternoon with women eager to help in advertising the resources of the valley, and desirous of making Medford a beautiful city in which to live. Mrs. Reddy, whose mind works along broadly constructive lines, presented a plan, first for holding an amateur rose show; second, appointed a committee to work in conjunction with the general committee in charge of the Fourth of July celebration and, third, outlined a method whereby the general appearance of the town may be greatly improved by cleaning up parkings and planting shade trees.

It would be a very difficult matter at present for Medford to compete with the glories of the Portland Rose show to be held next week, but with forethought in planning, careful selection of varieties and intelligent cultivation we may next year successfully compete with even Portland's first rose show, which was certainly a modest affair. At an amateur rose show to be held on the fourth at a time and place which will not interfere with the more general activities of the day, choice roses from home gardens will be on display. The prize lists usually request but three or five blooms for an entry and nearly every rosarian has at least one bush of especially nice roses. A drive over the city today enables one to see many beautiful gardens ornamented with gorgeous roses in full bloom, each one of which might contribute a choice display. Mrs. Reddy is surely one to initiate this move, as her Marchal Niel, Killarney and Chateau de Clos Vougeot are of the finest and her annuals and shrubs are unsurpassed. The Glasgow place on South Oakdale, the Anderson place on West Main, the Watt place on East Jackson and the York place on West Tenth are but a few which look as though a clothes basket full of bloom could be picked without denuding the yards.

A little neighborhood work on the part of Mrs. E. H. French on Rose avenue resulted in the planting of 12 dozen M. Caroline Testout in the space of two blocks, a delightful improvement to that section of town. It was suggested by the ladies that those having fine specimens of roses should put them daily in the places of business, using a visiting card and placing the name of the variety on the card. The public library, the commercial club and the banks are all especially grateful for flowers and if the name of the donor and the name of specimen is added it is a desirable means for the public to secure information in regard to planting.

A committee consisting of Mrs. Charles Schieffelin, chairman; Mrs. H. E. Stoddard, Mrs. F. E. Merrick and Mrs. C. D. Hoon was appointed as an auxiliary from the Woman's club to the general committee on arrangements for the Fourth. A very strong sentiment was expressed by the women that Medford observe a "sane" Fourth. The elimination of fireworks lessens the danger of fire and prevents many accidents not to say fatalities, without detracting from the patriotic celebration of the day.

The discussion of parking and tree planting drew forth reminiscences of the days but three short years ago, when Medford boasted no 30 miles of hard surface pavement, when there were no cement walks, no, nor even board walks, when there were no neat and close shaven park rows, days when public spirited women tramped miles through tall wet grass, seeking an opportunity to talk with Mr. Propertyholder about the grading of his lot and what particular variety of shade tree he would be pleased to plant. Encouraged by the results of that campaign the ladies are looking toward the organization of "neighborhood clubs" that shall consult together regarding parking, tree planting and rose planting, endeavoring to bring about a more or less uniform and artistic system of improving city lots. The cooperation of all citizens is solicited in making a "more beautiful Medford."

PROSPECTS BRIGHT FOR COAST ROAD VIA GRANTS PASS

Dr. J. F. Reddy states that prospects are bright for the construction of the Pacific Interior railroad from Grants Pass to Crescent City, a syndicate of capitalists arriving Saturday to make definite agreements with the cities along the route. Said Dr. Reddy:

"Mr. Helm and associates, among whom are Mr. Sheppard of Boston, Mr. Charter, Mr. Beckman and Mr. Moore of Los Angeles, with their engineer, will arrive in Grants Pass Saturday. They will make a trip to Crescent City and return. While here Mr. Helm will present a proposition to the cities affected, involving the building of the road through to Crescent City. They have organized a construction company and have had a contractor over the proposed route, and say as soon as they can come to an agreement with Grants Pass and Crescent City they will be prepared to begin work and push the road to completion within a limited time."

Mr. Helm has arranged for one of the firms of Caldwell, Masulich and Reed, New York attorneys, to whom the bond issue was submitted, to come here and take it up with the city officials, with a view to a new bond election. He will probably be here in a few days and the course in that matter will be determined. While there Mr. Helm will submit a proposition to the citizens concerning the plans for the consideration of the public. Judge Childs of Crescent City, who is in Los Angeles, writes that he has met Mr. Helm's associates in the enterprise and that they will present a proposal to the people and that he believes they have a proposition that we can accept."

MEDFORD SPORTS OFFER $1100 BONUS TO AID ANDERSON

When a crowd of Medford sports got together last night and subscribed $1100 to give to Billy Nolan, gratis, the minute Willie Ritchie steps into the ring with Bud Anderson, the "Medford marvel," all precedents for confidence in the ability of pugilists were smashed, and the word "Medford" this morning jarred rudely on the ears of sporting enthusiasts in all cities from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the frozen north to Juarez, Mexico.

A couple of Medford fight followers realizing from the reports from headquarters at San Francisco that Bud Anderson was not receiving the consideration due him as a championship contender suggested this novel way of either securing the Fourth of July match for the local scrapper or making Billy Nolan "crawfish" hit upon this idea.

In view of the fact that Manager Donald will allow his boy to fight Ritchie at Nolan's own terms and weight it would be quitting of the worst kind for Nolan to refuse to give Anderson the chance at Ritchie.

The $1100 was subscribed by twenty-two Medford men and placed in the hands of Court Hall, the local "Tim Sullivan." This fact was wired to San Francisco's most popular sporting resorts and heralded throughout the world by the two large press associations.

At the meeting it was also determined that in case Bud is not selected as Ritchie's opponent and he loses the Los Angeles match that a chorus of fifty voices will journey to San Francisco on the Fourth, enter the championship fight arena and yell "Bud Anderson of Medford" during the entire progress of the Ritchie fight.

REBUILD FLUME STERLING MINE

Work on the reconstruction of the old Sterling flume will commence about June 16.—Seth Bullis at that time will place a large force of men repairing the wooden flumes and also the ditch.

Forty acres of timber land on Little Applegate, at the head of the Sterling ditch, have been purchased from Emmett Beeson by this company.

They plan to cut this timber and use it in repairing the flumes. A

HELP FOR WORKING GIRLS

Two Girls Tell Story of Their Illness and How They Found Relief.

New Orleans, La.—"I take pleasure in writing these lines to express my gratitude to you. I am only 16 years old and work in a tobacco factory. I have been a very sick girl but I have improved wonderfully since taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and am now looking fine and feeling a thousand times better."

—Miss AMELIA JAQUILLARD, 613 Seventh Street, New Orleans, La. St. Clair, Pa. — "My mother was alarmed because my periods were suppressed and I had pains in my back and side, and severe headaches. I had pimples on my face, my complexion was sallow, my sleep was disturbed, I had nervous spells, was very tired and had no ambition. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has worked a charm in my case and has regulated me. I worked in a mill among hundreds of girls and have recommended your medicine to many of them." — Miss ESTELLA MAGUIRE, 110 Thwing St., Saint Clair, Pa.

There is nothing that teaches more than experience. Therefore, such letters from girls who have suffered and were restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be a lesson to others. The same remedy is within reach of all.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

small saw mill has been purchased in Portland and this mill will be installed near the head of the ditch. The mill will arrive next week. Gardner Bullis, who has charge of the electric line will arrive the 16th of June and work will then commence in earnest.
