Through a misunderstanding between the principals, a warrant was sworn out Saturday by Mrs. S. M. Herbert against Charles E. Mrs. Herbert declared she had purchased $22 worth of furniture in answer to an ad last Tuesday, and they were to have been delivered that night, but when she could neither find the furniture nor the salesman she decided to see what Prosecuting Attorney Kelly could do about it.

Hearing of the trouble, Mr. Harland proceeded to get into communication with the complainant and explain that he had been delayed and if Mrs. Herbert did not want the furniture he would be glad to take it back and refund the money.

This was done and the warrant was not served. Mr. Harland is a former employe of the Medford Gas company and has always enjoyed a good reputation.

Many women fade early, simply because they do not take proper care of themselves. They constantly overdo and overlook those ailments that if not checked rob them of all health and beauty.

At the first symptoms of a functional disturbance or an organic derangement, if women will only rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that great woman's remedy for woman's ills, it will aid the roses to return to your cheeks, sal-low looks depart, spirits brighten and backache and headaches caused by such troubles to be known no more.

MEDFORD BEST PLACE SAYS J. C. SCHMIDT

That Medford is the best place of all is evidenced by the following letter received by J. A. Westerlund from J. C. Schmidt at Los Angeles, who until recently was a resident of Medford and having disposed of his interests here decided to go to California and look around the country:

"I have covered more than 1000 miles in my auto since leaving Medford but have not seen a place in all that distance that has as many good features, and so few bad ones as the Rogue river valley. There are only two things you need—good roads and irrigation to have any place in California beat. Here the great cry is water, water! They can't get enough water. Nearly everything in this country for sale. Those that can get away are going north or want to."
