WOMEN FROM ALL OVER WORLD SEEK SUFFRAGE

BUDAPEST, June 16.—There are distinct woman suffrage movements in the Philippines, China, India, Ceylon, Burma, Sumatra, Java, the italy Land, Egypt and even on the south, east and west coasts of Africa. In China, the youngest republic and the oldest country on the globe, there are nine women members of the Canton state assembly. Throughout the supposedly unenlightened parts of the Orient suffrage for women is at hand. These were some of the many intensely interesting details related today by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of New York, president of the International Woman Suffrage Alliance, which today opened its business sessions and began the real work of the week's convention here. Mrs. Catt was addressing one of today's business sessions. She has just completed an eighteen months' tour of the world, to which she was assigned when she was elected president of the world's greatest gathering of women at the Stockholm convention two years ago. "I was astonished at the wonderful strength and growth of the suffrage movement in countries where I did not suspect that a sentiment for it even existed," said Mrs. Catt in her report today. "I found a distinct women's movement in every part of the world I visited, mainly seeing educational improvement, but it was surprising to learn of the large number of women, especially in the far east, who have espoused the idea of the vote and who look forward confidently to the time when it will be enjoyed equally by both sexes in their communities. It seemed to me as if these people were suddenly being evolved from the tallow candle age to the electric light age, without having gone through the oil lamp and gas periods. They were making for the same ideals exactly, as the more enlightened women of America and Europe are contending for."

W. C. T. U. MEETING WELL ATTENDED

On July 12, the local union of the W. C. T. U. opened on time with the president in the chair. It being Sabbath Observance Day the president read the Ten Commandments, written by God's own hand and the fourth one says "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy." After which Mrs. Leonard offered a very feeling prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. The meeting spent a few minutes for business. The date of the county meeting at Phoenix in picnic form was changed from the 18th of June to the 20th, which is Friday, all who will may come and have a good time and hear an excellent program. Owing to the county picnic the local union will not meet next Thursday June 19, as usual. Mothers' day of the local Union will meet June 26 at the home of Mrs. Fleming on Welen street, all members should arrange to be present and bring friends. Mrs. Leonard read from the Union Signal an article on Flower Mission day with many comments from all present. Mrs. Holmes read from the White Ribbon Review. By this time the hour was spent and after repeating the 23d Psalm the meeting adjourned to meet July 3d at the library building.

RECORDS BROKEN BY DEUEL SALE

Even the casual observer must have noticed the influx of strangers to the city early Saturday. They came on foot, on horseback, by auto, motor car and train from Jackson, Josephine and Siskiyou counties, singly, in pairs, by the score and by hundreds. There was that hush, the hush before the storm, as it were, for at the stroke of 10, the hour advertised for the opening of the big public sale at Deuel's, everybody followed the crowd. As the doors of this large establishment swung open to the surging crowd it was a sight discouraging to the calamity howler, for it was a good-natured crowd, with money and a determination to spend it. It was no place for a nervous person, the man with a frown or knocker. Due to the extensive publicity given to this sale through the columns of this paper, ten minutes after opening the doors it was necessary to lock them, which was repeated at intervals during the day as the crowd was so large the sales force could not handle themselves. Medford's citizens generally congratulate Mr. Deuel upon the success of his first effort since re-embarcking in the retail business, and Medford likewise should be congratulated upon the addition to her merchandise institution—a compliment to her, an evidence of Mr. Deuel's confidence in her future. At the time of going to press the store is filled and today bids fair to prove a close second to opening day. Sale will continue from day to day until the end, which is in sight.

FAREWELL RECEPTION IS A GREAT SUCCESS

The members of the First Christian church gave a farewell reception to Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Burgess, and their daughters, Misses Exie and Frances, at Mr. Burgess' home on West Main Saturday evening. Mulkey, Ed Robinson, Coffin, Sr., A. B. Cunningham, W. F. Quisenberry, Hanby, J. H. Ballinger, Kirby, S. S. Smith, F. O. Burgess, Art Burgess, and Mesdames W. T. Beveridge, L. G. Quigley, D.
