EXPOSE SUGAR TRUST PLOT.

Fight Letter Reading. A stiff fight, but fruitless, against the reading of further correspondence showing the sugar trust publicity methods was put up at the opening of the hearing today. John Yerkes, counsel for Henry Oxnard, arguing at great length that the committee was exceeding its rights.

Before Yerkes started his objections, however, two more letters were read. One of these, dated July, 1906, was from Oxnard to Truman Palmer, secretary of the sugar lobby. It congratulated Palmer for having Aaron Gove, the Great Western sugar man, "go around trying to educate congressmen."

Another letter read was unsigned. It was written to Oxnard in 1907, and concerned Gove's anxiety to buy an influential newspaper. It stated "Messrs. Corbin and Cutter have gotten the Wyoming and Colorado legislatures to pass strong anti-free sugar memorials." Its most significant paragraph was: "Mr. Collins is very anxious about the Taft situation and hopes there is some way to make it known that there is great doubt of his ability to carry such states as California, Idaho, Utah, Colorado and Michigan, and that, if we cannot head him off we might be able to get a promise from him relative to the sugar and tobacco industries. He asked me for suggestions for action and I think I will write him as to the annual meeting, when the whole subject can be thoroughly canvassed."

Correspondence is Read. Yerkes objected to the reading of these and other letters on the ground that they were not now competent, having been written before the investigation started. Despite his objections, the committee decided to resume the reading of correspondence.

FAMOUS IN A DAY FOR THE BEAUTY OF HER HANDS AND ARMS

A Free Prescription That Does Its Work Over Night—You Can Prepare It at Your Own Home. "It's my own discovery and it takes just one night to get such marvelous results," answers Camille de Verlaac, when her friends ask her about the marvelous change in the appearance of her hands and arms. "You can do the same thing if you take my advice," she says. "I feel it my duty to tell every woman what this wonderful prescription did for me. Just think of it! It did all this in one night."

It affords me a world of pleasure to tell anyone else just how such remarkable results were brought about. I give you, absolutely free, the identical prescription which has made me so happy by beautifying my hands and arms. You can form no idea of the marvelous change it will make in just one application. The prescription, which can be prepared at your own home, is as follows:

Go to any drug store and get an ounce bottle of Kulux Compound. Pour the entire contents into a two-ounce bottle, all a quarter ounce of witch hazel and fill with water. Mix this at home. Apply night and morning. The first application will delight you. It gives the skin a velvety softness, obliterates all discolorations such as tan, sun spots, freckles and coarse pores, roughness and, in fact, every blemish the skin is heir to. It also produces a marvelous effect on the face, neck and shoulders. It is deliciously cool and soothing and is not affected by perspiration. It will not rub off.

If the neck is discolored from being exposed to the sun or from wearing high collars, this prescription will immediately relieve that condition. No matter how rough and ungainly the hands and arms, or what abuses they have had through hard work; no matter what exposure the skin has had to sun and wind, this prescription will work a wonderful transformation. Thousands of women are using this prescription with just the same results that I have had."

Blood Poison On The Run

Remarkable Remedy That Drives Every Particle of Poison Completely Out of Your Entire System.

It was only after an hours' executive session that the committee decided to proceed with the reading of correspondence during that session. Senator Ransdell bitterly opposed the plan. Ransdell also expects to argue later against further hearing of the sugar trust correspondence on the ground that the senate sergeant-at-arms exceeded his authority in the subpoena duces tecum in seizing papers not specifically named in the writ.

Reaching Congressmen. After Ransdell's opposition had subsided temporarily, the committee read a telegram Hamlin sent to F. A. Gillespie of Garden City, Kan., on February 19, 1912. It read: "Write me fully about your congressman, how he can be best reached. Would get up new petitions, not only at Garden City, but at Sylvia and other places. Also have as many letters sent—as possible. Letters to your new congressman from substantial democrats are very advisable."

A letter addressed to Sidney Ballou, representative in Washington of the sugar interests, was read. Dated May 2, 1912, a few weeks before the republican national convention, and unsigned, it said: "I believe our greatest opportunity for publicity will have arrived in connection with the national campaign. The republican party will be compelled to make the tariff an issue."

Wiley Implicated. "We are in touch with those who are making the republican campaign book, and the sugar question will be handled subject to our approval. As soon as the convention is over we propose to get in touch with the campaign managers, with the view of having their speakers fully informed as to the sugar question."

"You ask me particularly about Dr. Wiley. The doctor made us a proposition for fifty lectures which we have accepted."

Later Dr. Wiley, who formerly was chief of the bureau of chemistry in the department of agriculture, declared he could not deliver the lectures, but finally agreed to make a few addresses.

Blood Poison On The Run

Remarkable Remedy That Drives Every Particle of Poison Completely Out of Your Entire System.

Disinfecting the top contagious germ scatter and leave your blood clean and pure.

Poison in the blood used to break out into the most unsightly sores, boils, abscesses and ulcers, but since the introduction of S. S. R. there is no more trouble. And even if it is only a slight attack it would eventually mean loss of hair, loose teeth, sore gums, mucous patches, copper blotches and the most intense degree of agony, if S. S. R. were not used. Of course in some cases of Contagious Blood Poison do not exhibit the extreme superficial effect but the trouble is they are apt to do so in just a day. The eyesight fades, the hair falls out, the bones become ulcerated, a thousand and one fierce, unsightly symptoms ensue and then there can be no question as to the nature of the disease.

It is very unfortunate that so many sufferers lose all nerve, all self control, and the next thing they do is to throw themselves into the clutches of those who take all their money, fill their veins and arteries with mercury, iodine or Potash, Arsenic or other mineral poisons and practically wreck their lives.

S. S. R. will give your blood a complete bath, purify it, overcome the danger done by mineral drugs, soothe and strengthen your stomach and in every way restore you completely. Your blood will be rich, red and pure and will stand the most rigid blood test. Get a bottle of S. S. R. at any drug store and begin to cure yourself at once. For a book on Blood Poison, or for private advice, write to the Medford Dept. The Swift Specific Co., 145 Switz Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. This is one of the greatest private laboratories in the world.
