CONTRAST OF LATEST AMERICAN AND FRENCH BATHING TO BE WORN BY WOMEN AT BEACHES THIS YEAR

These photographs exhibit the latest in bathing suits for women of two countries—the United States and France. The white silk suit has come to the United States, but perhaps it will not be worn by every woman. In fact, white suits have been forbidden by the managers of some beaches along the Atlantic coast. But the one-piece suit is common at the best resorts in France and other places on the continent.

M. S. Schrock, of Portland, deputy food and dairy commissioner, who has been in the valley inspecting bakeries, butcher shops, slaughter houses, etc., has returned to the metropolis. He found several of these establishments in a filthy, unsanitary condition, which must be improved at once or arrests will follow. Mr. S. thinks it almost incredible that their proprietors should wish to cater to the public under such conditions.

The U. S. forest service has had a large number of flaring yellow signs of nine different kinds, printed, which will be posted in the vicinity of national forests, warning everybody against doing anything that will start a forest fire. The printing on the signs can be read a long distance, being in large black letters on a yellow background. Heretofore, signs have been kept posted in the forest, but were small and inconspicuous.

Effective at once, Raygold will be a flag stop Sundays only for S. P. train No. 15. This is to accommodate those who wish to fish longer than the time afforded at present, and still not have to wait for No. 19.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Rusk, of Rockford, Ill., father of R. W. Rusk, of the Medford Sun, are visiting the latter.

House Also to Probe

Gompers at the time asserted that Brandenburg told him, as an agent of the Manufacturers' association, he had secured evidence reflecting on Gompers' moral character and which he promised to suppress if Gompers would agree to tell what he knew about the private life of other officials of the federation. Gompers told the convention that he had led Brandenburg on, hoping to trap him, but that he had failed to get a "private interview."

Members of congress predicted this afternoon that a house committee, independent of the "insidious lobby" committee, would probe Muller's charges. It is known that Chairman Henry of the house rules committee favors such a plan.

Chairman Overman announced this afternoon that the lobby probe had decided in executive session, to examine President Kirby and W. A. Emery, chief lobbyist of the Manufacturers' association and all individuals named by Muller except members of congress. It is expected the congressmen will appear voluntarily before the committee. Subpoenas will be issued for Paul Cravath and others mentioned in Judge Lovett's testimony.

Three road companies will be put out the coming season to play "Damaged Goods."

"Oh! Oh! Delphine!" is to be produced in Paris in September.

PANTAGES SHOW STRICTLY NEW

Every act at Pantages for the week commencing with the matinee Wednesday, June 26, promises to be better than anything heretofore presented in vaudeville, for each feature has been brought direct from the east, where success marked the entire program.

Topping the bill will be the Misses Adair and Hickey presenting their original "Revelation in Regime," the act that startled Broadway and which has won more favorable criticisms from the newspapers than any act of like sort. The attraction is just what it claims to be and all the latest ragtime hits are rendered by these wonderfully clever feminine entertainers. It is an act that will be appreciated by young and old and it can be seen more than once without growing tiresome.

Ed Vinton and his wonderful dog, "Buster," will be worthy of more than passing attention, for "Buster" has been afforded a remarkable education, doing in faithful mimicry the feats that his master accomplishes. It is an act that is particularly pleasing to the little folk.

Those four kids, as Messrs. Wood, Brown, Harry and Dore are known, have a quartet marked for its harmony and mirth, not a dull moment interrupting the progress of the entertainment.

Harry Fisher and company have a comedy cycling act which holds many attractive features and the Pantagescope will show new animated events. Special matinee prices: Children 15c, adults 25c; any seat in the house. Evening 25c, 35c and 50c.

Ask Your Grocer Why He Sells So Much

Drifted Snow Flour

He will tell you it's because the Drifted Snow Flour never fails to give absolute satisfaction. Good cooks make better bread, biscuits, pies or cakes when they use Drifted Snow Flour. Lighter, whiter and more wholesome.

Just for proof, order Drifted Snow next time—if you're not convinced of its goodness, don't keep it. Your grocer will buy it back and what you've used won't cost you a cent.

Why can we afford to make such a money-back guarantee? Because there is "Satisfaction in every sack."

All grocers sell Drifted Snow Flour.
