MEDFORD SPORTING EDITOR

(Grants Pass Courier.) James Russell Kelly, sporting edi tor of the Medford Mail Tribune, and the man to whom Bud Anderson is under obligations for his first big matches in Los Angeles, accompanied the Medford ball team to Grants Pass yesterday. Kelly is a nephew of "Bull Run" Russell, accounted the greatest of all war correspondents. whose work for the London Times during the American Civil war is still considered a classic, especially his story of the battle of Antietam. Kelly attended Trinity College, Dublin, where one of his schoolmates was John McCormack, the famous Irish grand opera star.

MEDFORD MAH. TRIBUNE BETTER BABIES

So many mothers of Medford are sking the same questions about the "Better Baby Contest" to be held on the Fourth of July that it seems well to answer them publicly, When? From 1:00 to 4:00 on the afternoon of the Fourth. Where? At the Sparta building, Main and Riverside. Just west of the bridge. Why? To make better babies.

How? Jsut keep your baby as happy as possible and take him to for four years, the rooms on the Fourth. Is there any registration fee?

None. All the babies of the county are invited, nay urged to come. Is it a beauty contest? Decidedly not. If your baby happens to be pretty don't keep him away on that

How to Avoid those Pains and Dustress Which so Many Mothers Have Suffered

It is a pity more women do not know of Mother's Friend. This remedy softens the muscles, enables them to expand without strain and enables women to go through the ordeal without pain, nausea, morning sickness or other dreaded symptoms so familiar to many muthers.

There is no feelish diet to harasa the mind. Thousands of women no longer resign themselves to the thought that sickness and distress are natural. They know better, for in Mother's Friend they have found how easy it is to banish all those dreaded experiences.

It is a subject every woman should be familiar with, and even though she may not require such a remedy, she will now and then meet some prospective mother to whom a word in time about Mother's Friend will come as a wonderful idessing. This famous remedy is sold by all drugglets, and is only $1.00 a bottle. It is for external use only. Write to-day to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 227 Lamar Bbiz., Atlanta, Ga., for a most valuable book to extrectant mothers.
