Day recently at the Braden mine on business. Kanes Creek business visitors to Gold Hill this week were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, Mr. Boikos, Mr. Mardon, Mrs. Boggis and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Householder, Viva Henderson, Mrs. Shrump, Bart Coffman, John Chandler, Misses Katie and Maggie Foley and Weather Prophet Foster. Miss Viva Henderson was doing shopping in Central Point on Tuesday. Weather Prophet Foster forecasts a sudden change and fair weather for some time. The heavy rains of the past two weeks have ruined quite an amount of hay that was cut, and that which was ready for hay had to be left and cut for grain, which means a better price for hay. Every body is getting ready for the glorious Fourth which is only three days hence, as nearly every one is figuring on Medford. There is quite a bit of mining activity in this section at present. Mines that have not been worked for thirty years have commenced operations. Mrs. George Higginbotham was doing trading with Central Point merchants on Wednesday. Miss Katherine Foley was the guest of Mrs. Lewis on Sunday. Elmer Higginbotham accompanied by his father, were hub city business visitors on Wednesday. Jack Butler the sage of Kanes Creek, is much indisposed at this writing.

RIVERSIDE RIPPLES. Mrs. H. R. Nye is spending the week with her relatives in Medford. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Early, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Alden, Misses Anna McKeown and Lois Early spent a very pleasant day at Ray Gold Sunday. Professor and Mrs. Reddy and son Mae Ivan, arrived from Eugene Saturday to spend the summer on their ranch. Professor Reddy is one of the faculty of the state university. Miss Valdee Dorsey of Council Bluffs Iowa arrived Wednesday for an extended visit at the Rozalia ranch. Miss Dorsey owns a tract of land on Riverside which is set to fruit and will eventually make her home here. Word has been received from Harold Aten at Salem. He has found very lucrative employment there and will remain for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Wahl were down from Medford, all of last week to spend their vacation on their ranch. Besides other improvements they painted their bungalow. W. A. Elliott of the Riverside store and Frank Elliott of Medford, returned Saturday from Cincinnati Springs where they spent about two weeks. They went overland in the latter's car, had a very fine trip and both returned very much improved in health. Mrs. Frank Elliott who spent several days at the W. A. Elliott home returned to Medford Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Driscoll of Medford made a week-end visit with Mr. and Mrs. Wahl. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Champlin were in Medford the latter part of the week on business. Not many of the Riverside people were able to attend the picnic at Mr. Chappell's Tuesday on account of the busy season. Nearly all are haying. Those who did attend report a very fine time. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Clarke of Sams Valley called at the Alden home Monday principally to renew old acquaintance with Mr. W. G. Early whom they knew at Clear Lake, S. D. Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Stead returned to Medford and Mrs. Wahl at dinner Saturday evening.

WILLOW SPRINGS TWIGLETS! Dame rumor has it that Willow Springs will be the possessor of another beautiful bungalow on Scenic avenue. Mrs. D. W. Stone and Mrs. I. M. Foss were Saturday shoppers in Medford. The patrons from Willow Springs, had many a hearty laugh at the Old Meads' convention in Central Point. R. W. Elden and family dined with Mr. Julius Burkholz and family last Sunday. Paul Lake and family are for a short time located at the home of Mr. William Leathers. Mrs. Leathers and two sons, Ralph and Ray, expect to leave in the very near future for Virginia on a visit. It has been definitely decided to have the Grange picnic in Kanes Creek canyon on July Fourth. Let everybody have a jolly good time. Mrs. H. Rowe of Portland and her son, James Rowe, spent Sunday with Miss McNassar of Scenic Heights orchard. J. P. Hoaglund has completed the erection of a wind mill which will be quite a labor saver. Mr. and Mrs. John Sixty and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Taylor enjoyed the Baptist reception and banquet in Medford last Tuesday evening. H. M. Porter is building a modern barn on his ranch. Scenic avenue last Sunday was like the main street of Medford on Saturday. The beautiful scenery and fine weather brought out numerous pleasure seekers. Notice. All qualified voters of Willow Springs please register at the home of Mrs. D. M. McNassar. Grange met at the usual hour at the school house and a social time was spent in a very profitable manner. Mr. Neal and Mrs. Frank McKee read articles on "The Disposition of Fruit." Miss Rose Jones favored the audience with a vocal selection. Business session followed. W. Crowley and wife were in the district Saturday. With Medford trade is Medford made.

GOOD STUNTS IN PAGE VAUDEVILLE
It was announced that this week's vaudeville bill would be the best of the season and in some respects it is. Harry Fisher and company did a act with a bicycle which was truly wonderful. The Four Kids did a right good stunt. They are clever dancers and make a pretty good stunner at comedy. There was something new in the way of a trained dog. Mr. Vinton seems to have used kindness in the training of his dog which gets remarkable results. There is always something pathetic in watching dogs driven through their stunts with a whip. The act of Adair and Hickey, two very pretty young women was the big hit of the performance. They were recalled again and again and even after the piano had been wheeled off the stage the young fellows in the front row tried to get the performance repeated. There was a good audience in attendance. This afternoon and tonight the same excellent bill will be repeated. ED ANDREWS.
Special Feature at Isis Theater. "The Yaqui Cur" (Biograph), May 17.—There are battle scenes in these two reels that are unusual. In fact, the picture may best be described as a big Biograph. The theme is of a young Indian who meets white men and likes their ways. He is taught to smoke cigarettes. He is given a Bible. He is told that the ways of peace are the right ways. When war breaks out between his tribe and another he refuses to fight and is cast out. Later he smilingly sacrifices his life to save that of the lover of the woman he loved and lost. He puts into practice a precept he found in the Book—"Greater love than this." There are many dramatic situations, relieved at times by those lighter touches so characteristic of the direction of Mr. Griffith. Robert Herron plays the Yaqui cur, and plays it well. Victoria Forde, well known to Universal followers, has the role of the Indian girl who rejects him. There are many fine photographic effects.
