OBSERVE CENTENARY OF PERRY'S VICTORY

ERIE, Pa., July 5.—As the sun rose over Erie today a wide trainload of powder which left Wilmington, Del., weeks ago, pulled into the city and workmen immediately began transferring the explosive to the sloop-of-war Niagara. Any inhabitants, who didn't know what has been planned here for weeks, might have rubbed their eyes and believed immediately in ghosts, for the warship was the same in which dashing young Commander Perry wiped the British from the Great Lakes, and the wagon, was the same wagon that just 100 years ago, brought some powder here from Delaware for Perry to do the wiping with. Tomorrow will be Perry Day in Erie, when a program of celebrations which will conclude at Put-in-Bay on September 19, will open. It was on September 19, 1813, that Perry set out with his little fleet, and after having his first flagship, the Lawrence, literally "shot from under him," transferred his colors to the Niagara, beat the British and then sent to the nation his historic message, "We have met the enemy, and they are ours." The old wagon was refitted some time ago, and the bulk of the Niagara was made whole again for the celebration. Following a week's celebration here there will be celebrations at Toledo, Detroit, Green Bay, Wis., Milwaukee, Chicago, Buffalo, Sandusky, Lorain, Marquette, Mich., and Put-in-Bay.

HEMINGER WELL KNOWN TO JACKSON PIONEERS

Albert Heminger, former marshal of Lakeview, whose body was picked up on the Southern Pacific right-of-way, the coroner's jury finding that death was accidental and due to falling between cars in going from one to the other near Dorris, June 25, was well known to pioneers and old-timers here. Thompson was marshal at Lakeview when a mob held him up and took away a murderer named Thompson and lynched him. The affair unnerved Thompson and he disappeared, being found wandering in the hills. He was sent to Salem where a cure was effected. He afterwards left for Klondyke and was on his return trip when he met disaster. He had on him the sum of $2,000, which had disappeared which his effects were searched at the Klamath Falls hospital.

AMERICANS' DETENTION PROBED BY BRYAN

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 5.—Word reached here today that Secretary of State Bryan has started an investigation of the detention at Guaymas, Mexico, of Leon Morrison, of Los Angeles. Morrison's mother applied to the state department when she received word that her son, who was on an automobile tour of Mexico, had been seized and placed in jail. The messages received here stated that Bryan has ordered an inquiry by Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City.

Pitcher "Biff" Malloy, recently purchased by the Red Sox from the Kalamazoo (Mich.) club, is playing his first season in professional baseball.

MISS BROWN OPENS SUMMER STUDIO

An item of musical interest and importance comes with the announcement that Miss Grace Josephine Brown has opened a residence vocal studio at her home, 1207 West Main street, for the summer months. Owing to her unusual opportunities for study Miss Brown is especially well qualified to take up voice placing and building, interpretation and all other essentials necessary in the careful handling of any voice.

For two years Miss Brown studied under the personal direction of Herman Gooss in his San Francisco conservatory. Emilie Frances Bauer, New York editor of the Musical Leader and musical editor of the New York Evening Mail as well as correspondent for the Portland Oregonian and San Francisco Chronicle, has said that Gooss is one of the best teachers and greatest musical men who has ever been permanently established in America. He is now conducting grand opera in Hamburg, Germany. He laid a careful foundation in Miss Brown's vocal work but it remained for Mrs. Rose Bloch Bauer, Portland's leading teacher, who is known as the most brilliant dramatic soprano on the Pacific coast to build the superstructure.

On Madame Schuman-Heink's latest visit to Portland two of Mrs. Bauer's pupils, Mrs. Elfreda Heller Weinstein and Mrs. Delphine Marx, sang for the great diva who immediately made arrangements for Mrs. Weinstein to go abroad last summer and take up grand opera work. She did so and received from Frank King Clark, the greatest coach in the world today, the unusual compliment of being told that no other American student had ever come to him so well prepared. Madame Schuman-Heink predicted a great future for Mrs. Marx but told her to continue her study longer with Mrs. Bauer as she was absolutely right and could do no better.

In Portland Miss Brown has received the highest praise in musical circles and is looked upon as one of the leading contraltos of the city. Under Mrs. Bauer's tutelage her voice, while still retaining its beautiful color, has soared upward until the hint of the dramatic soprano is hardly to be ignored and the result is a combination of beauty and possibility not often met with. Miss Brown will gladly try out voices and may be reached at any time by telephone for appointments.

"Chief" Meyers, of the Giants, says he has always regretted that he did not finish his college course.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the city council at its meeting to be held July 15, 1913, for a license to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors in quantities less than a gallon at the place of business on lot 10, block 44, city of Medford for a period of six months. HOLLAND HOTEL CO. Dated July 3, 1913.

SIDEWALK RESOLUTION. Be it resolved by the city council

WHY? Full bearing pears in ten-acre blocks. Few of these blocks must be sold at once. Will give you choice of 170 acres. Come, De Anjou, Bartlett and Bosc. Just 2 1/2 miles west of city limits on Jackson creek. Best of deep black soil; best neighborhood; good road; good building sites. This is a commercial, dividend paying proposition. Two ten-acre blocks will be sold at just half price. This is the best I have ever offered you. Investigate this now.

J. C. BARNES, First National Bank Building.
