W. C. T. U. ITEMS. The local W. C. T. U. opened on time in the library building, with the president, Mrs. Holmes, in the chair. All stood and repeated the 23rd Psalm. It being business day the roll call showed that the white ribbon band had been busy the last month. Minutes of the last two meetings were read and approved. The committees reported and were dismissed. Mrs. Howell then conducted the meeting. Patriotic observance was chosen. Quite a number of readings were recited and discussed. "Woe to them that are at ease!" The national drink bill is $1,750,000,000 a year, nearly as much as our total imports. Besides the enormous cost in cash, there is another more terrible in cost in crime, pauperism and insanity, in ruined homes and families and lives—a cost that can not be enumerated. The sums received as revenues by the government and by cities are very small when compared with the cost.

What a shame to think we must run our city government on the money received by saloonkeepers; on money that ought to go for clothing and bread and butter; on money that would bring cheer and comfort to many a miserable home. License money is graft money, nothing else. It would be just as reasonable to license a gang of thugs and rob our citizens on the street as to rob them of their morals, lives and souls, for a license money saloonkeeper is permitted to do such things.

The union will go to Ashland July 9 on the early train. All W. C. T. U. women are urged to go. The local will hold an open air meeting the last of July, the exact date to be given later.

PRESS SUPERINTENDENT.
