There were record-breaking crowds at both Medford and Grants Pass on July 4th, which shows that the valley is populous enough to have more than one celebration on that day, there ought to be no reason why any one of the towns should seek to monopolize the festivities of the national holiday and hard feelings on that score are foolish.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

By A. C. Howlett.

Last Tuesday, July 1 I started on a trip up Butte creek to visit the good people in that section of the country in the interest of the Mail Tribune, by trying to collect from some of the old subscribers and have them renew and get new ones on the list. One great trouble that I labored under was not finding the men at home and in case they were not at home as a rule the good wife would almost invariably think that there must be some mistake as "It has not been but a little while since Mr. .... went to town and paid up but they had misplaced the receipt." And then about all that I could do was to try some turn to convince the lady that the books must be right for they had one of the best bookkeepers in the country in the Mail Tribune office, but it would generally wind up with "Well I haven't got no money in the home and you will have to wait and see....." but as a rule I was quite fortunate in meeting the men and in some instances the lady would pay up and declare that they can't do without the Mail Tribune, and while on that subject I wish to state that I found on that route, taking in the Wellen, Brownsboro and Lake creek post offices, that I think I never found a community that seemed to be more interested in reading than I found on that trip for as a rule I found that if they did not take the Mail Tribune, they generally did that they took the Sun, so as to keep in touch with the doings of the county. The first place I stopped was at the beautiful home of F. T. Lewis who bought 230 acres off of the Carlton place and after spending a few minutes in conversation with his better half Mr. Lewis came in from the field, paid me a check on his subscription, then took me out and showed me how he planned to cultivate his place, his garden, etc. His idea is to do away with the old fashioned way of plowing and do more of his work by machinery, especially the steam plow and have the ground broken up about eight or ten inches deep and by that means get the crust broken up. But passing on I passed through the rich fertile valley of Little Butte creek and at night stopped with our old friend Marsh Garrett, who has succeeded in the last thirteen years in securing a good wife, a good farm of over two hundred acres about two hundred head of cattle, and last but not perhaps not least an automobile, showing what a young couple, for I give the wife credit for her part, can do in Jackson county.

GIRL'S DROWNING STILL A MYSTERY

WILKESBARRE, Pa., July 10.—The mystery surrounding the death of Miss Alice Criswell, 18 years of age, whose body was found floating in Harvey's lake near here July 5, was still unsolved today. Herbert Johns, 28, is in jail charged with responsibility for the girl's death.

Stephen Reese, a chauffeur, reported today that he saw Johns and Miss Criswell with a party of friends on the night of July 4. He saw a strange man living on a pile of logs nearby. Returning to the same place near midnight, Reese said, he saw Johns and the girl in the road. The girl was staggering and Johns was supporting her. The strange man was still lying on the log pile.

The police have secured about one hundred letters which Johns wrote to Miss Criswell. These show that the girl's homelife was not pleasant. In one letter Johns suggested that they "both jump into the lake and end our sorrows."

A glove from Alice Criswell's right hand which she wore on the night of her death was found today concealed in the tall grass near the roadway where Johns and the girl were seen on the fatal night. This strengthens the theory that a struggle preceded the drowning. The glove was torn and soiled, making difficult efforts to find fingerprints on it.

PITCHER BURGESS BACK FROM CANADA

Ralph Burgess, the young pitcher who left sometime ago to pitch for the Regina, Sask., team of the Twilight League returned home this morning.

Medford fans while strong for Ralph are glad to see him here again and are waiting eagerly waiting for the game next Sunday with Grants Pass when it is probable that he will do the twirling for the local club. With Burgess in the box and Gill catching, the team will be strong enough to cope with any of the Northern California clubs this summer and Medford can now expect good baseball.

CHARLIE GATES SOME BOY SAYS HIS WIFE

NEW YORK, July 10.—"Charlie is the best boy ever."

This was the way Mrs. Charles G. Gates here today denied reports that she had disagreed with her millionaire husband.

"There is absolutely no truth in the report," said Mrs. Gates today. "Charlie left last night to visit a mine in Canada. I will wait here and later we will go to Minneapolis.

"Of course, Charlie left for Canada on a special train, and I suppose he will return on one. He says he cannot bear to ride any other way, as regular trains are too slow.

"Believe me, Charlie is some boy."

CRAMPS, HEADACHE, BACKACHE,

Yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cedar Rapids, Iowa.—"I was always tired and weak and my housework was a drag. I was irregular, had cramps so bad that I would have to lie down, also a distressed feeling in lower part of back, and headache. My abdomen was sore and I know I had organic inflammation."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier have helped me wonderfully. I don't have those pains any more and I am all right now. There are a great many women here who take your remedies and I have told others what they have done for me."—Mrs. CHAS. MCKINNON, 1013 N. 5th St. W., Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

There are probably hundreds of thousands, perhaps millions of women in the United States who have been benefited by this famous old remedy, which was produced from roots and herbs over 80 years ago by a woman to relieve woman's suffering. If you are sick and need such a medicine, why don't you try it? If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

New Rules for Water Users

On account of the extreme waste of water in this city and the low pressure in city water mains resulting therefrom, it is necessary to adopt immediate means of conserving the water supply during the irrigating season.

It is evident that the following ruling will not meet with the approval of all, but among those citizens whose efforts are always directed in the interest of the city at large I am sure of co-operation.

Commencing today, July 10, and until further notice, irrigating will only be permitted as follows:

West side of all streets running north and south and the north side of all streets running east and west, from 4 to 8 p. m.

The east side of all streets running north and south and the south side of all streets running east and west, 4 to 9 a. m.

Hosing down pavement or using open hose or faucet for any irrigation purpose not permitted.

Changes will be made on 1st and 15th of each month, that all may have benefit of evening hours during part of the season.
