

CAMEL CARAVANS PLAN FOR DESERTS OF NEW MEXICO

EL PASO, Texas, July 11.—Camel caravans such as those seen in the Great Sahara Desert will soon become familiar sights in the deserts of New Mexico, Arizona and Southern California if the plans of an association of southwestern business men are successful. J. H. Trimble, a prominent Texas stockman, is one of the leading spirits in the plan to transport 200 camels from the Orient to the southwestern section of America for use in the arid wastes.

The association proposes to put the camels on a ranch on the Rio Grande about 150 miles south of Cape Verde where a breeding station is to be established. The desert areas of New Mexico, Arizona and California, although offering great possibilities to the seeker after metals are but little traversed either by railroads or other means of transportation. With squads of camels it is believed long journeys into the interiors of these wastes can be made.

This will not be the first time that camels have been brought here for this purpose. Jefferson Davis, when secretary of war in Pierce's cabinet tried it out. Under Davis's direction 40 of the animals and their Armenian drivers were imported and a caravanserai built near Cape Verde. Some of these buildings still remain. But just about the time the beasts and their drivers became acclimated and tests were to start, the Civil war broke out and Davis was elected president of the confederacy. Because of the feeling against Davis, and partly because of the unsettled condition of the government for so many years, the camel scheme was dropped.

ACTRESS ASSERTS WOMEN CAN DRESS WELL ON $10 WAGE

DENVER, July 11.—Any working girl who is making $10 a week can dress well. That's what Crystal Herne, known as one of the best dressed women on the stage, says, and she declares she knows whereof she speaks, for she has done it. Miss Herne believes that if a girl studies the psychology of dress she can do it. By "psychology of dress" she means the art of dressing to suit one's individualities of character and style. The plainest looking girl, she believes, can "get herself up" attractively if she but practices the psychology of dress.

"Every woman has her own individual characteristics and her own peculiar personality," said Miss Herne today. "If she dresses to fit character and style she will attain the ideal in correct clothes. She will not need to spend a great deal to achieve this object. It is hard to explain this, but most girls will know what I mean. I have found only one dressmaker in New York who understands me—who understands my personality and individualities. Understanding them, she can gown me attractively on comparatively little outlay. She might not be able to do the same for other women, and that proves my point."

"Dress is simply one way to add to character—to set it off. The plain, easily satisfied girl should never be decked out in frills and fancies by an aspiring seamstress. A woman like 'Nora', in Ibsen's 'Doll's House', light, airy and rather shallow, should not attempt to wear elaborate gowns. Her dresses should be rather of the fluffy, simple order which fits her own personality."

"Simplicity in all things is essential to correct dress. Gaudy clothes, many frills and ridiculous fashions are never seen on correctly gowned women."

PRODUCERS HANDLE ALL BUSINESS FROM MEDFORD OFFICE

J. H. Randolph, who is the newly appointed manager for Producers Fruit company in Oregon, is by no means new in the fruit business. He has been with the company for several years, and for the past six years has managed its business in one of the largest Bartlett pear sections of California. In speaking of business matters, Mr. Randolph has this to say:

"I desire to make it known to the fruit growers of Rogue River valley that the business methods to be inaugurated here by Producers Fruit company will be vastly different from what has been done before. Absolutely everything in connection with our Oregon business, from the largest to the smallest detail, will be handled here in the Medford office. This will put the growers in direct touch with all shipments, and will enable them to get, at all times, information regarding the movement, arrival, condition, and sale of their fruit, as well as general market conditions. We will give advice on all disposition of cars on the day of, or the day after, sales are made, and the price obtained for same. We will render account sales within a week, at the latest, after sales are made, and pay for all fruit with checks issued from the Medford office."

We will watch closely all transportation features, and the filling of claims against carriers for delays, improper refrigeration, breakage or shortage in transit. In fact, we are going to do, with promptness and despatch, everything possible for the best interests of all concerned.

We realize and appreciate the fact that if the grower is not successful, we cannot succeed, and it will be our aim to study and further his interests at all times, and in all directions.

No organization on this coast has a superior marketing arrangement than has Producers Fruit company. We have direct representatives in every car lot market in the United States, and on fruit shipped with us there is only one commission to pay. In the past, the bulk of the Southern Oregon fruit has been sent into San Francisco, Los Angeles, Chicago, New York, and London, and this is not proper distribution. This fruit ought to go to Australia, Hawaiian Islands, Berlin, St. Petersburg, Paris, Liverpool and Glasgow, as well as to London, and if we can distribute the Rogue River fruit half as successfully as we anticipate being able to do, results will be highly satisfactory.

PEERESS HYPNOTIZED A BRITISH MILLIONAIRE

Lady Sackville, according to the sisters of Sir John Murray Scott, the British millionaire, had him hypnotized. He died some time ago and now his relatives have brought a will case in the courts. But the courts have awarded her the estate which totals $3,500,000.

We have recently received and confirmed an order for 20,000 boxes 4 1/2 and 5 tier Jonathan and Newton apples to go to a market that has never before seen a Rogue River apple, and we expect to book several more like it before the shipping season opens.

Producers Fruit company will buy apples and pears straight out, or will ship on commission, at the option of the grower.

UNDERPAID GIRLS FIND DEFENDER IN OREGON PRIEST

SEATTLE, Wash., July 11.—It is a mistake to put too much emphasis on the so-called sex morality argument in discussing the question of minimum wages, was the advice given by Father Edwin V. O'Hara, chairman of the Industrial Welfare Commission of Oregon, addressing a section meeting of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections this morning.

"It is indeed fundamentally a moral issue," he said, "one of social justice. But the insinuation that underpaid girls are largely immoral, and that the increase in wages is going to make it possible for them to lead moral lives is false in fact and dangerous in policy. Girls will not cooperate with reformers who begin by casting reflections on their virtue. It is more to the point to show that underpaid girls are preserving their virtue, but are living on two meals a day and are forced to practice other pitiable economies which undermine their health and unfit them for the duties of wife and mother, and thus sap the foundation of society."

Other speakers on the minimum wage subject this morning were Mrs. Florence Kelley, of New York, Mrs. Millie R. Trumbull, of Portland, Mrs. Blanche Mason, of Seattle, Charles F. Hubbard, of Olympia and C. R. Caulfield of Portland.

JOHNSON'S MOTHER EXPECT SON'S RETURN

CHICAGO, July 11.—Government authorities were told here today by Mrs. Tina Johnson, mother of Jack Johnson, the negro prizefighter, that her son would return to Chicago in October, when a decision on his appeal from the year's sentence in jail for white slavery is expected. Mrs. Johnson claimed she received a cablegram to this effect from Paris.
