An attempt to blow up the Christ church military barracks has sent that city into a state of great excitement.

Large quantities of dynamite connected with the burning fuse, were acided to the building just in time for the fuse to be extinguished.

A few minutes more delay would have meat the complete destruction of the larracks.

The police are at a loss for a clue. There is no evidence, so far, to connect the outsage with anyone, but it is thought that some members of the nati-militarist faction may have been freeponsible.
