MAJESTY REVIEWS PEACEFUL ARMADA

LIVERPOOL, July 11.—The striking spectacle of a peaceful armada—twice as large in numbers as the Spanish Armada of long ago—representing the mercantile marine of Great Britain, and stretching five miles along the Mersey estuary, was presented to King George and Queen Mary who arrived here today to be the chief figures in the ceremonies attending the opening of the gigantic new Gladstone Dock. The post of honor was given to the great ship Mauretania, and after hoarding the yacht Galatea to review the fleet the king and queen inspected the Commodore, Twenty-six big ocean-going ships were in line, including the White Star Cerberus, and the Canadian Pacific liner, Empress of Ireland and scores of miscellaneous craft. The warships Liverpool and Lancaster, selected in honor of the Lancashire visit, provided the naval escort of the mercantile fleet. The arrangements were made by the earl of Derby with whom the King and Queen and staying. Stringent precautions were taken by the police to guard against any possible suffragette interruptions or demonstrations the dock and the route of the royal procession ashore and afloat being thoroughly patrolled. Several yachts which had taken their places in line without notifying the authorities were pointed upon by the river and harbor police and the owners had to give strict account of themselves and their passengers.

BANDON EDITOR ORDERED TO LEAVE

BANDON, Ore., July 11.—Alleging that he has shown decided sympathy for the Industrial Workers of the World, who are reported to be planning an invasion of this town, Dr. B. K. Leach, editor of a paper known as The Justice, has been today notified by a committee of business men to leave Bandon by this evening. The committee was appointed at a mass meeting attended by 600 citizens which was held primarily to discourage reported attempts of the I. W. W. to start an agitation here. Leach was summoned before the meeting and despite his denials of accusations that he lent editorial support to the I. W. W. and had attacked the flag, he was ordered out of town and assured that he would be escorted if he did not leave voluntarily.

VAUDEVILLE MAKES HIT AT STAR THEATER

De Bois and Young made a decided hit last night with their jokes, songs and dances. There is not a dull moment in the entire act and it goes with a vim. They introduced new songs, etc., tonight and there is an entire change of pictures, featuring "A True Believer," a two reel Kay-Dee. There are three other good pictures on the program including a double Keystone comedy and the popular Gaumont Weekly. No advance in price.

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

Much hay has been cut down the last few days and rain at present would do much damage. A number of young people went to Grants Pass on the Fourth and finding very little entertainment there returned to Medford on the first train. Andy Klum and family have returned from the Willamette valley and are keeping house for Oliver Pentland. The Modoc people have purchased a new binder. G. E. Walling now has the finest car on the north side of the river. S. M. Nealon has made several trips to Grants Pass with his daughter Miss Katherine, to obtain medical treatment for ear trouble induced by measles. The Arrowhead Society will give a program next Saturday evening, July 12. Rev. A. C. Howlett conducted services at Table Rock last Sunday evening for Rev. M. C. Davis who is unable to get to his work on account of injuries sustained in a mixup with a motorcycle and a dog some time ago. Rev. Howlett will be at Table Rock again on the evening of July 20.

The river has been very high and no very clear lately and most fishermen have had poor success but the water is now quite clear and fishing ought to be better. There seem to be a good many fish in the river that have run the gauntlet between here and the sea.

Verne Pendleton had an experience Saturday night in Central Point which calls to mind the days of Black Bart, Kid Dalton and many other celebrities during the "wild and woolly" days in early coast life. At 10 o'clock, he and John Peterson had just got through shaving at the Boswell shop and started for home, to find their team which was tied at the Peart tank, was missing. No one could be found who had seen it leave nor could they account for its disappearance. Between twelve and one o'clock as Kenneth Beebe and George Pankey with their wives were on their way home they found the team standing off to one side of the road with a man in the buggy. As Beebe started toward the man started the horses and tried to make away with them but Beebe beat him to it, grabbing the team by the bits and taking charge of the party. Pankey had gone for help and soon several men were on hand to escort the whole party "bad man" back to town, where Marshal Holmes, searched him taking from him a large automatic revolver, loaded to the guards. Monday a complaint was sworn out against him for carrying a concealed weapon, to which he pleaded guilty and was

WHY?

If there is a bargain in real estate in any district the real estate man there who has been a live agent knows of it.
