CATTLE BRANDS MUST BE REGISTERED AGAIN

A new law enacted at the last Legislature of special interest and importance to this section of the state was the change made in the recording of brands. The amendment, according to the 1913 session laws, reads as follows:
Sec. 5526. When a brand has been recorded in any county, no other person, company or corporation can record the same brand or brand similar thereto, except with the written consent of the owner of the brand so recorded, which written consent shall be recorded with the county clerk; and it shall be the duty of all persons, firms or corporations now having brands, upon record to renew the same by oral or written record of the owner of record of said brand to the county clerk within one year from the passage of this amendment. The county clerk shall make a memorandum of said renewal with the date thereof on the margin of the record of said brand. All brands, the record of which shall not be renewed as above provided, shall be cancelled and may be appropriated and recorded by the person first applying therefor.

had their pieces well memorized and delivered them with clear strong voices, from the smallest to the greatest. At the close of the children's program your Eagle Point correspondent was called on for a speech but it was so near dinner time that I thought it best to cut my speech short, so only talked about fifteen minutes, and then the tables were prepared and dinner was served, and such a dinner! If I could have about two columns of space in the Mail Tribune I might give, perhaps, a faint description of that dinner, which consisted of all kinds of meats, salads, cakes, pies, pickles, sweetmeats, many kinds of vegetable stews and notions, and the quantity! They had come prepared to stay and attend the dance at night so brought enough to last all night. In the afternoon they had foot races among the children for prizes, and various kinds of sport and at night a genuine old-fashioned social dance, and those who remained reported that they had one of the best times of the season.

On Saturday night the friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Florey gave them a surprise party. The reader will remember that they were burned out the Sunday before, but they had the old postoffice building left and so the friends arranged to have Mr. and Mrs. Florey go and take supper with Mrs. Wolery and while they were out of sight made a raid on the old postoffice building and the result was that when they returned they found the room well filled with their neighbors and each one had brought something of value to assist them in going to housekeeping—bedsteads, beds, sheets, quilts, dishes, dress goods, blankets, etc. Mr. Florey stood for a moment speechless and his wife, womanlike, took a little ery and then they expressed their appreciation of the act, and the donors realized that it "is more blessed to give than to receive."

Harry Young and his sister called for dinner one day last week. G. N. Smith, the honey man, was in town last week. Mrs. Wm. Winkler and her daughter, were doing business with our merchants last week. Mr. Florey has moved his old postoffice building onto the spot where they old house stood and is having an addition put to it for a residence. Miss Nevah Taylor, one of our esteemed young ladies, has gone to Ashland and Miss Ruth Warner of Trail has gone to Grants Pass to remain for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Isaacson and Mrs. L. Hatfield are among the Central Point people who are enjoying a few days visit at Coletsin. H. N. Aldrich pastor of the M. E. church of this city has returned from a visit at Oregon's metropolis and the capitol city. Little Miss Roberts of Grants Pass is the guest of her aunt Mrs. O. R. Pankey and family in this city. Miss Mildred Elliott left Saturday morning for Corning, Cal., where she has a position and where she will reside permanently. Miss Agnes Dunlap visited in Medford Saturday. Ernest Minuth of Phoenix spent a few days here the last of the week and attended the chautauqua in Ashland Sunday. Ralph Dean and family of Willow Springs were among the out-of-town visitors in this city during the week. The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will give an ice cream social at the home of Mrs. Perkins Friday evening, July 18. Come all and enjoy a social evening. Frank Hatfield and Miss Margaret Davisson journeyed to Coletsin Sunday and spent the day. Miss Ghenson, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Richardson attended the chautauqua at Ashland Sunday. Mrs. S. Simpkins, Miss Francis Shields and Mr. Herman Simpkins were Sunday visitors in the city of Rogue River. Miss Ella Stone spent Sunday at Tolo. A. Barnett and family who have been residents of this city for the past year, left Sunday morning for Salt Lake City where they will make their home. Mrs. J. R. Ensley and Mr. and Mrs. K. Barnett are spending the summer at Myrtle Point. Miss Marguerite Holmes spent two days in Ashland the last of the week, the guest of Miss Mae Hash. Miss Anna Dean of Ashland was the guest of Mrs. E. L. Farra the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Holmes, Mrs. C. Clark, Mrs. Newman, Mrs. J. Kellerman, Miss McDonald, Miss Ross, Miss Stearns, E. C. Faber, F. Farr, C. Hatfield, Roy Bebb, Lake Pearl and Bud Adams spent Sunday afternoon in Medford. The Central Point Cubs played a game with the Modoc Savages on the grounds Sunday afternoon.

PHOENIX PHACTLETS
Emmett Beeson and wife were business callers in town Saturday. Mrs. James Miller returned home from Oakland, California, last week. Mrs. Wilson Critzer and daughter, of Detroit, Michigan, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Elmer of North Phoenix. Mrs. T. Malmgren is attending Chautauqua in Ashland. Mrs. Henry Shafer was taken quite sick last Thursday but is now much better. Alice Beecraft left last Monday for Los Angeles to attend the International Christian Endeavor convention which convenes in that city this week. Miss Beecraft was sent as a delegate to represent the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor Society of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Horace B. Fisher of Atlanta, Georgia, who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Cope and family for the past ten days, left Saturday afternoon for Vancouver via Portland and Seattle. Before returning to their home in Atlanta, they will visit Chicago and several places in Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Fisher thought the Rogue river valley the most beautiful place they had seen in their travels.

ALONG ROGUE RIVER
George Lynch and daughter Miss Verda, were trading in Medford one day this week. Mrs. Tim Dally was in the valley Wednesday having some dental work done. Miss Ellen McCabe spent last week with her sister, Mrs. Garret of Medford. Mr. and Mrs. Irwin are selling their household goods and expect to go to the coast soon. Mrs. Charles Sherman and son of upper Trail, went to the valley Friday. Ed Foster was in Medford Friday. District Attorney Kelly and Ed...

WHY?
If there is a bargain in real estate in any district the real estate man there who has been a live agent knows it. If he knows values and is experienced in the business he can save his customers time and money. To know the best buy and have it optioned at the bottom price is my stock in trade. Satisfied customers is my paid-up business policy. What have you to exchange? Watch my bulletin board in front of the First National Bank and see me.

EAGLE POINT EAGLES.
By A. C. Howlett.
The last time I wrote I was at the home of my friend and brother minister, Rev. M. C. Davis of Wolf Creek and at that time promised to tell the readers of the Mail Tribune something about the celebration at the South Butte school house, known as the Lost Creek school house.
After spending the night with my friend John Tyrrell and being shown many of the attractions of the place, we went to the school house and found quite a number of the citizens had already arrived and that everything was about in readiness for the exercises to commence. John Miller was appointed marshal of the day and the exercises were opened by singing America, which was followed by prayer by Rev. Kenny. Then they had two more songs the Starspangled Banner and Sherman's March Through Georgia, and then the most interesting part of the program commenced—the entertainment by the children—which proved to be one of the best I ever heard. They
