NUMBERS USED. (Continued from Page 1) established, then our power for good will grow right along, and next year, during the presidential campaign, we will be a factor of national importance that cannot be overlooked."

Known by Numbers Mulhall testified that while Cushing was secretary of the association he was very secretive and that no names were mentioned. "We were known by numbers then," added Mulhall. "Vice-President Sherman was No. 8, Congressman Littlefield was No. 9 and I myself was No. 11."

Much of today's testimony was tiresome, the letters telling principally of the operations in Maine in behalf of Congressman Littlefield. Senator Reed again led Mulhall back to the alleged plan of the National Association of Manufacturers to bribe Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, but deferred going into the matter.

Expense Accounts Mulhall identified expense accounts showing moneys paid to striking shoeworkers in St. Louis in 1907 in efforts to break the strike there. "I had been given $3000," Mulhall said, "to pay the strike leader if he would agree to call off the strike within a certain period. It took two days longer than the association had planned to get the men back to work and the N. A. M. refused to pay this man a cent. They certainly gave him a tough deal."

Mulhall also said that in October, 1907, Schweetman sent him to see Congressman Bartholdt in St. Louis. He said he met Bartholdt and they discussed national politics.

Presidents Gregg and McIntyre and General Chairman E. A. Larue of the B. R. T. and General Chairman Sam Yeatch of the O. R. C. came to San Francisco with a delegation of general committeemen.

Strike Vote Follows The strike vote followed within twenty-four hours after a conference with Calvin. The railroad employees declare their determination to get a satisfactory settlement. "Ruling the Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda electric system as an independent concern simply means a change in the schedule of employment and a division of the committee, leaving the employes in a helpless condition," said Gregg, who admitted that the situation is extremely grave. He added that other railroads of the country when parts of their lines were electrified had allowed the employes every right and privilege of the men on the steam lines.

Controversies which cannot be decided by the mediation board may be referred to an arbitration board of either three or six members. If a board of three members is decided upon, one of these members is to represent the employes, one the employes and these two shall select the third member. If a board of six members is selected, each side shall have two members, these four to choose the remaining two members.

Both parties to a dispute are required to agree in writing to abide by the decision of the arbitrator, whose decision is to be made a judgment by the federal courts. The arbitrators selected to settle any dispute are to receive a compensation fixed by the permanent mediation board. An annual appropriation of $25,000 is made to defray the expense of mediation.

HOW DARE YOU PULL MY HAIR SAYS RESCUED GIRL

OAKLAND, Cal., July 15.—After pulling Miss Martha Stacey, a school teacher, out of the bay at Santa Cruz when she was about to sink for the third time, Gilbert C. Farley, secretary of the Commercial club, towed her ashore and then presented her with his card.

Today he received a message from the young woman, inclosing his card and asking him not to consider the mere fact of saving her life as grounds for an introduction. "I noticed the young woman going down off the Santa Cruz shore," said Farley today. "I realized she was in distress and I went in after her I seized her by the hair and pulled her aboard a raft."

"When I got her high and dry she turned to me and said: 'How dare you pull my hair like that?'" "About an hour later I met her with some friends and they thanked me for saving her life and told me her name. She appeared pleased and, as a matter of formality, I tendered my card. Today I got it back again—with a curt little note."

PRESIDENT DISCUSSES MEXICAN RECOGNITION

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Secretary of State Bryan refused today to confirm or deny a persistent report that the representative here of one of the great powers had made a demand that the United States either recognize the Huerta government or assume responsibility for ending the crisis in Mexico. The report stated that representatives of both Great Britain and Germany had brought up the matter. It is expected that Secretary Bryan will discuss the matter this afternoon with President Wilson.

feit of Mel Sheppard in the half-mile race. Peerless Mel was led home by Homer Baker, a Brooklyn youth who started his career as a high jumper but is now one of the greatest half milers in America. Sheppard has started in the national half mile championship seven times, taking five firsts, a second, and a third—altogether a most remarkable record. Peerless Mel is just shaking off the effects of a train wreck he was in last fall and he will probably "come back" before the year is out.

Another champion who met his Waterloo at Chicago was Tom Halpin, the fleet Boston Athletic Association sprinter, who won the quarter-mile national title in 1912. Halpin ran gamely, but at the finish Captain Hoff of the University of Michigan team was half a stride ahead of the lanky Beaneater.

After winning the national mile title in 1911 and 1912 Abel Kiviat of New York was jolted off his pinnacle at the Chicago games by Norman Taber of Brown University. Taber and Kiviat finished so close in the 1500-meter championship at Stockholm that the officials refused to make a decision as to which had finished second to Jackson of England until the official photographer's picture of the finish was developed. At Chicago it was not so close, Taber reversing the result of the Stockholm race with something to spare.

JAPS FIND NO ENMITY TO JAPAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., July 15.—Dr. Juchi Suyeda and Tadao Kaniya, envoys sent to this country by the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Japan to investigate conditions which led to the passage of the anti-alien land bill by the California legislature, have returned to San Francisco after a six weeks tour of the country. They state that with the exception of California they found that only the friendliest feeling toward Japanese prevails throughout the nation.

The most startling assertion that they made was that they will urge their government to obtain for Japanese the right of becoming citizens of this country. They believe war is very unlikely, but admit that the situation is delicate, and might be strained to the breaking point if it came to a question of national honor for Japan.

SEAMAN SCALDED TO DEATH ON WARSHIP

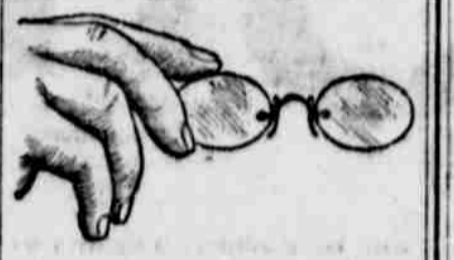

BOSTON, July 15.—An ordinary seaman was scalded to death and the chief electrician of the battleship Nebraska was badly injured about the shoulders and arms by the explosion today of a steam valve in the dynamo room. The seaman succumbed after his removal to the marine hospital.

A New Method of Baking Cakes Mrs. Nevada Briggs, the baking expert, says: "There is just one way to make your cakes rise high and evenly—give them time to rise before a crust is formed and the batter is stiffened by cooking." "If using a gas, gasoline or oil stove, light your oven when you put the cake in and keep the flame low until the cake has doubled in bulk; then increase the heat until it is evenly browned and will respond to the pressure of the finger. If using a coal or wood range, leave the oven door open until the cake is in, then turn on the drafts and by the time the oven is at baking temperature, the cake will have risen sufficiently." For rich, moist, feathery cakes Mrs. Briggs always recommends KC BAKING POWDER It is double acting and sustains the rise. You can open and close the oven door, turn the tin around in the oven or do anything else necessary, without any danger of making the cake fall. Try your favorite cake next time with K C Baking Powder and see how much higher it will rise. Make it just as you always do, with the same quantity of baking powder. While K C is less expensive than the old-fashioned baking powders, it has even greater leavening strength and it is guaranteed pure and healthful. Try a can and be convinced
