40 DAYS ROCKPILE FOR TOM BURNS

PORTLAND, Ore., July 19.—Tom Burns, a socialist, whose arrest on Tuesday night on charges of using incendiary language caused the arrest of ten others who attempted to take his place on a soap box, is under sentence of forty days on the rock pile today. A jury of six men in the municipal court returned a verdict of guilty after brief deliberation.

Notice of appeal was given by Burns.

An attempt may be made to deport Burns, it being alleged that he is a deserter from the British navy and has never been naturalized.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT FAIR WILL BE A BIG FEATURE

That the children's display will be one of the features of the county fair this September is the decision of the committee of the children's department. Mrs. E. E. Gore, Miss Jennie Suedicor, Mrs. M. M. Gore, Mrs. Charles Scheffelin, and Mr. J. Percy Wells of Jacksonville, and M. G. Maffis of Salem, a representative of the fair association. The committee met Friday morning at the Hotel Medford, and in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. E. Merrick and arranged details for the fair.

One hundred dollars will be given in prizes for the children's display. This is for the best vegetables, fruit, canned fruit, cooked food, sewing, and manual training products will be awarded.

The same committee made changes in the list of prizes for women's products and enlarged them. This is also to be one of the most important departments as almost three hundred dollars will be awarded in prizes for all kinds of sewing, fancy work and cooked food.

OBITUARY.

Henry V. Klippel, who died at Los Angeles, Cal., recently, won name and fortune in early manhood. He was the youngest son of the late Henry Klippel, and Elizabeth Klippel of Medford, two of Jackson county's best known pioneers. He was born at Jacksonville August 9, 1875, where he was educated in the public school and remained until he attained the age of 21 years.

Removing to Portland, Mr. Klippel entered the employ of Emery Oliver, a civil engineer in 1897, beginning work with a party of surveyors locating a route for the O. R. & N. R. company in eastern Oregon. He became quite proficient in his chosen profession, and at an examination conducted by the civil service commission of Portland he obtained a percentage of 100 and stood first on the list.

In July, 1905, Mr. Klippel went to Oroville, Cal., for Mr. Oliver and was employed on the Western Pacific railroad, then building to this coast.

Two years later he formed a partnership with Robert Brooke, and for over three years the firm was successfully engaged in contracting with the Gold system.

In October, 1910, with A. C. McLean, he took a contract to build twenty-two miles of road for the Southern Pacific and Santa Fe on their joint line to Eureka, Cal., but on account of poor health he was compelled to relinquish it before completion.

October 5, 1905, Mr. Klippel was united in marriage to Florence E. Kimms of Portland, who died April 20, 1910. June 6, 1912, he was married to Ella H. Albion. He is survived by his widow, his mother, a sister, Miss Alice Klippel of Medford, and three brothers, Lemuel Klippel of Lake County, John H. Klippel and Fred Klippel of Portland.

MUCH ADO ABOUT NOTHING.

THE fact that Secretary of State Bryan chooses to spend his summer vacation lecturing and thereby thriftily makes both ends meet has provoked a great deal of partisan criticism. There are so few things that Mr. Bryan can be assailed upon that any occasion is seized with avidity.

Mr. Bryan is doing no more nor less than Champ Clark, speaker of the house of representatives, Senator Robert M. La Follette and a score of other federal office-holders have done for years without criticism. He and others, have the right to spend their vacation as they see fit.

To be sure Mr. Bryan's actions are in questionable taste. His frugality and penuriousness are not attractive qualities, but as long as his honesty and integrity are unquestioned, such minor flaws are to be expected and can be forgiven.

The cabinets of both Presidents Roosevelt and Taft spent a great portion of their time traveling about the country building up a political machine, and making partisan speeches in favor of some local or state candidate. It is less objectionable for Secretary Bryan to lecture to chautauquas than it was for Secretary Root to speak in defense of corrupt political rings and grafters.

Like the fuss over Bryan's grape juice beverage, the gossip over Bryan's chautauqua lectures, is much ado about nothing, fit only as a subject for the silly summer season.

MISS FIELDER GETS A LIFE CERTIFICATE

SALEM, Ore., July 19.—Announcement was made today by the state school superintendent of the successful applicants for state teachers' certificates in practically every county in the state. The list is the largest ever issued at one time in the state. Those who received one-year certificates took the examination last spring. Besides these, 12 life certificates were issued and 23 five-year state certificates.

Among those from this section receiving certificates are, Julia C. Fielder, Medford, life certificate, and Mabel C. Mickey, Ashland life certificate.
