

FEMALE AGITATOR REFUSES TO LEAVE

PORTLAND, Or., July 19.—Sheriff Word today declared that he would prosecute the prosecution of Dr. Mario Equi, who was arrested on Thursday night while leading a number of striking girls and women employees of the Oregon Canning company, in an attempt to hold a street meeting, the suppression of which led to wild disorders. He, however, expects his friends to file an insanity complaint against her. Dr. Equi's friends agreed to send her out of the state if she was not prosecuted, but she refused to go at the last minute.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Joseph Rader, wife and nephew, called for supper last Sunday at the Sunny Side. Allen W. Stewart of Sacramento, Cal., was a passenger on the P. & E. one day last week on his way to visit his father-in-law above Brownboro. N. C. Maris of Portland, state organizer of the school district fair, was a pleasant caller at the Sunny Side Wednesday night, he was here looking after the interest of the school fair for this district. He was here last spring and took steps to organize a fair but there seemed to be a lack of interest in that line on the part of some of those who had charge of the matter and Mr. Maris has decided to let the matter drop for the present at least.

There seems to be considerable travel over this route for Crater Lake just now.

John Grob, one of our most prosperous farmers and orchardmen called on your correspondent last night and said that he wanted to pay me for the Daily Mail Tribune for he said they have stopped my paper and we are lost without it.

Mrs. G. W. Owings, Mrs. J. Frank Brown and Miss Mabel Wamsley, have been spending a few days at Ashland attending the chautauqua.

W. W. Taylor one of our prosperous farmers is installing a large hydraulic ram so as to water his land above his ditch.

The carpenters are busily engaged working on Mr. Florey's new house. Mrs. Florey went to Medford last Wednesday and bought another outfit for house-keeping.

The last time I wrote I promised to tell something of my trip to Grants Pass and Wolf Creek.

I left home on the morning of the 7th and took the 10:21 train for Grants Pass arriving there at 11:45 a. m. and went directly to Dr. M. C. Findley's office and found that I was number twelve this time, and while I was waiting for my turn, for there we do as we used to when I was a boy going to mill, each one took his turn. I mingled with the patients and among them met Mrs. A. Wallbridge and her granddaughter Miss Alice Hart of Ward, Cal., Miss Hart was undergoing a treatment for mastoid and said that she was getting along fine. I also met Miss Francis Alley of Roseburg, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wimer of Holland, Cal., Mrs. E. V. Carter, Mr. George G. Eubanks and son Archie, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Provost Mr. and Mrs. John Patty and daughter of Ashland besides several others whose names I did not learn.

After the doctor had reached my case at 12:45 p. m. we went to dinner, the doctor took me in his auto for a visit to the hospital, about a mile out from the business center of the city located in a beautiful grove interspersed with roses and flowers making it look more like a residence of a retired capitalist than the abode of the afflicted, but the interior corresponds with the exterior as everything was arranged for the comfort and convenience of the patients. I met there an old acquaintance from Trail, a Mrs. Murray, she had just been operated on for a canceret and after the doctor had removed the bandages she looked up at me and extending her hand said that I looked as natural as life. But I see that I have already made this letter to long so will try to tell something of my trip to Wolf Creek and what I saw on that trip of interest to the readers of the Mail Tribune next time.
