

JUI JITSU USED TO BREAK ARM OF MRS. BLIVEN

Mrs. Phila Bliven of Thompson creek, who has filed a complaint for assault with intent to kill against her neighbor, Mrs. Onie Kneutzen, who attacked her last Sunday and by practicing Jui Jitsu broke her arm, tells the following concerning the assault:

"I was seeking my husband in the timber and taken a cross cut down a hill, when Mrs. Kneutzen sprang at me from behind a brush pile, shouting:

"Now, damn you, I am going to kill you! I have waited a week for a chance!"

"I had barely time to glance over my shoulder when something struck me a terrific blow in my back, felling me. I felt her seize my left forearm, twist and bend it, breaking the bones, when I lost consciousness.

"I awoke later dazed, to find myself alone. Mrs. Kneutzen was entering her gate. I stumbled to my home, not realizing till I got there that my arm was broken and bleeding. Holding the bones together as best I could, I made for Mrs. Elmore's, our nearest neighbor that had a phone. I had to pass the Kneutzen house, where I encountered Mr. and Mrs. Kneutzen. Mrs. Kneutzen started cursing and abusing me and started to attack me. Her husband interfered and was greatly shocked when he saw how I had been injured.

"Mrs. Kneutzen brushed her husband aside and grabbed my arm, saying she was going to kill me. But Mr. Kneutzen again interfered and she let go, damning and cursing me. After I reached Elmore's the Kneutzens' following, where Mrs. Kneutzen again attempted an attack upon me, and followed me home, threatening and abusing me all the way.

"Miss Bingham and Mrs. Rapken awaited me in the road and heard her abuse. Mrs. Elmore and the doctor arrived an hour later."

The trouble started over an irrigation ditch which precipitated a neighborhood row. The case will be heard before Justice Taylor Tuesday.

FIRE DESTROYS FISH MARKET

Fire starting at about 5:30 o'clock Saturday morning completely gutted the rear portion and destroyed the roof and wall of the frame store room at 19 North Fir occupied by the Medford Fish and Poultry company, of which Van R. Gilbert is proprietor. The building was an old one and the property of Charles Palm.

The fire started from a stove in the rear room. Mr. Gilbert has been in the habit of coming down at 5 o'clock Saturdays to build the fire for heating water for poultry dressing. After the stove was lighted, he returned home for breakfast and it was while he was away that the flames spread. The structure was once before afire on account of the chimneys falling.

The alarm was given by newspaper carriers and only the good work done by the fire boys saved the surrounding shacks from destruction.

ALL OF WESTERN PART OF STATE AT CONFERENCE

As previously announced in these columns the annual campmeeting of the Southern Oregon Conference of Seventh-day Adventists convened in this city upon last Thursday. About fifty tents are erected at the encampment, located upon North Beatty street. The campers represent many localities in the conference territory, which comprises all of western Oregon south of Linn county, including also Klamath and Lake counties. The services began upon Thursday evening with an address by Elder H. W. Cottrell of Portland, president of the western Oregon conference, upon the power of the word of God and its importance to the believer.

The first session of conference was held at 9 o'clock Friday morning, at which hour of each day except Sabbath, a session will be held until business of this nature is disposed of. Delegates were seated and standing committees were appointed.

Other ministers in attendance are as follows: W. A. Spicer and Meade McGuire of Washington, D. C.; F. S. Burch of Gravel Ford, president of this conference; H. G. Thurston of Salem; C. J. Cole of Eugene; L. A. Gibson of Cottage Grove; B. C. Tabor of Ashland, and T. G. Bunch, pastor of the local church.

In addition to the above there are present Dr. Ada Smith-Crawford of Cottage Grove; J. F. Beatty of Portland, agent of the Pacific Press; J. P. Wheeler, secretary of this conference; E. A. Hamilton, miscellaneous secretary, and Miss Grace Davison, general secretary of Sunday schools and young people's work. Others worthy of mention are expected soon.

Three general services are held each day—11 a. m., 2 and 8 p. m. The people of Medford and vicinity are cordially invited to attend all of these services.

GRADE AND PACK RULES ADOPTED FOR SEASON 1913

Grading and packing rules for the season of 1913 for the Rogue river valley were adopted by the various fruit shipping and packing associations and exchanges at a joint meeting held Friday.

Those represented at the meeting were the Rogue River Fruit and Produce Association, the Rogue River Co-operative Fruit Growers Association, the Producers Fruit company and the Pioneer Fruit company. It is the intention of all shippers to make a uniform pack and prevent a repetition of last year's experience when a lack of uniformity injured the valley's reputation.

The grade and pack rules will be printed in pamphlet form and distributed.

Awaiting The Joyful Sound

The Wonderful Music that Bursts Forth When the Stork Arrives.

That funny little, brassy cry that echoes the arrival of the new baby is perhaps the most cherished remembrance of our lives. And thousands of happy mothers owe their preservation to health and strength to Mother's Friend. This is an external remedy that is applied to the abdominal muscles. It relieves all the tension, prevents tenderness and pain, enables the muscles to expand gently, and, when baby comes, the muscles relax naturally, the form is preserved without laceration or other accident. It is one of the standard, reliable remedies that grandmothers everywhere have relied upon.

With its daily use during the period of expectation, there is no weakness, no nausea, no morning sickness, no pain, distress or strain of any kind.

You will find this wonderful remedy on sale at your drug store at $1.00 per bottle. It is prepared by Bradfield Regulator Co., 236 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write them for a valuable book to expectant mothers.
