ADVENTISTS' CAMP NEARLY AFLOAT

Notwithstanding the fact that the camp was nearly afloat this morning the meetings continue as usual and the campers are cheerful. An educational address was made at 3 p. m. yesterday by Prof. E. C. Kellogg of Walla Walla College. At another meeting a donation was made of over $100 to apply upon the purchase of a new printing press for the above Institution.

Upon last evening the audience was treated to an illustrated lecture, or rather two lectures; one descriptive of Walla Walla College and its work, the other illustrating scenes and missionary enterprises in Central Africa. Two conferences sessions were held during yesterday. The first being given to a consideration of the finances of the conference. At the second two important committees made reports. That on nominations, reported as follows:

For president, F. S. Bunch of Gravel Ford. For secretary and treasurer, J. P. Wheeler of Roseburg. For additional members of the conference committee, L. A. Gibson, C. J. Cole, A. D. Owens, J. C. Datcher. These were considered and declared duly elected by action of the conference.

The committee on credentials and licenses presented the following names which likewise received favorable consideration at the hands of the conference. For ministerial credentials, F. S. Bunch, C. J. Cole, L. A. Gibson, T. G. Bunch, R. W. Airey. Honorary credentials, B. C. Tabor. For ministerial license, L. E. Tupper. For missionary credentials, J. P. Wheeler, E. A. Hamilton, Miss Grace Davison, Mrs. Mary Wilson, Mrs. C. J. Cole, Miss Neta Herman. For honorary missionary credentials, Mrs. B. C. Tabor, Mrs. M. A. Neale.

ASK GERMANS TO ASK FOR GERMAN OYSTERS

BERLIN, July 24.—A patriotic public appeal was formally made throughout the German Empire today asking all Germans to cultivate the habit of calling for German oysters instead of the English and Dutch varieties. The appeal was made through the government fishery office. The appeal sets forth that the "Royal Prussians," grown in the government beds off Schleswig-Holstein, are in every respect as toothsome and wholesome as their more popular foreign rivals.

WEDDING BELLS

The Grand Forks, N. D., Daily Herald of July 17 contains the following account of the marriage of Miss Camilla Cameron, formerly teacher in the Medford public schools:

"A pretty wedding took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Hugh G. Stewart on Cheyenne avenue, when her sister, Miss Camilla Cameron of Seattle, Wash., was united in marriage to Harold Ballou of Minneapolis. Rev. J. K. Burleson, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiated. The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. C. P. Cameron of Seattle, Wash., and Miss Jennie Cameron of San Francisco, Cal. At 6 o'clock the bridal party went to the Hotel Dacotah, where the wedding dinner was served. The appointments were carried out in pink and white and a large basket of roses made an attractive centerpiece for the table. Covers were laid for nine and a pink rose marked the place for each guest. Miss Jennie Cameron of San Francisco was hostess."

Miss Hazel Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Davis, was married Tuesday evening at her home on West Tenth street to Mr. Dade Territt of Michigan, N. D. The young couple left for Michigan via Yellowstone Park.

TABLE ROCK TABLETS

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Walling are at Dead Indian.

Lee Nunn and Luke Eddington have gone to Marshfield to remain indefinitely.

A number of young people from Table Rock spent Sunday at Colestine

Toggery Bill and two gentlemen we did not know were out to Modoc fishing Tuesday afternoon and got caught in the heavy downpour of rain. The lightning knocked a tree down near them and your correspondent. They got a fine lot of fish which were not improved by the auto running over them by accident. The fish were all right however as we sampled one.

The "Arrow Heads" will give a literary program next Saturday evening which will probably be better than their last.

Rev. Schwimley of Ashland will preach at Table Rock Sunday evening August 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Root of Chicago are visiting at the residence of their son, M. M. Root of Table Rock. Mr. Root is a member of the great music house of New York and Chicago which bears his name and is a son of G. F. Root who put so much inspiration into the whole nation during the dark days of the Civil war by giving us "Tramp, Tramp Tramp" and "We Will Rally Round the Flag Boys" and many other patriotic airs and a vast amount of standard church and Sunday school music.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Waltemeyer of theatrical fame are camping on the river above Modoc fishing and resting. Mr. Waltemeyer told your correspondent that he had played all over the United States and several foreign countries and that he would rather live here than any other place he had seen.

Very little rain fell at Table Rock Tuesday evening but east from Modoc it was very heavy.

The married men of Modoc will play the single men a game of base ball for $20, August 3rd.

The fish are biting good the last few days and we have seen some fine catches.

The Misses Sue and Helen Lydiard returned Saturday from Long Beach, Cal., where the former has been in business and the latter in school.

Mrs. G. Roy Ringo, nee Eva Lydiard, is expected in a week for a month's visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Lydiard.

PHOENIX PHACTLETS

Mrs. G. Elfers spent part of the week with her daughter in Central Point.

Miss Fay Carver was one of the successful applicants for a teachers' certificate at the recent examination.

Miss Sophia Short returned Monday from McCloud, Cal., where she has been visiting the past month.

Milo Furry was appointed marshal and water inspector by the city council Monday evening.

A musical entertainment will be given in the W. O. W. hall Tuesday evening the 29th, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Christian Endeavor. Several of Ashland's best musicians and singers have promised to assist.

W. Wilson recently purchased of J. Wilder the Stancliff property on the Pacific Highway at the north end of town.

NOTICE, B. P. O. E.

There will be a regular meeting of the lodge Thursday evening, July 24 All Elks are requested to be present. W. F. QUISENBERRY, Secretary. 106*

WHY?

BECAUSE

We have a bearing pear orchard, one of the best in the valley, must be sold. 10, 20, 30 acres. An income proposition. See me.

J. C. BARNES,

First National Bank Building.

NEW TODAY

An 80-acre homestead, about 20 miles from Medford, but much nearer other towns; all good free soil, and a lot of it good farm land; good large box house, barn, chicken houses and water piped from good spring and arranged with hose for spraying and irrigating; four acres in crop at present; lots of good timber; just what you want and offered very cheap.

Good house on the east side lot 63x300, all kinds of young fruit, and garden stuff; a very good buy at $2000; terms on most of it.

Some splendid offerings for trade. One especially consists of two clear, well built houses in Medford, which the owner will exchange for a farm of about 80 acres, with not too large an incumbrance.

Property in southern California and eastern Oregon to exchange for property here.
