

EMERSON WINS IN HOMESTEAD CONTEST

The commissioner of the general land office has reversed the decision of the Roseburg office in the homestead case of Dr. Emerson of Central Point, whose homestead was contested by the forest rangers, because he left it several months in each year to place his children in school.

AGED HOBBO FORGES AND CASHES CHECK

H. Merrill, alias H. Morgan, an aged hobo, is under arrest on a charge of forgery. He cashed a check for $8 at Henry Lerch's in payment of a pair of shoes, receiving the $6.50 in change, which he had spent by the time the forgery was discovered and he was pinched by Chief Hutson. Merrill forged the name of Mary H. Regar, who owns an orchard near Medford. Three other forged checks for $8 each, similar to that cashed, were found upon him as well as several blank First National Bank checks.
