RAILROADS CLAIM UNDERPAID FOR MAIL

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The railroads maintain that at present they are underpaid by at least $15,000,000 a year. Their complaint is not against the standard of measuring such mail service as is paid for, but that a very large amount of service is demanded for which the Nation makes no payment whatever.

Bingham defeated Lincoln McCormack, Jr., 4-6, 6-0, 6-1, and Malcolm Root defeated A. S. V. Carpenter 6-3, 6-3.

P. W. Hamill won from Reginald Parsons by default, and straining a tendon after one game in his match with H. C. Egan. B. Vilas Beckwith was forced to default.

Stare your victim in the eye thusly, then vibrate the fingers rapidly as I am doing, and no human being can resist. Zowie - you are now going to sleep. $2 please

Rader, an infelder is with the team and eager to get a try with the big fellows. He is only 20 years old but was clouting the ball so hard out in Oregon that a friend of Callahan's recommended the boy and Cal purchased him.

DIXIE MOTHER A HIT AT STAR THEATER

The Star theatre offers for today and tonight a special program, all the photoplays being headliners, featuring "A Dixie Mother," a wonderful story of a mother's devotion which saves her son from a dishonored grave, restores his courage and causes him to die like a hero.

YOUNG GIRL IS BITTEN BY RATTLESNAKE

Showing some of the perfect coolness and composure that distinguished her mother during her trial for attempted murder, fifteen year old Lottie Kneutzen, the daughter of Jacob Kneutzen of Thomason creek was bitten on the right hand by a rattlesnake Tuesday while working the garden, and calmly killing the reptile, she walked to the house where the wound was treated. A doctor was called and when he arrived found her in a serious condition.—her arm having been swollen to the elbow. With quick action he was able to save her life.
