WATER SYSTEM PUTS DOCTORS OUT OF BUSINESS

"Any Medford doctor can tell to a day the day that the Medford water system was turned on," says Dr. Conroy. "Previously, all doctors were kept busy with typhoid and intestinal troubles. Since people have been using the gravity water supply, however, Medford has become one of the healthiest cities in the country, and there is little for the doctors to do. I really believe that in such a healthy climate as this, that if the people would eat properly, they would have the doctors starving to death."

JACKSONVILLE PIONEER PASSES AWAY AT RIDDLE

The Riddle Tribune contains the following regarding the death of a Jacksonville pioneer: D. W. Crosby, of Hotel Riddle, received the sad news last Thursday evening of the death of his mother, Mrs. Margaret Crosby of Walla Walla, and left that night to attend the funeral, which was held in that city. Mrs. Crosby was 85 years of age and was a native of Ireland. She was the widow of the late William Crosby, who resided at Jacksonville in this state many years ago, and who died and was buried there. Besides D. W. Crosby, the deceased is survived by a daughter, Mrs. E. F. Root, of Walla Walla, who with their families are the only near relatives. Mr. Crosby is expected home today.

CALKINS REFUSES TO ENJOIN BRIDGE

The factional bridge fight which has been in progress at Roseburg for several months terminated when Judge Calkins of Medford, handed down a decision yesterday in which he denied the petition for an order restraining the Douglas county court from proceeding with the construction of a span across the Umpqua river at the foot of Oak street. In his decision Judge Calkins held that if the county court was in any way bound to locate the bridge at a specific point, such obligation would rest with the petitioner. The injunction was asked by those opposed to the removal of the bridge from Lane to Oak street.

CITY TREASURER'S NOTICE Notice is hereby given that the City of Medford, Jackson county, Oregon, will take up and cancel the following bonds: No. 1136, dated Sept. 1st, 1911. No. 1008, dated Sept. 1st, 1911. Nos. 1487 and 1488, dated Sept. 1st, 1912. Interest on the above named bonds will cease at the next semi-annual interest paying period, September 1, 1913. GUS H. SAMUELS, City Treasurer. Dated August 1st, 1913.

CRATER LAKE SEASON TO BE RECORD BREAKER

A. L. Parkhurst, manager of the Crater Lake company, left Thursday with a crew of men to work on building the inn. He states that the tourist travel is much heavier than a year ago and that there is every indication that this year will break records in the number of people visiting the lake. Concerning his reported fight with W. F. Arant, shortly after the latter's ejection from the park as superintendent, Mr. Parkhurst said: "The published report was erroneous. I did not attack Arant but he attacked me. He struck me twice before I attempted to defend myself, blackening my eye. Then I took a turn at the punching. He attempted to account for his condition by saying that I used a monkey-wrench on him, but there was no wrench used. I simply defended myself."

KLAMATH BANK WINS DEPOSITS OF COUNTY

SALEM, Ore., Aug. 1.—Declaring that the county depository law should have been observed immediately upon its becoming a law, the supreme court today, Justice McNary writing the opinion, decided in favor of the plaintiff in the suit of the First National Bank of Klamath Falls against the county treasurer of Klamath county. The act fixed the first Monday in June of each year as the day the treasurers of the counties shall designate banks or trust companies as depositories of county funds. However, the legislature did not adjourn until March 2 and the act did not become effective until Tuesday following the first Monday in June.

CHICKEN THIEVES ROB ROOST OF 29 HENS

Mrs. Sharpe of 234 East Ninth street is mourning the loss of her chickens. Some chicken thief on Wednesday night broke into her coop and stole nine full blooded Orpingtons, leaving only two small ones. Twenty other chickens were also stolen. She is much discouraged as she depended upon the sale of eggs to help her make a livelihood. There are no clues to the thief.

ASHLAND HUNTERS OUT AFTER THE DEER

Among hunters from Ashland out after the deer are the following, says the Tidings: Dan Applegate and George Gannery expect to leave about Friday for a hunt south of Ashland in the Red mountain country. Jack Pochler, Carl L. Swenson and Ed Steels left Wednesday morning about 7 o'clock for the Crater Lake country, expecting to camp en route.

and commence hunting at 12:01 a. m. August 1. They will be gone ten days. E. J. Mahan and Robert Casey are reported as among those who will strike out for the happy hunting grounds in time to be ready for the opening of the season. Ben Bowers and E. R. Grieves left Wednesday noon for Hill, Cal., and will turn north from there and hunt in north of the California line. They have no definite stay determined upon, but expect to get the limit before returning. L. D. McKee and C. A. Malone left this morning for Climax, where they will spend a few days in the forest looking for deer.

There is quite a number of people passing through here now going to and from Crater Lake and along the route. Wednesday Mr. Root and wife and another family from Medford came in from the lake, and they report having had a very fine time, and at night Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hoon and G. P. Stiles, wife and son, Carl, stopped here for supper on their way from the natural bridge. They report the road in fine condition. Last night (Wednesday) the ladies of the Baptist church gave an ice cream social and at the same time the medals were presented to the winners in the athletic contest. They were awarded as follows: Gold medal to Miss Carrie Owings and silver medal to Miss Clara Zimmerman, and the gold medal for the men was given to Ralph Owings and the silver one to Rev. L. L. Simmons. They were presented by Mr. Hess. There was no speechmaking. The receipts of the evening from the ice cream, cake and coffee was $16.69. They had a very pleasant time, but not so large a crowd as was expected. The proceeds went to Rev. L. L. Simmons and family.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Henry Town and Thomas Kenny of Lake Creek were out repairing the telephone line between here and Lake Creek last Saturday, spending the night with us. Last Sunday the Eagle Point Sunday school passed a resolution to try to raise funds to purchase a library for the Sunday school, to be named the Cooley Sunday school library, in honor of the late Elmer J. Cooley, as for some time he was superintendent and secretary of the school and devoted a large part of his time to advance the interest of the school. Dr. F. G. Thayer and wife of Medford came out last Sunday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Dorler, who are stopping at the Sunnyside. William von der Hellen and family, who have been spending a few days at Newport, returned to their home Sunday morning. Lost—A gold chain and pendant. Return to Fred L. Heath and receive reward. While on my rounds I learned that ex-Commissioner James Owens and wife expected to start for Idaho this week to visit his brother Calvin and intended to visit the Yellowstone park while gone. F. J. Ayres and wife were in town last Monday and while here were visiting their children, Mr. and Mrs. Miss Martin of Trail and Miss Nora Daley of Medford came out on the car the first of the week, took the stage for Trail, where Miss Nora intends to spend a while roaming the hills. Mr. Bennett and family, who have been living on the Haack place for some time, have moved into the Geo. Garrett place, near Medford. Miss Grace Colby, formerly of Brownsboro, but now of Medford, came down from her former home on
