An important event to take place the second week in September is an indoor fete or carnival to be given by the wives of the Elks of Medford as a means of raising money to be appropriated toward the Elks' building fund. The affair will be handled by the ladies exclusively. Last Tuesday afternoon about thirty-five ladies answered to telephone calls, and met at Hotel Medford to make arrangements and discuss plans. A chairman, recording secretary, financial secretary and chairmen of the different booths and amusements was selected. The carnival will hold forth two days and nights at the Natatorium. It is planned to have all kinds of games and amusements and delicious home-made refreshments, together with a musical program and dancing to the best music in town each evening. Next Tuesday the executive committee will have a luncheon at Hotel Medford, after which there will be further discussions and the plans will be fully decided upon and perfected.

Thursday afternoon Mrs. Glen Fabrick entertained at her home about thirty members of St. Mark's Guild. The ladies are preparing for a needlework sale in the fall, and Thursday each lady was put to work on a dainty boudoir cap, dressing sacque or apron. The entertainment, while scoring greatly to the benefit of the guild, proved most satisfactory socially. During the afternoon dainty and cool refreshments were served.

MEDFORD BABIES IN DEMAND FOR STATE FAIR AT SALEM

That the fame of Medford babies has spread far and wide since the baby show, July 4th, is shown by a letter from O. M. Plummer, the superintendent of the exposition of Eugenics of Portland, to Dr. Stearns. The letter is as follows: Dear Dr. Stearns: I note that you are the chairman of the eugenics committee having charge of the health contest in your city. As superintendent of the eugenics contest at Salem, I am very anxious to secure these fine babies for our state wide contest. Will you, therefore, urge the parents of the several prize winners to send to me for entry blanks? Yours sincerely, O. M. PLUMMER.
