DENY MOTION TO DELAY IN TRIAL OF DIGGS

Judge Van Fleet Overrules Motion for Change of Venue in Cases of Diggs and Caminetti, Accused of Violating the White Slave Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 5.—Flat denial of the defense motion for delay or a change of venue in either the cases of Maury I. Diggs or Drew Caminetti, accused of violation of the white slave law, came here today in the trial of Diggs when United States Judge Van Fleet denied a request to that end by Attorney Woodworth for Diggs, who spoke also for Caminetti.

Judge Van Fleet's decision came just before the noon recess and, while expected, it was no small blow to the Diggs defense. Up to that time the court had heard the excuses of about sixty witnesses who, for one reason or another, did not wish to serve.

MURDER BY GREEK REVEALS SCANDAL

SANTA CRUZ, Cal., Aug. 5.—Charged with the murder of Mrs. Daisy Watt of San Francisco, Nicholas Trakonas, a Greek, who was found bending over the woman and weeping, is held here today without bail. Trakonas, who showed a light bullet wound in the chest, asserts Mrs. Watt first shot him and then committed suicide.

PELKEY MATCHED TO FIGHT MILLER

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Aug. 5.—Articles calling for a twenty-round meeting at Vernon between Arthur Pelkey and Charlie Miller probably will be signed before night. Pelkey has practically agreed to the terms offered by Promoter McCarey and the match is looked upon as virtually settled for an October date.

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 5.—More than 200 guests lost their clothing and jewels worth more than $75,000 when the Blue Mountain house, a summer hotel at Penmar, burned early today. The hotel loss will reach $200,000.

LIND TO PROBE SITUATION IN OLD MEXICO

Former Governor of Minnesota to Be Personal Representative of President in Capital of Distracted Republic and Seek to Bring Peace.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Following the selection of former Governor John Lind of Minnesota to be President Wilson's personal representative in Mexico City, the administration here is confident that peace soon will come in Mexico, it being believed that Lind is the best available man to reconcile the warring factions there.

Lind will endeavor to get influential Mexicans to force Huerta to restore order. He also will investigate the question as to whether raising the embargo on importation of American arms and ammunition would help the situation.

It is rumored here today that the president and John Bassett Moore, commissioner of the state department, disagree on a solution of the Mexican problem. Moore, it is said, sides with Ambassador Wilson and favors recognizing Huerta as president and that he should be held responsible for conditions in Mexico.

RITCHIE LIKELY TO MEET WELSH

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 5.—Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion, this afternoon positively accepted an offer to fight Freddie Welsh, champion of England, twenty rounds in the Brighthouse arena at Vancouver, B. C., on September 1. It is understood Ritchie is guaranteed $15,000 for the bout.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 5.—Unless Willie Ritchie receives a better offer from Billy Gibson of New York, the lightweight champion's next battle will be fought in Vancouver with Freddie Welsh as his opponent on September 1.

While Ritchie did not admit this in so many words, he strongly intimated today that there no longer is any doubt of his acceptance of the Vancouver offer.

MARKET FRISCO BONDS AMONG THE PEOPLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 5.—Turned down by banks and big investors who will not purchase the city's improvement bonds in $1000 blocks and larger, San Francisco's supervisors today are considering the issuance of municipal bonds in $10, $25 and $50 denominations, the bonds to carry five per cent.

FORAKER TELLS OF RELATIONS WITH MULHALL

Ohio Statesman Asserts to Be Much Amused by Assertions of Lobbyist—Confirms Statements of David Lamar Regarding U. P. Litigation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Members of the senate "insidious lobby" committee were busy today sorting additional letters submitted by Martin Mulhall of Baltimore, former self-styled lobbyist.

Former Senator Foraker appeared before the investigators today. He related his acquaintance with Mulhall, but denied he ever had been connected with the N. A. M. He seemed amused throughout his examination.

Foraker called Mulhall "an exceedingly social chap who wrote ardent letters and who really thought himself greater than anybody else did."

Foraker referred contemptuously to Mulhall. He denied that Mulhall ever attended a secret conference of senators at his home in 1909, and also denied that Mulhall ever went to Cincinnati to canvass leading politicians there.
