BLAMES LOBBY FOR INFLUENCING MEXICAN CRISIS

Senator Smith of Michigan Charges in Senate That a Maderista Junta Influenced State Department to Dismiss Ambassador Wilson.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Senator Smith of Michigan in the senate today openly charged that a Maderista junta, headed by Sherburne Hopkins, a local lawyer, had influenced the state department to dismiss Ambassador Wilson. He alleged that this lobby is molding public opinion and is influencing the government in its attitude toward Huerta.

Democrats in the senate generally protested against Smith's statement, and Senator James demanded proof. Smith promised that it would be forthcoming. He said:

"I say that the Maderista junta which invested El Paso in the late war, and who made and unmade Mexican generals, are here now and have the ear of the state department and aided largely in securing the dismissal of Ambassador Wilson." "Will you appear before the lobby committee and make this charge?" asked Senator Overman.

Doesn't Accuse Bryan

"I did not say the secretary of state," said Smith. "I said the state department. The constitutionalist lobby also tried to influence me when they were working on the border eight months ago. I am in possession of information which I intend to give the senate, perhaps on Monday."

Senator Fall said his information was that Hopkins' testimony was taken last winter. He said he did not believe that Hopkins now influences the state department.

Dr. Winchell and party of surveyors who are making a tour of the state in the interest of the Oregon bureau of mines, have been investigating the resources of the county for the past two weeks and reports that the granite found in this valley compares most favorably as a whole, and some of it far surpasses any he has found in the United States for durability and building purposes. Altogether the reports compiled from data gathered by this able corps of engineers for the Oregon bureau of mines will be a valuable piece of information for Jackson county and one that will aid greatly the Commercial club in giving information on the resources of the county.

BUD OFF TO VISIT RELATIVES

Satisfied that the Medford lovers of boxing are still confident in his ability to win the championship of the lightweight division, Bud Anderson and his manager Dick Donald left yesterday for Vancouver, Wash., where Bud will spend some time on a seventeen acre farm, near his home city.

Bud spent a couple of days on the Kershaw ranch hunting and the strenuous work did not affect him in the least, so it is safe to say that Bud will be ready to go 20 rounds with one of the topnotchers Thanksgiving day. As near as can be figured out now, Harlem Tommy Murphy will be Bud's opponent in San Francisco on that date, although Donald has promised Promoter McCarey of Los Angeles that he will give him first chance at Bud's services when he has fully recovered from the appendicitis operation. Thursday evening Bud was initiated into the Medford lodge of Elks.

HOLD HUERTA RESPONSIBLE IF LIND INSULTED

Mexico Informed That Attack on President's Representative Will Be Regarded as Insult to Friendly Nation—Preparations Made for War.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—While the speed of the battleship New Hampshire is slowed down so that John Lind, President Wilson's emissary to Mexico, will not reach Vera Cruz until tonight, Nelson O'Shaughnessy, in charge of the American legation in Mexico City, is actively preparing for Lind's arrival. He has notified General Huerta that his attack on Lind and his mission is an affront to a peaceful sister nation and that Huerta will be held responsible for any personal insult to the president's representative.

Wilson Expects Success Both President Wilson and Secretary Bryan expect that Lind's mission to Mexico will succeed, but senators familiar with the president's plan are skeptical and officialdom here generally believes that war is imminent. Both the army and navy are ready for the expected clash, and experienced officers who are opposed to a war with Mexico admit they fear the worst. A studied attempt has been made to fulfill the president's orders and to prevent even a show of warlike preparation, but orders for troop and ships are all ready for signature.

Administration Criticized Both Bryan and the president are being criticized because of the secretary's actions in the Mexican situation. Republicans and some democrats say the administration is trying to make a patriotic question out of a party matter, and some democrats say the administration has made a mistake by not consulting with Senators Lodge, Root, Borah and other leaders of the republican minority. All these men are completely in the dark. Borah especially is outspoken in his criticism, saying that Secretary Bryan has furnished Huerta with a formidable weapon.

Members of the senate foreign committee secretly considered the situation this morning. The majority of them favor the lifting of the embargo against Mexican importation of arms. The president so far has been able to keep a resolution to this end off the calendar, but each day his task becomes more difficult.

NO APPREHENSION FELT FOR LIND'S SAFETY IN MEXICO

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 9.—No apprehension is felt here for the safety of John Lind, special emissary of President Wilson. The populace of the city have made no threats against Lind and General Huerta says he will do everything possible to safeguard the American representative. He will treat Lind exactly as he would any other American citizen and expects no demonstration.

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 9.—Dispatches received here today say constitutional forces have captured Aguas Calientes after two days of desperate fighting. Rebel forces under five different leaders combined. The losses on both sides were heavy.
