Last Wednesday, August 6th, Chester A. Arthur Relief Corp. No. 34, of Medford, Oregon, entertained a large delegation of the members of other corps of Southern Oregon district, at their local headquarters at Redman's Wigwam, on North Apple street in the city of Medford, and it is needless to say that a most enjoyable time was had by every one who had the good fortune to be present at this gathering.

This is the first meeting of its kind ever held by the local corp and the grand success that it was so felicitated the praise from every visitor present. The ladies of the corp issued invitations to the sister lodges to meet with them on this occasion that they might spend a pleasant day together and become better acquainted with those who are of the other lodges of this district, and the visitors in response to invitation from the local corp, came in crowds from Grants Pass, Central Point and Ashland.

All arrived on the morning trains and more than eighty visitors were greeted by the local reception committee, consisting of Beasie Miller, Rosie Hart and Mercy Hall, at the depot and the entire delegation, headed by Mr. Mohr, proprietor of the Hotel Medford, marched to the hotel where they were entertained for a time. All of the company were taken by elevator to the top of Hotel Medford, and for some time enjoyed the magnificent view to be obtained from this place of the city of Medford, and a large surrounding portion of the Rogue river valley.

After this all repaired to the Redman Wigwam, where the refreshment committee consisting of Mrs. Elizabeth Kahler, Maggie Noble, Leonie Hull, Frances Metz and Edith Bradbury, had awaiting them one of the finest banquet dinners, that was ever served in the city of Medford, and to which the visitors and members of the local corp and W. R. C. did ample justice and the dinner is one that will long be remembered in connection with this entertainment.

The guests before and after dinner were royally entertained by the committee having this part in charge were Mrs. Viola Alder, chairman, Ellen Sullivan, Mary Rosebury and Ida May Norris. There was music furnished by local talent and after the sumptuous dinner a short address was made by Attorney H. A. Canaday, of Medford, who spoke along the line of patriotism for the coming generations, and that by the example of the men who had risked their all and life itself to save this nation of ours, that there resented upon the present and coming generations the responsibility of preserving and keep of that nation which has been handed down to us, by those who saved it in the time of peril.

After the address a meeting of the corp was held and the closing of this meeting concluded the day's entertainment. At this meeting several of the visiting ladies gave short talks and the meeting was closed with the flag salute.

At this gathering were present ladies of the great organization of the Women's Relief Corp. of our country, and many of those present on this occasion, have personal memories of the days of the sixties, when the war cloud was casting its black shadows over our land, and while many of them, and most of them now have the crowns of white upon their heads, and their step, as well as that of the old soldiers is becoming feeble, yet there is within them today as great and strong a patriotism, as there was in the days of the rebellion, and it can be truly said again, that the hand that rocks the cradle rules the world.

The ladies of the local corp wish to thank all those who took part on this occasion and assisted in making the meeting a success.

A buffet supper will be given by the ladies of the Golf and Country club this evening to raise funds for needed improvements at the club. The finals of the tennis tournament will be played this afternoon and a bridge tournament will be on.

One of the most beautiful "Show-or Parties" of the season was that given by Miss Helen Dahl on Thursday afternoon of this week for Miss Geraldine Mikache, a September bride. The rooms were beautifully decorated, pink and white being the color scheme. The living room in pink and white sweet peas, trumpet vines and fir boughs and the dining room in vines, ferns and pink roses, a large cut glass bowl filled with American Beauty roses formed the center piece on the dining table where an elaborate three course luncheon was served at 4:30 o'clock.

The place cards were hand tinted photos of the bride and the initial of the future happy couple was carried out in green on the center piece. The guest of honor's chair was decorated with pink sweet peas, vines and pink tulie. Immediately after luncheon Miss Mikache was taken by surprise by little Lauri Neil York looking like a little fairy all in white pushing her doll buggy all intertwined with vines and white roses up to her chair loaded with many beautiful and dainty handmade gifts from her many friends.

The invited guests were: The Misses Dora and Irene Sullivan, Inez and Iva Coffin, Bertha Welch, Ione Flynn, Lorraine Bliton, Geraldine Mikache, Jeannette Butler, Lois Estes, Agnes Isaacs, Elizabeth Kelleher, Ina Cochran, Maude Newbury, Opal Dally, Bertha Brandenburg, Mrs. Ernest McKee, Mrs. Allison Jordan.

The finals in the mixed doubles and men's doubles will be played at the Country club this afternoon and the two weeks tourney will close with a buffet supper and bridge tournament tonight the proceeds of which will go toward building an addition to the club house.

Grandma Talks About Babies

Has a large Circle of Listeners Who Profit by Her Wisdom and Experience.

In almost any settled community there's a grandma who knows Mother's Friend. Not only is she reminiscent of her own experience, but it was through her recommendation that so many young, expectant mothers derived the comfort and blessing of this famous remedy.

Mother's Friend is applied externally to the abdomen, stomach and breasts, always all pain, avoids all nausea, and prevents caking of the breasts. It is quickly and wonderfully penetrating, permits the muscles to expand without the strain on the ligaments, and prepares the system so thoroughly that the crisis is passed almost without the slightest distress. Thus there need be no such thing as dread or fear.

No better nor more cheering advice can be given the expectant mother than to suggest the use of Mother's Friend. She will take courage from the beginning. The days will be cheerful, the nights restful. Thus the health is preserved, the mind is in repose and the period is an unending one of quiet, joyful anticipation.

You can obtain Mother's Friend of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle. Do not forget nor neglect to be supplied with this greatest remedy ever devised for motherhood. It is unobtainable. Write at once to Bradford-Rogers Co., 137 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their very interesting and instructive book of advice for expectant mothers.

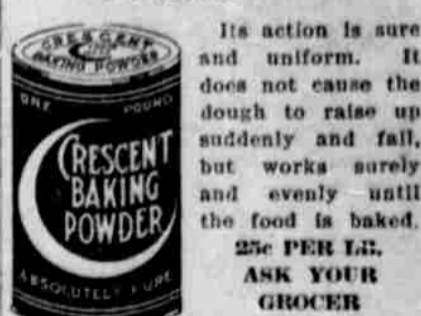

Mr. Frank Ray and Mr. Horace Bromley have returned from an outing at Colestin.
