

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. Stephenson of Ashland is the guest of Mrs. M. Bellinger and Mrs. A. Sliver.

Oris Crawford of the First National Bank spent Saturday at Gold Hill with relatives.

William Wetherell, agent of the Southern Pacific at Rogue River, spent Friday in Medford with friends.

John D. Isaacs, chief engineer and P. L. Burkhalter, resident engineer of the Southern Pacific company passed north in their private car from Sacramento this morning.

Broods—Ask your dealer for the product of the Ashland factory.

Many Medford families in camp at Colestin will give picnic dinners to Medford friends who will go to that resort on the special excursion tomorrow. Brass band and orchestra accompanies the excursion.

Eleven cars of pears moved north early this morning and five earlier in the evening. Something over fifty cars have already moved. The S. P. has ample supply of cars on hand.

Judge Prim was over from Jacksonville Friday evening.

Producers Fruit Co. was just received a large shipment of 1 lb. and 1/2 lb. tin top berry baskets, and can fill orders in any quantity. We also have on hand a large supply of the celebrated "Security" orchard ladders in all sizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dysert are in Medford, making their son a visit. Mr. Dysert is a pioneer spinner of Josephine county.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Evans of Seattle, who are visiting relatives at Grants Pass, were in Medford and Ashland Friday.

Drs. A. R. and Louise E. Hodges, chiropractors and mechano-therapists are now located over Deuel & Co. Phone 170.

Mrs. Richard Bland of Grants Pass spent Friday in Medford and Jacksonville.

Mr. Harris of Seven Oaks was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Marquis of North Riverside Friday.

Misses Ennice Munson and Mary Moore are at Shasta Springs on a brief outing.

E. A. Hildreth, secretary treasurer of the Jackson county Fire Patrol association, spent Friday in Medford.

W. E. Crews the attorney, and his wife have returned from an auto trip to Klamath county, going by way of Crater Lake and returning by way of Klamath hot springs.

Kodak finishing, best in town, at Weston's.

Professor Sherwood and E. B. Hanley spent a few hours in Medford Friday afternoon.

M. K. Pursel of Applegate was of the many business visitors in Medford during the week.

W. S. Allen of Dorris, Cal., and J. P. Wilbur of Stayton, Marion county, arrived in Medford Friday.

Ed Stratton was down from Central Point one day this week, accompanied by Mr. Smith, a brother-in-law.

Crater Lake pictures a book of 12 pictures, hand colored, the finest ever made of the lake, for sale at Gerking & Harmon's studio. Call and see them. 228 East Main street, phone 320-J.

W. J. Stanley of Rogue River and Scott Bailey of Grants Pass were in Medford Friday.

Dillon Hill, the well known horticulturist, and his family were in Medford Friday.

Mrs. E. E. Gillie and her daughter, Hazel, are recent arrivals in Medford from San Francisco.

H. P. Pohland, an Ashland baker, transacted business in Medford Friday afternoon.

E. D. Weston, commercial photographer, negatives made any time or place by appointment. Phone M. 1471.

J. W. Ling, manager of the Woodmen of the World for this district, went to Grants Pass Friday to meet with the Grants Pass camp.

Fruit tree props Medford Lbr. Co. Misses Amanda Helms and Mary Wetterer of Jacksonville visited in Medford Friday.

Mr. Forren of Gold Hill transacted business in Medford Friday afternoon.

N. Berg and M. Hanson of Eureka, Cal., and R. E. Neal of Roseburg are late arrivals in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barnum of Jacksonville tarried a short time in Medford Friday.

Charles Owens of Pleasant Creek was in Medford and Jacksonville Friday.

Charles Isaacs of Big Sticky was of the many who came to Medford Friday on business.

Mrs. Wilke and Mrs. F. Downing, who have been making an extended trip to Pennsylvania and other states are at home again.

C. H. Pierce and his family, who have been camping at Dead Indian Spring for several weeks, returned Thursday.

The finest studio in southern Oregon has been opened by Gerking & Harmon at 228 East Main street, first stairway east of Star theater. Our work is always the best, views of all kinds for sale. The best of Kodak finishing. Negatives made any time or place. Phone 320-J. If

Miss Mary Stancliff of Phoenix was among her Medford friends Friday.

Lane Wyland of Antelope visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wyland, Friday.

Mrs. Worcester, who has been visiting her brother, E. D. Ross and her sister, Mrs. G. N. Smith, of Yankee creek, left for her home at Topeka, Kan., Friday.

Screen doors Medford Lbr. Co.

H. T. Findley, Robert Wilson and D. E. Glidden of Central Point district were recent business visitors in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McIntosh of Lovelock, Nev., who have been visiting the latter's father, Mr. C. C. McClelland of Gold Hill, left for their home by automobile Saturday.

S. S. Smith and his daughter Irene, have joined the balance of the family, who are camping at Colestin.

Supreme Judge and Mrs. C. L. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Boise, Mrs. E. Breymann, W. Stolz and Breymann Boise, compose a party of Salem people who tarried in Medford Friday night. They are a trip to Crater Lake.

George A. Mansfield is down from his ranch on upper Rogue River. His health is much improved.

F. M. Lupton has given up his real estate business and is conducting what has been known as Ireland's smoke house.

William Hart Hamilton, who returned from Crescent City during the week, has since returned to San Jose, Cal., his present home.

A large pelican was caught by Leonard Holbrook while fishing in Rogue river Friday. He was casting his line just as three pelicans flew by and he threw it about one of them brought it down and captured it. The bird is now in Medford.

Lynn Taylor left for Siskiyou county, Cal., where he and his brother will bale about 1500 tons of hay with their gasoline baling machine. Peter Foster accompanied him.

Game wardens and fruit inspectors were numerous in Medford Friday afternoon. S. T. Sandry, A. S. Hubbard, J. W. Myers, Clyde Barnum and J. C. Atkin were among them.

Mrs. M. M. Jennings of Goldfield, Nevada, and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ellis of Sacramento are among the recent arrivals in Medford.

Judge Calkins has decided the case of Wiley Turnbough vs. Luke Ryan, involving the sale of 160 acres of land in Sterling district by the latter to the former, in favor of the plaintiff. An appeal to the supreme court will probably be taken.

A large delegation of Medford Odd Fellows and Rebekahs met with members of Central Point lodges Friday night and conferred the first degree on several candidates. A banquet followed the business meeting.

Charles Walker of Klamath county, who was sentenced to imprisonment from three to twenty years in the Oregon penitentiary by Judge Benson for a statutory crime committed upon his sister-in-law, aged 15 years, has taken steps to appeal to the supreme court.

The entire Seventh company of coast artillery, which consists of sixty-eight men and three officers, will leave for Fort Stevens Wednesday, to participate in maneuvers that will take place there August 21 to September 1.

R. F. Mulkey returned from Denver Friday, where he has been attending the head camp of the Woodmen of the World. He returned via Portland and underwent a successful operation while at the metropolis.

The entomological stations heretofore maintained at Ashland and Placerville, Cal., have been consolidated, with headquarters at the former place, and will hereafter be known as the Pacific Field Station of the board of entomology, department of agriculture.

Mrs. Ed Andrews, vocal teacher at the Medford Conservatory, is taking a two week's vacation. She is camping with her daughter, Caroline at Colestin Springs.

Mr. Tallandier, the organist of the Catholic church, accompanied by several of the choir members, went to Jacksonville Thursday morning to play for the Requiem Mass at the Jacksonville church. The party went in Miss Elizabeth Kellehor's automobile.

Rolled barley, bran, shorts, flour and hay at the new feed store, 397 South Front street, near corner Front and Eleventh. Lowest prices for cash. Will deliver to any part of city. Order by phone. Phone 1053-J. L. G. Watkins & Co.

NAMED FOR PLACE IN TREASURY DEPARTMENT

Charles S. Hanlin, a well-known man of Boston, is a candidate for the position of assistant secretary of the treasury.

Mrs. R. H. Jones, "Booth 3" public market presented the editorial and mechanical departments of the Mail Tribune with a large home grown water melon Saturday, which was highly enjoyed by all hands and the office devil.

Evangelistic services, which have been held every evening in the tent at the corner of North Central and Jackson streets for some time, are being continued by William Corcoran, Miss Corcoran, Miss Howard and others. Evangelist Elliott is holding forth at Sixth and North Oakdale and had "From Barroom to Pulpit" as his subject Friday night.

"Insurance your best asset." Have the best. Place your insurance with Holmes, the Insurance Man, right if he writes it.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.
By A. C. Howlett.

William Knighton and wife, who have been up on Trail visiting their relatives, returned last Monday.

John W. Smith has been engaged putting up a stone fence for A. J. Daley, in front of one of his lots greatly improving its appearance. The fence is built of small cobblestones and cement.

J. F. Hutcheson, who has a home-stead on the county road between here and the free ferry, spent the night here Tuesday.

Miss Inez Willis of Persist came out with her brother, Roy, on his stage Tuesday and was initiated into the Rebekah lodge here, also the wife of our night watchman, James Gillispy, on the P. & E. was also initiated the same night. They have a very flourishing lodge here of about sixty members, and occasionally have a big feed in connection with their meetings, and when they do they report having had a royal time, for all of the young lady members are good cooks.

Last Tuesday afternoon Rev. D. D. Doyle and his brother, Walter E. Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Piche, one of the second-hand merchants of Medford, and family, and Miss Viola Piester, one of the teachers in the Washington school, passed through here on their way to Crater Lake with a two-horse team, bent on having a good time.

W. C. Daley of Lake Creek was in our town on business Wednesday.

Henry French and Perry Foster were in town Wednesday. They report that there is a large number of campers all along the river from the French-Dodge bridge up, and that they are catching a fine lot of fish and having a good time generally.

Mr. Mannus and Cal Pence of Elk creek came out from Medford, where they had been to see the show Wednesday, to our place Thursday, and after dinner went on up home.

HOUSE OF COMFORT
HOTEL MANX
POWELL ST. & FARRELL
SAN FRANCISCO

Best located and most popular hotel in the City. Running distilled ice water in each room. European Plan, a la Carte Cafe.

Tariff on Rooms

12 rooms	1.00 each
50 rooms	1.50 each
50 rooms with privy bath	2.00 each
50 rooms with privy bath	2.50 each
30 suites, bedroom, parlor and bath	3.00 each

For more than one guest add $1.00 extra to the above rates for each additional guest.
Reduction by week or month.
Management Chester W. Kelly
MEET ME AT THE MANX

Mr. Meyers, W. F. Backus, Mr. and Mrs. Bowman of Portland have been camped at Henty French's for the past few days fishing and having a good time generally. They took the 2:25 train Wednesday for their homes in Portland.

George Givan was in town for sacks preparing for threshing his grain.

Tim Dugan and Charles Pruitt are doing the threshing for their neighborhood.

Will try to tell about the Sunday school picnic next time.

George von der Helten and W. C. Clements, who have been out in the hills on the headwaters of Elk creek taking a hunt, returned last Saturday. George reports that they killed meat enough for camp use, but did not go as much for a hunt as for a good time in the high hills, and that they surely did have a good time.

Mr. Gorman and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Quackebushner, and son were in town Wednesday trading with our merchants.

W. H. Frelon, one of the conductors on the Southern Pacific, and Fred L. Dodge of Ashland, a brakeman on the Southern Pacific, and Professor P. H. Daily of Medford, who have been out in the hills on a hunt for the last week or more, came in Thursday, stopped at the Sunnyside for dinner and when I asked what luck they had, reported that the company, four all together, killed nine deer, but reported them very scarce and hard to kill, and Mr. Frelon said that he had got tired of deer meat and wanted a change.

J. T. Sullivan, the manager of the R. V. C. Co., and Reginald, and another gentleman stopped here for dinner Thursday and left some copies of the list of premiums for the coming county fair on September 9 to 13.

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN OREGON HAS ADDED A Preparatory Course

To enable those who have not completed their public and high school courses, a chance to prepare for the regular university courses, and also to help those who are preparing for the county and state teachers certificates.

The subjects that will be included in this course are as follows: Arithmetic, algebra, geometry, Latin, grammar, physiology, history, etc.

Tuition for above course for nine months $25.

If you are interested call up the president, Dr. R. W. MacCullough.

Prospectus ready in a few days. Registering days on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, 8 to 12 p. m.

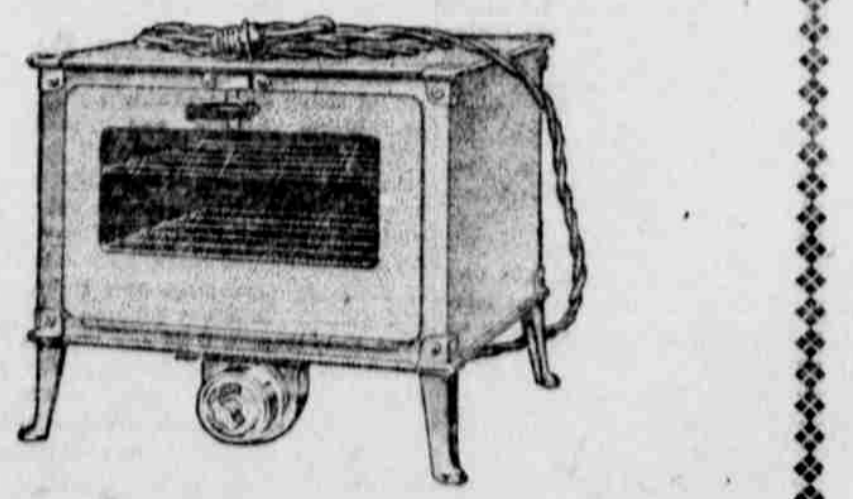

W. E. PRICE, President.

ELECTRIC Cooking Is True Economy

NO FLAME, NO SMOKE, NO GAS, NO ODOR, LITTLE HEAT, NO WOOD TO BRING IN, OR ASHES TO CARRY OUT, NO MATCHES NEEDED, READY AT A TURN OF THE SWITCH.

ELECTRIC RANGE, price $60.00 cash, $65.00 on installments. This range has new type broiler in top of oven, the best broiling device up to date for any style stove. Will bake, roast, broil or fry; is better, cleaner, safer than any other cooking appliance. Ask your neighbor who uses one. Flat rate for family use, $5.00 per month.

EL BACO OVEN, price $12.00, will roast a chicken or bake two loaves of bread. Can be connected on any lamp socket. No special wiring required. Costs 5 cents per hour or less to operate, depending on quantity of current used.

SAMPLES ON DISPLAY AT OUR OFFICE

California-Oregon Power Company
216 WEST MAIN STREET. PHONE 1681.

Weeks & McGowan Co.
UNDERTAKERS
LADY ASSISTANTS
Day Phone 227
Night F. W. Weeks 193-J-2
A. E. Orr 978-M

The Best Food-Drink Lunch at Fountains

Horlick's Malted Milk

Insist Upon ORIGINAL GENUINE HORLICK'S

Avoid Imitations—Take No Substitute

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form. For infants, invalids and growing children. Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged.

More healthful than tea or coffee. Agrees with the weakest digestion. Keep it on your side-board at home. A quick lunch prepared in a minute.

PORTLAND
Portland's Famous Hotel,
Noted for the Excellence of its Cuisine. European plan

Situated in the Hub of the Principal Theater and Shopping District. Recently Redecorated and Refurnished Throughout, and Better Equipped Today than Ever Before.

European Plan
Rooms without bath, $1.00 per day and up
Rooms with bath, $2.00 per day and up

N. K. CLARKE, Asst. Mgr. G. J. KAUFMANN, Manager.

If rough strong whiskey burns your mouth, gags you when you swallow it what will it do to the delicate lining of your stomach

Cyrus Noble—mild and pure

W. J. Van Schuyver & Co., General Agents
Portland, Oregon