Miss Pigelow of Washington, D. pointed. C., was unable to fill her appointment to lecture here on Wednesday evening as announced but gave her beture Wednesday morning instead. The county W. C. T. U. convention 1913. adjourned for an hour and attended the lecture in a body.

Mrs. Brooks is slowly recovering from her recent illness.

Mr. Howman of Kanson who will take possession September 1st.

W. V. Barmin left a few days age for an extended trip through the east. While absent he will visit friends and relatives in Pennsyl vania and will also visit eastern cities to investigate the conditions of the principal eastern fruit markets.

The county W. C. T. U. convention was field here Wednesday. Large delegations were present from Medford, Ashland and Eagle Point. The convention was well aftended. The work of the convention being crowded into one day, was of a necessity largely excentive, yet considerable time was found to discuss the departmental work of the organization. The keynote of the convention was "Oregon Dry in 1914." Eagle Point the date thereof. secured the convention for next year. It will be a two days' convention both made to engage speakers of state and sational reputation to be in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McCreary and son of Beloit, Wis., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs H. Schurman last week. Mr. Beloit is fouring the United States in the interests of the Beloit Union Iron Works.
