SPOKANE GIRL DRUGGED BY WHITE SLAVERS

SPOKANE, Wash., Aug. 27.—Drugged and held prisoner for ten days presumably by white slavers, during which time she was subjected to terrible indignities, was the experience of a sixteen-year-old girl named Helm, being treated today at the Sacred Heart hospital for morphine poisoning and injuries she suffered at the hands of her assailants.

The girl was found wandering on the streets here by a younger sister. She states that while returning from a visit to her mother, who is ill in a hospital here, she was overtaken by an elderly man in an automobile who induced her to enter the car with the assertion that he would take her to her home some distance in the country.

After being given a piece of candy, she declares she became unconscious and knew nothing until she recovered her senses in the hospital.

SOLD FAMILY SUGAR TO SEE THE MOVIES

TACOMA, Wash., Aug. 27.—Incensed at being accused by her husband of selling the pantry's store of sugar to provide herself with money to see the "movies," Hulda Forsloh has today filed suit for divorce.

Mrs. Forsloh indignantly denies any surreptitious raid on the supply of household sweets, but husband John remains skeptical. He says the coincidence of an empty sugar bin and Hulda's presence at the picture plays furnished convincing evidence. John confesses to being liberal with his money, but says he didn't give his wife the "price" for show tickets.

BUTTE FALLS

Miss Agnes Allen of Derby, who has been staying with the Netherland children has returned home to prepare for school.

Miss Clara Caster of Derby spent a few days last week visiting friends and relatives here.

Saturday Etta Stewart, Mrs. Cross, and sons Wm. and Arnie, Jim Finley and Elmer Hauff walked down to the Abbott farm which is about six miles from here. They had a splendid time while there and returned Monday with Miss Hilda Abbott.

Dr. Buchanan and family left for Eagle Point Thursday. He is principal of the school there for the coming winter but intends returning here for the holidays in December, which will enable the people of this place to get their teeth in good order again.

Miss Etta Stewart is keeping house at Frank Netherlands, with the help of Grandma Parker, while Mrs. Netherland is in the hospital at Ashland.

Bert Weiner of Medford and Eagle Point spent part of Sunday at C. H. Peeler's.

Mrs. Stewart, who has been confined to the house for the past week with a nail in her foot, was able to be out to church Sunday.

A large crowd came upon the excursion Sunday, among whom was the Medford band. We enjoyed the music as much as the Medford people did the cool air and mountain water and we hope they will come back again in the near future.

Many loads of pears are being hauled to the packing houses in Central Point and Medford from this district.

Mrs. L. M. Foss left Sunday on No. 14 for Bend, Oregon. Mr. Foss met Mrs. Foss and children at Portland, thence to Bend where they will make their home for some length of time. Mrs. Bertha Stone, a niece of D. W. Stone, accompanied Mrs. Foss to Portland.

The regular graze meeting was held Saturday evening at the school house. Two candidates were given the obligation and after the business meeting a reception was held in honor of the new members. At the close of the evening delicate refreshments were served.

G. A. Gardner of Jacksonville visited in this district last Saturday.
