GRIFFIN NAMED

VANCOUVER, B. C., Aug. 20. The unusual spectacle of two man agers being perfectly satisfied that they both have won the preliminary skirmishes in a world's championship match is being witnessed here. Harry Pollok, manager of Freddie Welsh. pilot of Willie Ritchie, world's champion, both believe they have exceeded the usual managerial limit in selecting the referee for the world's this battle being scheduled to take place in Vancouver on the afternoon of Saturday, September 20.

Ritchie came to Vancouver declarthe bout. His first choice was Eddie onable cost. Welsh took the stand d a battle nine venrs no in which Grancy officiated, and is the alleged short end of a decision chanky Denverite down the pugilistic ladder. Pollok deadlocked the match when Graney was forced upon him.

Ritchie precipitated another deadlock when the matter of a Californian came up. He refused to risk his title unless a man from his native state decided the issue.

Then the name of Jim Griffin o San Francisco was suggested. Pollok wired his intimate friend, Jimmy Coffroth, the San Francisco promoter, asking advice. Coffroth wired back endorsing Griffin as the one man who could be absolutely depended upon, and Pollok accepted him on the spot, thus getting away from Graney, but allowing Ritchic to win on the point that a Californian would referee.

Final articles were signed within an hour and now the battle is certainty.

THE TOURIST A DEVELOPER

SOUTHERN OREGON and Southern California have a great deal in common. Where comparison of natural conditions is made, the result is in favor of Oregon. There To the Editor: is greater rainfall, less aridity and a greater timber and I noticed an article in your paper tearing down the chinese wall and mineral wealth. Manufacture is still in its infancy—but it owes its in ception also to the tourist, who furnishes both the capital and the labor. So we find the tourist the mainspring of Southern California and its most valuable crop. The tourist movement supplies the capital, the enterprise and leaves the population.

Southern Oregon's climate is equal to that of many portions of Southern California, is better the year around. Its scenery is more picturesque. Its natural resources far superior. Its orchards a safer investment. By good roads and advertising the tourist can be made the main support of this section, as he is of Southern California. The development of mines and timber and manufacture will follow his advent as it has followed it in California.

The way to secure the tourist is to build good roads, performing a great service by catch- out considering the good they do then advertise them, and the tourist will do the rest. The way to secure the good roads is to vote for the road bonds on September 9. That is the surest way to secure the enterprise and capital needed to commercialize our natural porch for a few minutes. It buzzes a white-faced hornet drop to the resources.
