WOLGAST TWO TO ONE FAVORITE

OAKLAND, Cal., Aug. 30.—Unless Joe Azevedo's friends come to the front with a rush, former Champion Ad Wolgast will enter the ring here Monday afternoon a two to one favorite over the Sacramento lad in their scheduled ten round bout. The boys who are betting on Azevedo figure that the Sacramento man is coming while Wolgast is on the toboggan. Azevedo already is down to weight and has eased up in his training. He figures that he is a better boxer than the former champion, is just as hard a hitter and is just as strong. Wolgast says he is well satisfied with his condition, but he put in a full day's work today. Azevedo and Wolgast will climb into the ring about 8 o'clock.
