SEATTLE JUDGE AFRAID OF WOMEN

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 5.—Superior Judge John E. Humphries announced today that he would beware of women. An alleged plot was discovered several days ago to blow up the city jail in the basement of the county courthouse. Judge Humphries stated today that it had been discovered that he was to have been enticed to the jail, so that he too would be destroyed.

"Their plan," said the judge today, "was for a woman to come to my courtroom, persuade me, on some pretext, to accompany her downstairs to the jail, and then the nitroglycerine would do the rest.

"But they won't get me. I'm wary. Any woman who speaks to me in my courtroom on any subject will hereafter be looked on with grave suspicion. I'm not taking any chances with fate."

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

W. H. Crandall and his brother Bert, recently from Los Angeles, were doing business in our town Tuesday. Bert Crandall is here visiting his brother W. H. and his sisters, Miss Crandall and Mrs. Harris.

Ed Foster and family, who have a farm on the north side of Rogue river above the long steel bridge, (that is what I heard one of the autoists call it this Wednesday morning) were in town trading Tuesday. Henry French, who has a fine farm and orchard near the long steel bridge, (it is about three hundred feet long, containing the approaches), was in our town the same day.

Robert R. Minter, our boss sheepman, was in town the same day with three of his daughters and Miss Samantha remained with Miss Rose Ayers at the Sunnyside up to the present writing.

We thought that the work on the streets had commenced in earnest Tuesday as they had three teams hauling crushed rock but the dynamo got cranky this morning and mayor, Hon. Wm. Von der Hellen, seemed to think this afternoon that it will soon be righted and work will be resumed.

There were nine autos passed through our town this Wednesday morning with a lot of scientific visitors on their way to Crater Lake. They were a fine looking group of men and women. They were accompanied by Shorty Garnett and Prof. P. J. O'Gara.

Died, September 2, at the residence on the Cincade farm, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cincade. Further mention will be made later.

Miss Aletha Emerick of Medford came out Wednesday morning and spent a part of the day visiting Miss Frances Heath. We regret to announce that Miss Frances expects to start for Eugene to attend the state university about the tenth of this month, as she has completed her high school course in Medford.

F. J. Ayers, one of our progressive farmers, was in town on Wednesday.

TABLE ROCK

Miss Gladys Miller of Evans creek began an eight months' term of school at Table Rock last Monday.

John Nealon is teaching at the central district.

Miss Eva Hall is teaching at the Meadows.

Miss Rose Nealon will teach at the Reese creek district.

Ed Vincent and party returned Sunday from a trip to Crater Lake and Klamath Falls.

J. G. Van Horn, Frank Riddle, Voss Thompson and Verne Pendleton are in the mountains west of Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Potts, Emmett Nealon, Miss Rose and Miss Marie Nealson and Miss Ruth Hall are at Crater Lake.

Mr. Caton of Antioch has moved onto the Ray place.

The ice cream social given by the Arrow Head people on Saturday night, was fairly well attended and would have been more of a success financially if the dishes had not been over-filled.

James Reese, Stanley Lydiard and the two Myers boys are in the hills looking for big game.

Rev. Alvin Schwimley of Ashland will hold services at Table Rock next Sunday evening, September 7th. A number of singers from Ashland will be present and the chief features will be a song service.

Mr. Corlies will leave Table Rock in a few days and return to Medford. We are sorry to lose so estimable a family but we wish them success where they go.

With Medford trade is Medford made.

"SEYMORE" SKIRT BRINGS DIVORCE

SAN JOSE, Cal., Sept. 5.—Diaphanous skirts have jarred the home life of Mrs. Bertha S. Hanscom, 30 years old and pretty, and her millionaire husband, James D. Hanscom, aged sixty years. As a result Mrs. Hanscom today has filed suit for absolute divorce.

"My husband is an old fossil," said Mrs. Hanscom. "I'm built for the x-ray skirts, and I'm going to wear 'em. He don't like them, but I don't care. Wait until I get my divorce, and I'll make his eyes pop."

Hanscom admitted he thought the new skirts were "perfectly scandalous."

"Bertha not only wore diaphonous skirts," he said, "but slit ones at that. Can you beat it? I hope not."

JACKSON COUNTY ASSESSED $37,480,439

Figures compiled by County Assessor W. T. Grieve, and completed Friday, placed the assessed valuation of Jackson county property outside of corporation holdings principally railroad and timber) at approximately $32,850,000. This is lower than 1912, owing to the exemption of household goods, which total in round numbers $600,000.

The corporation valuations last year were placed by the state tax commission at $4,620,439, making the total valuation close to $37,480,439. The tax commission meets the last week of October. The county board of equalization meets Monday.

TATSUMI RETURNS AS MAGNETIC HEALER

S. A. E. Tatsumi, formerly a well known character in Medford and the pioneer Jap here, has returned from a two years visit in his native land. He has deserted his old occupation, that of janitor and employment agent for his countrymen, and returns in the capacity of a magnetic healer. He claims that all he has to do is to touch the afflicted and all pains vanish as if by magic. Chronic rheumatism and all kinds of acute muscular or nervous pains, he says, disappear at the magic touch of Tatsumi.

DIED.

Nicholas Cook, pioneer of Jackson county, died Monday morning at eight o'clock at his home on B street in Ashland, aged seventy-nine years, five months and sixteen days. Deceased was a native of County Limerick, Ireland, and came to Oregon in 1853, going into the merchandise business at Wilow Springs. He was married September sixteenth, 1876, to Ann McNamar of Philadelphia, who survives him. High mass was solemnized Wednesday morning at eight o'clock at the Catholic church in Ashland with Father Moisant as celebrant, Father Caron, deacon, Schneiderhand of Medford, subdeacon. Interment was in Jacksonville cemetery. The pallbearers were F. G. Allard, Joseph Sander, William Sander, Henry Provost, Robert Quinn and Michael McGrath.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the city council of the city of Medford, Oregon, at its next regular meeting, September 16th, 1913, for a license to sell malt, vinous and spiritous liquors at his place of business, No. 13 South Front street, Medford, Oregon, for a period of six months.

Dated Sept. 5th, 1913.

WHY?

If there is a bargain in Real Estate in any district the real estate man there who has been a live agent knows of it. If he knows values and is experienced in the business he can save his customers time and money.

To know the best buy and have it optional at the bottom price is my stock in trade. Satisfied customers is my paid-up business policy. What have you to exchange? Watch my bulletin board in front of the First National bank and see me

EAGLE POINT HEARS ROAD BOND TALK

A large audience heard speeches made at Eagle Point Thursday evening in behalf of the road bond issue by Messrs. P. J. Neff, B. F. Mulkey and W. M. Colvig. The frequent applause given the speakers showed the sympathy of the audience with the topic.

Wednesday night a well attended meeting at the court house, Jacksonville, was addressed by Gus Newbury and W. H. Gore. Friday afternoon, Porter J. Neff, Judge Colvig and Commissioners Con Leever and Joe Smith addressed a meeting at Rogue River, where the local fair is being held. Tonight W. H. Gore speaks at Griffin creek.

Saturday evening a good road meeting will be held at Central Point and Monday evening at Ruch, where Gus Newbury will be the main speaker.

Shenandoah at Isis Theater.

Bronson Howard's famous Civil war drama, "Shenandoah," has thrilled two generations of theatergoers. It is with no little pleasure that Isis Theater announces that "Shenandoah" will be presented on Friday and Saturday a a magnificent photoplay in three parts. It required more than a year for the Kalem company to produce this stupendous subject, as nearly every scene was made in the authentic locations. Thus when Generally Sheridan makes his famous ride to rally the panic-stricken troops the spectator will see the backgrounds of Winchester, Va., which were visited by the Kalem producers and players. The bombardment of Fort Sumter was produced at Charleston, S. C., through special arrangements and one thousand soldiers take part in the battle scenes. One of the most striking effects—and one never before accomplished in motion pictures—is a battle at midnight. The belching cannon illumine the sky and the soldiers are only seen by the flashes of their muskets.

NOTICE OF MEETING OF BOARD OF EQUILIZATION.

Notice is hereby given, that on the second Monday, of September, 1913, the (8th day) the board of equilization will attend, at the court house, in Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon, and publicly examine the assessment rolls, and correct all errors in valuation, descriptions or qualities of lands, lots or other property assessed by such assessor; and it shall be the duty of persons interested to appear at the time and place appointed.

(Signed)

W. T. GRIEVE,

Assessor of Jackson County, Oregon.

Dated this 16th day of August, 1913.

Lupus Worst Form of Skin Diseases

Here is a Home Treatment that Overcomes even Worst Cases.

Blood Disorders are Banished by S. S. S.

A tiny pimple spreads to the side of the face and often covers the cheeks and bridge of the nose. It is very destructive to the glands of the skin. No external treatments will overcome it, as the cause of lupus is from impurities in the blood supply. The only known method of cure is to get the blood supply under the control of S. S. S., the famous blood specific. Its action is quite remarkable and has direct influence upon the network of small blood vessels and glands in the skin.

From the fact that S. S. S. is purely a botanical preparation, it is accepted by the weakest stomach and has great tonic influence in all the digestive organs. It is certainly a wonderful blood medicine, and is prepared direct from native materials gathered by the agents of the famous Swift Laboratory. Not one drop of minerals or drugs is used in its preparation. Ask for S. S. S. and insist upon having it. And if you desire skillful advice and counsel upon any matter concerning the blood and skin, write to the Medical Department, The Swift Specific Co., 183 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. Do not allow some zealous clerk to larrup the atmosphere in eloquence over something "just as good" as S. S. S. Beware of all substitutes. S. S. S. is what you need.
