

WOLGAST STATES FIGHTING DAYS OVER OFF FOR CADILLAC

"I'll surely not fight for six months and I doubt now if I ever crawl through the ropes again," said former Lightweight Champion Ad Wolgast Sunday evening on his departure for Portland after letting it be known that he would spend some in Medford. Mrs. Wolgast went with him. They will leave Portland tonight for Chicago, going later to Cadillac, Mich., for a long rest.

"It will be a long time before I get into the ring again," Wolgast continued. "If at the end of six months I fell all right, I shall begin working again. If I do not then I'll sit back and watch the other fellows do the fighting."

"I have pain in the abdominal region just as soon as I start to work in the training camp. Away from boxing I fell fine but just as sure as I put on a glove around comes the pain from the appendicitis wound."

"Then, too, there is a growth of fat around my stomach I can't work off. I tried everything while training for Azevedo to take this off, but it wouldn't tear loose."

Wolgast did not find many hero worshippers here, his two previous bluffs at buying ranches, giving his check and then stopping payment, having sent his stock down.

Tomorrow will be entry day and no admissions will be charged. Exhibits will be put in shape this afternoon and tomorrow. President J. T. Sullivan will formally open the fair.

The first racing program will be Wednesday afternoon. The horses are on the ground in daily workouts. "Nero," the lucking bull, arrived from Klamath Falls Sunday. LOWER BERTH REFUSED PRESIDENT'S DAUGHTER

WINDSOR, Vt., Sept. 8.—Admiration for the chivalry of American men is mightily tempered today in the mind of Miss Eleanor Wilson, daughter of the president, who returned here from a week-end visit to her cousin, Mrs. George Howe, of New York.

Miss Wilson reserved a berth in New York yesterday, but found only upper berths left. The train conductor personally asked all the men holding lower berths to exchange with Miss Wilson, but one and all refused to do so. The president's daughter then climbed the porter's ladder and slept all night on the upper tier.

JEROME ON TRIAL TODAY IN CANADA GAMBLING CHARGE

COATICOOK, Que., Sept. 8.—William T. Jerome, former district attorney of New York, arrived here today from Montreal. He will be tried this afternoon before Judge Mulveen of Sherbrooke on a charge of gambling.

Harry K. Thaw, the fugitive from Matteawan, is still here. Feelsna here is decidedly against Jerome but Coaticook officials ridicule the reports that the attorney is likely to be attacked.

Jerome last night asked the crown prosecutor to try him today instead of September 11, the date originally set for the trial. Hundreds of farmers have come to town for the trial, and the courtroom was packed long before the hour set for the case to be called.

Jerome expects to be speedily discharged. A guard of constables met Jerome at the station and escorted him to the hotel.

S. W. Jacobs, who will act as Jerome's counsel, accompanied him from Montreal. The attorney representing Milford Aldridge, the man who preferred the charge against Jerome, is quoted as saying that the act charged against Jerome is not an offense under the laws of Canada.

NEW GOVERNOR OFF FOR THE PHILIPPINES

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 8.—Francis Burton Harrison, newly appointed governor of the Philippines, his wife and their four children arrived here today from New York on their way to Manila. They will sail Wednesday on the steamship Manchuria.

Though admitting that he had partly planned his administrative policy, Harrison refused to discuss it.

"I have a general idea of Philippine conditions," he said, "but cannot say what I intend to do until I arrive on the ground and study the situation."

CAMINETTI JUROR SAYS HIS VERDICT WAS AN OUTRAGE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 8.—"A juror who would vote in favor of a verdict of guilty against an innocent person charged with an infamous crime in order to save his (the defendant's) father and mother from a lot of useless counsel's fees, or for any other reason, commits a crime against society more iniquitous than that committed by Diggs and Caminetti."

That was the seathing denunciation voiced today by Special Prosecutor Matt I. Sullivan and Theodore Roche, who secured the conviction of Diggs and Caminetti on white slave traffic charges, against William Heister, who served as a juror in the latter trial and who is quoted as being ashamed of his part in the verdict.

"I voted to find Caminetti guilty to save his father and mother a lot of useless counsel fees and because the other jurors insisted on a compromise. I regard the verdict as a disgrace to the United States. I believe it should be reversed because the young man is innocent of the charge."

That was part of the purported interview given to a local paper by Heister, to which Sullivan and Roche replied today.

"A juror who would thus express himself in public," say the government prosecutors in a joint interview, "after joining in a verdict of guilty, disgraces his manhood, if he has any left, and should meet with universal execration. It is inconceivable that any man should state with the intention of having it published that there was not a man among the twelve who had not at some time in his career done what young Caminetti did."

"By such a statement the speaker proclaims himself a debaucher of innocent girls and puts in the same class as himself eleven other jurors whose reputation in the community is without reproach."

Manacer Stallings of the Braves has a fifteen-year-old son who, he expects, will make a star big leaguer. Young Stallings is pitching for an amateur team in Atlanta, Ga.

AGITATORS BLAMED FOR COAL STRIKES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8.—Testifying before the senate committee which investigated the cause leading to the recent coal mine strike in West Virginia, Bishop J. P. Donahue of West Virginia declared this afternoon that socialist and professional agitators were responsible for the trouble there.

"These agitators taught the workers to disobey the bible," said Bishop Donahue. "Greed on the part of the operators, of course, was the real basis for the strike but the radicals and socialists incited the miners to deeds of violence by declarations that there should be no difference in the wealth of men."

PREFERS PRISON TO HOUSEHOLD DRUDGERY

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Recreation in prison as a "rest" from twenty years of household duties is the reason assigned here today by a well-dressed woman who refused to give her name, for entering a department store and calmly filling her arms with articles.

"I have been starving for human kindness," she told Magistrate Nash, "and the first I have enjoyed in years were the ministrations of the police matron. Married life for a good woman in moderate circumstances means nothing but household drudgery, endless and thankless. For years I have needed a change, but couldn't afford it. I prefer twenty years in jail to twenty years as a household drudge."

STATE LAND BOARD REPUDIATES PETITION

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 6.—Repudiating a petition prepared by State Treasurer Kay and State Engineer Lewis, the state desert land board today forwarded a new petition to the secretary of the interior asking for an extension of time on the contract between the government and the state with relation to the irrigation project of the Deschutes Land company at La Pine. The petition asks for an extension of two years.

The original petition among other things alleges that Governor West was responsible for delay in the prosecution of work on the project and alleged that every statement contained in a letter sent to the secretary of the interior in his fight on the project was false.

SOCIALIST REFUSES DUEL WITH KRUPP

BERLIN, Sept. 8.—Herr Liebknecht, socialist leader in the Reichstag, declined today to accept a challenge to fight a duel, issued by an official of the Krupp company. Liebknecht's exposure in the Reichstag caused the trial of war office officials on a charge of accepting bribes from the Krupp company.

AMERICAN WOMEN CARELESS

They over-estimate their physical strength and take chances which in the long run cause pain and trouble. Wet feet, a cold from exposure, neglect of such warning symptoms as headache, nervousness, bearing own pains, all lead to untold suffering. To all such women we want to say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the unfailing remedy in such cases. Thousands of American women testify to its virtue.
