EDWARDS VS. BOYD TOMORROW NIGHT

Once more, tomorrow night, the Angle opera house will be the gathering place of the fans of Medford and vicinity, when they congregate to see Frankie Edwards of Oakland, and Bud Boyd of Los Angeles, enter the ring to box ten rounds.

Edwards is the man who gave Bud Anderson, the Medford idol, two of the hardest battles of his career, and report has it that Edwards came very near being returned the winner over Bud in their last encounter at Klammath Falls last June.

Boyd, while not as clever as Edwards, is touted by those who have seen him in action, as a comer. He is fairly clever, aggressive and can hit hard from any angle.

There will be two first class preliminaries between local boys making eighteen rounds in all. The first preliminary will start at 8:30 sharp, the second immediately after, and the main event will be over by 10:00 p. m., thus bringing to a close a day relished by every true sportsman.

A large delegation is expected from Grants Pass as the special train carrying home the Grants Pass visitors, will leave about 11 p. m.

Seats are now on sale at the Nash Hotel and judging from the advance sale of tickets, the biggest house in the history of the game here is looked for as reservation are coming in from Grants Pass, Ashland, Phoenix and other towns around.

THE ROAD BOND ELECTION

THE road bond election again proves that Jackson county is the most progressive county in Oregon—that it leads the way for the rest of the state to follow.

Nor is the progressiveness confined to Medford. Every section of the county, except those isolated regions that need good roads most, voted for the bonds by a big majority.

The paved highway, with its new road over the Siskiyou, means much for Oregon, still more for the county. It opens the way for an era of improvement and development that in future will make the Rogue River valley the most prosperous and populous portion of Oregon.

SPECIAL ROAD LEVY INVALID

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 10.—A bungle was made by the last legislature in its attempt to pass a curative act making all road taxes voted under the road law of 1909 legal, according to the opinion of the supreme court, handed down today in the case of Menasha Woodenware company, appellant, vs. Coos county, road district No. 6, of that county, and others.

Other cases are pending in which the same question is involved, whether the curative act of 1913 made road taxes levied under section 6321, Lord's Oregon Laws, valid.

Helen O. Dillon vs. A. Louise Beason et al.; appealed from Jackson: action to recover damages for breach of covenant in a deed; affirmed.

Putnam vs. Pacific Monthly company, appealed from Multnomah; rehearing allowed.

THINKS TORSO THAT OF WIFE

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Samuel Altman of Richmond, Ind., who is here seeking his wife, Lillian, believes the headless torso of a woman found at Cliffside, N. J., is that of his missing wife, who disappeared about August 26.

Altman says his wife had the letter "L" tattooed on her left shoulder blade, as did the mystery woman. Much of her linen was marked "A".

CAMINETTI SENTENCE PUT OFF 'TILL MONDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 10.—Sentencing of Maury I. Diggs and F. Drew Caminetti, recently convicted of violating the Mann white slave act, was postponed today by United States Judge Van Fleet until next Monday morning, September 15.

The defendants were scheduled to be sentenced today, but Roche asked that it go over until the trial of Diggs and Charles B. Harris, a Sacramento attorney, on charges of subornation of perjury, is finished.

A Fisherman's Petition (By C. J. Judd.) O Amunias! Father of all lies, Inspire me here beneath these summer skies, While I recline among mendacious guys, That I, too, may depict the phantom rise Of that "lost fish" of most enormous size.

Give me the patience to sit calmly by, While amateurs with veterans vie, Recounting deeds performed with rod and fly, Then help me tell the final, crowning lie!

Russian Aviator Killed ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10.—Lieutenant Druschman, a Russian army aviator, was killed here today when his aeroplane turned turtle 90 feet in the air.

DISBAR LAWYER FOR I. W. W. RIOTS

SALEM, Ore., Sept. 10.—Robert O. Graves, an attorney of Marshfield, today faces disbarment proceedings before the supreme court on charges that he was organizer and leader of a mob which deported three Industrial Workers of the World leaders from Marshfield several months ago.

The supreme court ordered Graves to appear before the bar of that tribunal October 14.

The order was issued following the filing of an affidavit by C. H. McLaughlin alleging that Graves led a crowd of six hundred men who violently seized and marched J. W. Edgeworth, Wesley Everett and Fred Roberts through the streets to a gasoline launch in which they were conveyed across Coos Bay.

COMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

Grandma Kept Her Locks Dark, Glossy, Thick With a Mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur

The old time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the musky mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" for about 50 cents a bottle.

IF MEALS HIT BACK AND STOMACH SOURS

"Pape's Diapiesin" Ends Indigestion, Gas, Dyspepsia and Stomach Misery in Five Minutes

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes.

"Pape's Diapiesin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapiesin" cranks, as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.
