

The Wonder Is They Let Jeff Get Away With It

By "Bud" Fisher

CENTRAL POINT POINTERS

Ralph and Robert Holmes made a business trip to Roseburg Tuesday.

Miss Fay Grimes, who has been spending the summer with relatives in Marysville, California, has returned here and will remain during the winter.

The ladies aid of the M. E. church were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. Howell on Beall Lane Wednesday afternoon. One of the largest crowds that have ever been to these enjoyable affairs were there and all report spending a most enjoyable and pleasant afternoon. Various games were indulged in and an excellent program was rendered, after which a delicious lunch consisting of ice cream and cake of every variety and appetizing kind was served. The hostess, Mrs. Howell, was assisted in this successful and praiseworthy event by Mrs. E. O. Fisher, Mrs. Little and Mrs. Carrie Hamrick. These ladies, who proved themselves such delightful entertainers, can not get too much credit and praise.

The young ladies of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Miss Agnes Dunlap in this city Thursday evening and spent a very pleasant evening. The occasion was given as a farewell party to Miss Dunlap who leaves shortly for Eugene where she will attend the university for the coming year. Miss Dunlap will be much missed among the younger set and it is with a great deal of regret that they see her go. She is a charming young girl, brilliant and active and the light and soul of every good movement in the city. Her many friends wish her much success and progress in her university life.

George L. Ford, water superintendent, has returned from a month's outing in the mountains. Mr. Ford

WHY?

If there is a bargain in Real Estate in any district the real estate man there who has been a live agent knows of it. If he knows values and is experienced in the business he can save his customers time and money.

To know the best buy and have it optional at the bottom price is my stock in trade. Satisfied customers is my paid-up business policy. What have you to exchange? Watch my bulletin board in front of the First National bank and see me.

was accompanied home by his father who will remain with his son for some time.

John Grieve of Prospect spent the middle of the week here.

The board of public works are having some improvements made on the roads on Fourth street.

Mrs. Dunlap and daughters spent Wednesday afternoon in Medford.

Head Consul of the Woodmen of the World to Visit Medford.

Medford Camp No. 90, Woodmen of the World will give a reception in honor of Head Consul L. I. Boak, Saturday night, September 13, at 8 o'clock in the I. O. O. F. hall No. 219 West Sixth street. Neighbor Boak will give an interesting lecture explaining the aims and objects of Woodcraft. This will be followed by a class initiation and banquet. Every Woodman is requested to be present, and if possible, bring a prospective member, and thereby assist in making this meeting a thorough success. Please do not fail to come.

W. B. JACKSON,
Clerk Camp No. 90.
