

LONDON RECALLS ARREST AS HOBO

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Sept. 17.—When Jack London, author and adventurer, stepped out of his high powered automobile at the state fair grounds here today, he paused and smiled, and then, in a reminiscent mood, said:

"If that old constable who nabbed me on this very spot just twenty years ago, were here today I'd stand a good chance of going behind the bars again."

Mrs. London, who together with London's sister, accompanied him on his first visit to the fair since he was "pinched" as a vagrant, asked him why he was so confident in making this assertion.

"Because," said London, his eyes twinkling, "I gave him a run for his money, and he had his hands full in jailing me."

"But," he added, sobering, "that old life is gone forever, and the London of today is like the state fair of today—bigger and better and striving for greater things."

London, whose ranch house was recently destroyed by fire, said he was not an exhibitor this year, but hoped to be represented next year if he succeeds in rehabilitating his farm before that time.

"I have slowed down in my writing," said London, "because I am writing on contract now, and do not care to glut the market."

"If I get the big money now, where I formerly got the dimes, and not many of them at that."

"It was a hard fight," he finished with a bit of a sigh as his car swung through the gates, "but it had its compensations."

ARABS ATTACK AND SLAUGHTER ITALIANS

ROME, Sept. 17.—General Torelli and two other officers and 28 privates were killed at Benghazi, Africa when Arabs attacked an Italian column, according to a despatch received here today. Seventy three Italian soldiers were wounded. The Arabs, it is stated, were repulsed.

With Medford trade to Medford made.

MEXICAN ENVOY TALKS WITH BRYAN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—That Secretary of State Bryan is in communication with Manuel Zamacona, an envoy here from Mexico on a mysterious mission, was reported on good authority today. The secretary refused to confirm or deny the reports. He held a long conference with President Wilson this forenoon.

Significantly of the strained relations between the United States and Mexico, the president had failed, up to a late hour this afternoon, to send to Mexico his congratulations upon the occasion of the Mexican independence day.

UNABLE TO FIND SENDER OF BOMB

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 17.—Police detectives admitted today that they have made little progress in their search for the person who mailed the dynamite bomb to Harrison Gray Otis, publisher of the Los Angeles Times.

Two possible means of solution are being worked to the utmost. An attempt is being made to trace the package containing the explosive through the post office station at which it was mailed. Other operatives are trying to learn where the dynamite was secured.

Police Captain Felts, a dynamite expert, declared the bomb to be the most deadly he had seen.

ANNUAL INSPECTION OF SOUTHERN PACIFIC

The inspection train of the Southern Pacific spent two hours in Medford Wednesday on the annual inspection of depot and freight station. For two years past the Medford depot has ranked highest on the system, and Agent Rosenbaum is hopeful of a similar rank this year. Medford not only has the best railroad agent in the United States, but also the best kept depot on the Southern Pacific system.

HOPE FOR PEACE IN OLD MEXICO

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Hope of a peaceful solution of the Mexican situation as a result of the tenor of provisional President Huerta's message, and the absence of anti-foreign demonstrations yesterday, is entertained here today by government officials.

BLAME SUFFRAGETTES FOR BURNING PENHURST

LONDON, Sept. 17.—Suffragettes are believed to be guilty of setting the fire which destroyed today Penhurst place, Tunbridge, Kent, endangering many lives. Two women were seen fleeing from the place, and suffragette literature was found nearby.

MAGICIAN AT THE PAGE THEATRE TONIGHT CLEVER

Amid dazzling scene and electric effects, Chas. J. Carter, the world's greatest magician, will present wonderful feats of deception at the Page theatre tonight. For forty-five minutes Mr. Carter holds the attention of his audience spellbound with his mysterious and clever illusions. Mr. Carter will be assisted by ten members of his company.

Baron Richter is said to be a wonder on the piano and intersperses his selections with bits of humor. The baron received very flattering press comments in Portland last week.

There are three other good acts on the bill which will go to make up one of the very best bills yet offered.

First show at 7:30; second 9:15. Prices: Balcony, 35c; lower floor, 50c; children, 25c.

Died
Agnes G. Wood, age 63 years, eight months and 16 days, died at her home in this city Tuesday night. She was born in Madison, O., January 31, 1850, was married to W. P. Woods, Sept. 25, 1878, at Ironton, and came to Oregon in December, 1904. Four children, Myrtle R., Percy L., Clara M., Blanche A., and her husband survive, all living in Medford. The funeral arrangements will be made later.

DIGGS NOT GUILTY IN PERJURY CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 17.—Perhaps mindful of the fate of Juror Heister, who was savagely excoriated by United States Judge Van Fleet, dismissed from the panel and warned that he might be punished still further for talking too much about the Campbell white slave case, the jurors who acquitted Harry L. Diggs and Attorney Charles B. Harris late yesterday of attempting to suborn perjury in the Diggs white slave case, were as silent as elms today concerning all that went on inside the jury room.

Prosecutor Matt J. Sullivan ventured a guess, however, "Probably the jury didn't want to 'rub it in' on Diggs after his conviction under the Mann act," he said, "and was influenced concerning Harris by the number and eminence of his character witnesses."

PRICE ON SPITZENBERG FIXED AT $1.65 A BOX

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Sept. 17.—The Walla Walla Fruit Distributors and various other centrals of the North Pacific Fruit Distributors are preparing for the fall apple business, the first of which opens within a short time. The local prices are about all shipped, the local distributors now directing a few car lot shipments from Weston and other outside points.

While no definite announcement has been made it is understood that the distributors have set the opening prices for fall apples. It is probable that the prices will increase shortly after the opening of the season. The fruit from some districts, which have an established trade, probably will bring more than the prices established by the distributors. It is understood that the opening prices will be as follows, quotations being made on extra fancy grades: Rome Beauties, $1.35; Winesaps, $1.50; Arkansas Blacks, $1.75; Bellejons, $1.35; Spitzenbergs, $1.45; Red Cheeks, $1.35; Ben Davis, $-10. The prices on the "fancy" grades will average about 20 cents less on the box than the prices on the "extra fancy."

STOLEN PEARLS FOUND IN LONDON

LONDON, Sept. 17.—All but one of the 59 pearls composing the $65,000 necklace which disappeared early in July while being transported from Paris to London were found on a street in North London today. The jewels were wrapped in ordinary wrapping paper.

The necklace was found by a workman, who gave it to a policeman. Five men were arrested recently for complicity in the theft and were remanded to jail without bail. It is now reported that evidence just uncovered involves postal clerks.

SHORT-WEIGHING OF BREAD ILLEGAL IN PASADENA

PASADENA, Cal., Sept. 17.—An ordinance was passed today by the city commissioners making the short weighing of bread illegal. Henceforth all loaves must be plainly labeled and if the label says one pound the loaf must come up to that mark.

DARKEN GRAY HAIR, LOOK YOUNG, PRETTY

Grandma's Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur Darkens so Naturally That Nobody can Tell

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.
