OFFER PRIZES FOR FINEST TOMATOES

The Bagley Canning company of Talent desires to perfect a tomato for local growth which will meet requirements from a shipping and canning view point and to that end a contest has been arranged to take place Tuesday, September 30th. Prizes will be offered to growers sending them a twenty pound box on that date that comes nearest to meeting the requirements demanded by the canner. Tomatoes will be purchased at the regular ton rate and further, particulars can be had by communicating with the company.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Ad Wolgast, ex-champion lightweight champion pugilist of the world, who bought the Heath place just above Brownboro, had a load of furniture come out from Medford, one day last week and taken to the farm. He also purchased a quantity of hardware from Roy Ashpole, one of our hardware merchants.

Ed Cincade while working on the rock crusher a few nights ago came very near being killed. As it was he was quite seriously hurt. While replacing one of the buckets on the elevator the chain parted, letting about forty feet of the elevator fall on him, badly bruising and cutting him on the upper part of the body.

There was quite a number of the G. A. R. who went from here to attend their annual meeting at Talent last week and they report having just as good a time as it was possible for them to have. Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Carpenter, who are occupying rooms at the Sunnyside, spent four days there and report that they had everything that heart could wish as the people furnished them with all kinds of fruit, had autos and carriages for the free accommodation of the visitor. They speak also in the highest terms of the country in the vicinity of Talent, in fact they are considerably in love with our beautiful valley and may invest here and make it their permanent home.

Miss Edna Whitley of Portland but formerly of this valley is here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Van der Hellen and his father-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Florey. Miss Whitley is one of the leading trained nurses of Portland and is taking her vacation among her old friends.

Last Saturday was the day for the regular meeting of the Eagle Point W. C. T. U. and as Mrs. J. W. Grover is one of the leading members and as she was not present on that occasion and that being her birthday, the union resolved that her presence was needed and further resolved that it was the sense of the meeting that she should be sent for, and further resolved that it would be the proper thing to do to send a come quick for her, and acting on the suggestion dispatched an auto with sufficient force to bring her dead or alive and the result was that she was brought and on her arrival was presented with quite a number of nice little presents. They had ice cream and cake served and had one of those good times such as they generally have in Eagle Point when the ladies make a move. They have a custom in the Sunday school here of contributing for the missionary cause on the Sunday following the birthday, one penny for each year of age, and for the past few Sundays there have been quite a number of elderly ladies who are entitled to the privilege of thus contributing to the cause of missions but they are getting wise on letting their age be known as they have adopted the plan of using pennies, nickels and dimes and thus frustrate the curious. Albert Anderson and Frank J. Erwilskey of Grants Pass were callers Sunday for dinner. Mr. Anderson owns a nine-acre tract of orchard in the edge of Eagle Point and was here to look after his interests, and Mr. Erwilskey (Big Frank) was one of the foremen during the construction of the P. & E. railroad. We also had Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Meador of Talent, owner of the Suncrest orchard, and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Rose, formerly of Corvallis, Ore. They are now on their way to San Diego, California, to spend the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Meador took them out Sunday to see the valley, starting from the Suncrest orchard, going from Talent to Jacksonville, then to Medford, then to Central Point, and out to Eagle Point for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Meador have been here before and Mr. and Mrs. Rose seemed to be much pleased with our valley and seemed to think that our town of Eagle Point had a bright future. On Monday E. R. Oatman of Medford and Benj. C. Sheldon also of Medford, who owns the old Robert farm, also G. D. Cornwall, the man who reads the electric meters for the C. O. Power company each month in Eagle Point, was with us for dinner; also George Stevens. He was out looking after a new road that has been surveyed from Eagle Point to intersect the Brownboro-Medford road, and was held up for damages to the tune of $150. He said he had the money all subscribed and all paid in except about forty dollars and he thought that was good. Mr. Oatman is out looking over the Corbin orchard and will superintend the picking of the apples this season again. He reports that some of the apples are ready to gather now.

ASHLAND NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Carleton and son and Mesdames Greenwood, Wilson and Trask, and Master Avery Trask were among the Ashlanders who attended the old soldiers' reunion at Talent on Thursday.

Messrs. Carpenter and McLaren and their families made a flying trip to Talent Wednesday evening.

Mr. Cameron has sold his share in the second hand store to his partner John F. Patty. Mr. Patty has rented his beautiful bungalow to a family by the name of Surgeon and has moved his family into the back part of the store where it will be more convenient for Mrs. Patty to assist him.

Eugene Carpenter has returned to Ashland after a summer's outing in the hay-fields of the Klamath reservation.

Mr. Hall, the painter, and family were among those unannounced at Talent during the reunion.

Cedric Myer who spent the summer in Klamath county, has returned to his home on High street.

The Apollo Concert company gave an entertainment at the high school last Friday which was well attended. The accompanist, Donald Walker, is one of Ashland's most popular young men and the reader, Miss Minnie Jackson, a talented young lady of Medford, was formerly an Ashland girl.

Bellevue school began September 8 with Prof. A. C. Joy, principal, and Miss Shaver of Ashland, primary teacher.

Miss Mary Hopper, ex-principal of Bellevue school, was visiting friends in the city last Sunday. She has just returned from a trip to her old home in Kansas, and will teach the winter term in the Phoenix school.

Mrs. Mische of Bellevue, whose daughter is attending our high school, was trading with our merchants last Wednesday.

Miss Harriet Trask, a pupil of the east side school, is convalescing in the Granite City hospital from an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Cole has charge of the Eastern store during the absence of the proprietor, Mr. Bolz who has gone to North Dakota on a business trip. Charles Rosenhaus of Jacksonville was the guest of Ashland relatives last week. Rev. Schwimley of the Congregational church, held services at Three Pines on Sunday, September 21, and his pulpit was supplied by Dr. Johnson of this city.

WILLOW SPRINGS TWIGLETS

J. W. Elden and P. A. Bonnie returned from Dead Indian after a short hunting trip.

Mrs. Frank McKee returned from Sacramento after purchasing a number of thoroughbred Holstein cows and also enjoying the fair.

Grange meeting Friday, September 26, 1913. Very interesting program will be given and also new members will be initiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnell and family visited Mrs. P. A. Bonnie Monday.

C. E. Lane of Van Nuys, Cal., is visiting many of his friends in this district. Mr. Lane resided in Oregon for several months but is now located in California.

Many from Willow Springs enjoyed the fair at Gold Hill last Saturday. Every one was ready to entertain the person next to him, so it made the little city a jolly resort. The fair was a credit to any community and even better than some well established fairs of other towns. There was something doing from early morning until the wee hours of the next morning.

The Mrs. J. W. and R. W. Elden gave a surprise dancing party Friday evening in honor of Miss Rose Jones. The young people gathered at the home of Mrs. R. W. Elden, then Miss Jones returned from Mrs. P. A. Bonnie's home and was indeed surprised.

Dancing was the entertainment of the evening and the excellent music by Henry Riley and Alex Olson was greatly enjoyed. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Those enjoying the hospitality were: Miss Martina Neal, Leah and Helen Parker, Hazel Taylor, Frances Davison, Francine McNasser, Messrs. Albert Forgey, Clifford Hatfield, Ray Rowe, Glenn Pierce, Alex Olson, Henry Riley and Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Bonnie, Davison, Brayton, Harvey, Burkholz, J. W. and R. W. Elden.

P. A. Bonnie found a ladies' brown velvet corduroy Norfolk jacket on the Pacific Highway. Owner may obtain same by seeing Mr. Bonnie.
