

SULZER SLUSH FUND AIRED BY IMPEACHMENT

Entire Financial History of Governor's Campaign for Election, Every Contribution Received and Every Cent to Be Accounted For.

All Evidence Offered by Prosecution, Whether in Reference to Case or Not, to Be Heard.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 25.—The entire financial history of William Sulzer's campaign for election as governor of New York state must be made public, the impeachment court ruled today.

Every contribution he received and every cent he spent must be accounted for. The governor's judges decided unanimously to hear all the evidence the prosecution has to offer, whether referred to in the articles of impeachment or not.

Former President Morris Tekulsky of the New York Retail Liquor Dealers' association was on the witness stand when the decision to throw the case wide open to the prosecution was reached.

Tekulsky had been asked a question concerning a contribution said to have been made by the liquor dealers' association to the Sulzer campaign contribution fund. The governor's lawyers objected to the query on the ground that there was no reference in the articles of impeachment to such a contribution.

Arguments followed. At their conclusion, Justice Cullen, as presiding officer of the impeachment court, held that the prosecution must not be held to the narrow limits of a criminal case—the question was permissible and so were other questions like it.

The justice's ruling was sustained by the court unanimously.

The prosecution thus demanded that Sulzer's private secretary, Louis Sarecky, and broker, Frederick Colwell, be produced by the defense for examination. Attorney Herriek, for Sulzer, replied with a sneer that the defense was not to blame if neither had been subpoenaed. It was learned during the day that Jacob H. Schiff, who gave Sulzer $2500 and said Sulzer did right in using it to please himself, has been re-subpoenaed for cross-examination.

The defense's objection to his testimony having been overruled, Tekulsky testified that he gave Sulzer his check for $50 October 6. It was a personal contribution, he said. The check was introduced and Tekulsky identified it. It was indorsed in Sulzer's name, but deposited to the account of his private secretary, Louis Sarecky.

WOMAN KILLER FACES NOOSE

SALEM, Or., Sept. 25.—Homer Yates, who shot Mrs. Myrtle Hayes Sunday night because she would not leave her husband and children for him, today faces a charge of first degree murder as the result of the death of his victim last night. An inquest is being held this afternoon and the case will be presented to the grand jury, which is now in session.

PROHIBITION LAW CAUSE OF RIOT IN LEGISLATURE

Militia Likely to Be Called Out to Prevent Bloodshed in Tennessee— Situation Similar to That in Kentucky During Goebel Row.

Governor Hooper Asked Special Session for Laws to Rigidly Enforce Statewide Prohibition.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 25.—Bloodshed and further rioting on the floor of the house was feared today when its members assembled. All members were searched for firearms before they were allowed to enter, and it is now believed that the militia will be called out before night.

The situation in Tennessee today is similar to that prevailing in Kentucky during the Goebel row. Trouble here was precipitated when Governor Hooper asked the special session of the legislature to pass laws authorizing him to rigidly enforce statewide prohibition. Speaker White of the senate has asked the governor to call out the militia and to keep the police away from the state building.

Speaker Stanton of the house today charged that persons in the gallery had guns trained on him yesterday and also that the police are supporting the "wet" element.

Republicans and defecting democrats elected Hooper, a republican, governor. Hooper supported statewide prohibition and has incurred the enmity of regular democrats.

Another outbreak occurred on the floor of the house this afternoon. It came when members demanded that the house be cleared of visitors and the gallery of alleged gunmen.

Representative Smith attempted to assault Representative Bejcek while the latter was speaking, but was restrained by other members. Smith became enraged when Bejcek moved to have John Yeaman and Fire Marshal John Garrett arrested on a charge of having trained guns on regular democrats from the gallery last night. Bejcek said Smith had appointed "his gunmen fire marshals and game wardens so they would be immune from arrest for carrying firearms."

SHARP REACTIONS ON STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Sharp reactions marked the opening of the stock market today. There was active buying in Steel, Amalgamated and Union Pacific and the whole list moved upward. On the first few transactions gains of from 1 to 2 points were recorded. Reading, Union Pacific, Amalgamated, Canadian Pacific, Utah Copper, Peoples' Gas and Alaska Gold.

Later Peoples' Gas fell back nearly four points and American Can dropped under heavy pressure. Numbers of other advances were converted into fractional losses. Bonds were easy. The market closed steady.

COLORADO MINERS REPUDIATE SHOOTING

TRINIDAD, Colo., Sept. 25.—Striking coal miners today repudiated but were accused of miners of responsibility for the shooting yesterday of Marshal Robert Lee of Bloodhounds were on the trail of four Greeks, believed to have done the killing.

Lee saw the quartet removing a handrail placed by the Colorado Fuel and Iron company along the Purgatoire river and warned them away, whereupon one of them fired at him with a shotgun.

Miners say the men were not strikers; the owners say that they struck Tuesday at the Segundo mine.

STRIKE PROBE BY CONGRESS LIKELY CALUMET MINES

CALUMET, Mich., Sept. 25.—Leaders of the striking miners asserted today that they have received positive assurances from Washington of a congressional investigation into the local strike situation.

The lawmakers decided to investigate, it was stated, largely on the strength of the account given by President Moyer of the Western Federation of Miners of thirty-three illiterate foreigners, of whose cases he says he has personal knowledge, imported by the mineowners and worked virtually as peons.

Twenty of these men, the labor leaders said, struck with the other miners and the rest are working as strikebreakers.

Those who quit, it was understood, are ready to testify to the methods used in inducing them to come to Calumet.

The Copper Range Consolidated company has begun suit to evict the strikers from company houses.

THINK SUICIDE IS MURDERER ELLIS

SHEBOYGAN, Wis., Sept. 25.—Believing a young man who committed suicide here today to be Joseph Ellis, supposed murderer of Joseph Shalansky in Indianapolis, Justice W. M. King telegraphed to the Indian capital for a complete description of the wanted man. The suicide resembles published pictures of Ellis, and papers found in his pockets bear out the theory that he is the person sought.

HUERTA ELIMINATED MEXICAN ELECTION

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Officialdom was of the opinion today that the nomination of Foreign Minister Gamboa of Mexico for the presidency means the definite elimination of Provisional President Huerta's candidacy. Officialdom also believed, however, that Huerta can control Gamboa if the latter is elected.

WILSON'S MORAL POLICY IN MEXICO IS WINNING OUT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—President Wilson thinks his "moral policy" toward Mexico has borne fruit. The assurance that Provisional President Huerta would not be a candidate and that the election of a president in October will be an open election are two of the concessions demanded by John Lind.

It was announced on the highest authority this afternoon that the nomination of Gamboa of the Catholic party for president would be satisfactory to America. Whether the constitutionalists participate in the election or not, America will regard the election of any president fulfilling its demand providing he is chosen at an open election.

WORKS IN FAVOR OF INTERVENTION IN MEXICAN AFFAIRS

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 25.—United States Senator John D. Works of California, speaking today at exercises dedicating a site on Point Loma for a statue to commemorate Cabrillo, discoverer of San Diego Bay, switched suddenly from his subject and came out unmistakably for intervention in Mexico.

He said in part: "We are responsible in no small part for conditions in the republic of Mexico. We cannot avoid or shirk that responsibility. It is the business of our government to protect its citizens at home and abroad. I don't believe this has been done in Mexico."

"If we had said in the beginning, 'You must protect the lives of our citizens or we will do it,' I believe it would have been an act of friendship to Mexico."

"It would have been better for the people of that unfortunate country if we had said, 'If our people are killed we will enter your country to prevent any more killing.'"

PROVING BIXBY BLACKMAIL VICTIM

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 25.—The defense of George H. Bixby, Long Beach millionaire banker, charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor girl, scored another victory today when Octavius V. Morgan, a wealthy architect, was forced to testify in support of Bixby's contention that he was the victim of a blackmailing conspiracy.

Morgan swore that he gave to W. H. Stevens, attorney for girls connected with the Bixby case, checks aggregating $2000. The defense then sought to prove that these were given as the price of silence regarding alleged relations between the architect and young girls.

The Bixby attorneys are hanging their case on a contention that similar extortion was aimed at their client and that his present difficulties are the result of his refusal to pay.

COULSON CHARGED WITH MURDER OF AFFINITY'S FRIENDS

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 25.—A. R. Coulson was formally charged today with the murder of William Acker and George Kovack. The accusation was made by Detective Manuel De La Guerra.

Acker and Kovack were shot to death a few minutes after 2 o'clock last Saturday morning as they were lurching in the Atlas garage with Coulson's common law wife, Mrs. Katherine Gallagher, who was also shot and seriously wounded.

Coulson gave himself up late Saturday afternoon. Since then, until today, he was held by the police under no formal accusation.

The murder charge probably would not have been preferred until after the inquest on Acker and Kovack but for reports that Coulson's lawyers intended to seek his release on a habeas corpus writ.

Mrs. Gallagher, who had lived with Coulson for about six years, his legal wife being in the insane asylum, had been on an automobile ride and had visited various beach resorts with Acker and a woman companion on the night of the shooting, and the police theory is, of course, that Coulson killed Acker and Kovack and shot Mrs. Gallagher in a fit of jealousy.

TAFT TO FIGHT FOR ROAD JOB

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Former President Taft smiled broadly today when told that Representative Bolland wants to replace "Uncle Joe" Cannon and other republicans on the Lincoln memorial commission with democrats.

"They took the presidency away from me," said Professor Taft, "and I couldn't protest. But if they intend to take this job away also, I shall protest most vigorously."

Taft grinned when a friend said he heard that the former president had lost eighty pounds.

"That," he said, imitating Colonel Roosevelt's tone of voice, "is a malicious lie. It's only sixty."

ELK SO PLENTIFUL ARE A NUISANCE

TACOMA, Wash., Sept. 25.—Elk in Snohomish county are getting so bothersome, according to Game Warden George C. White today, that it may be necessary to get a posse out and hunt them down. The elk were "planted" there last season, but instead of being turned loose in the mountains they were released on the outskirts of the town of Snohomish. They refused to leave and are breaking down fences and eating up prize-winning cabbages and denuding cornfields. The farmers are afraid to shoot the elk because of the game laws, so they bring damage suits, which the county has to settle. White predicts that this winter when the elk get real hungry there will not be a haystack left in the county.

Francis Richter of Sporting Life and Taylor Spink of Sporting News were named official scorekeepers.

WOLGAST BUYS BROWNSBORO FARM

CADILLAC, Mich., Sept. 25.—Ad Wolgast today paid Fred Heath of Hastings, Mich., $17,000 for the latter's ranch near Medford, Ore.

Wolgast has purchased the Heath ranch at Brownsboro, the old Brown place, consisting of 143 acres, 25 in orchard, half of it in bearing. He paid $7000 and the deal was closed during his recent visit here.

Wolgast also paid $600 down on an option on 8600 acres adjoining, which he figures on buying for $10,000. The deal was made by Barkdull and Miles.

FARMER RUNS AMUCK, SHOOTSELF, FAMILY

WALLOWA, Ore., Sept. 25.—In a fit of temporary insanity, said to have been caused by the attentions paid her by a young man of the neighborhood, James Barnes shot and seriously injured his daughter, Ruby, aged 15, attempted to shoot an older daughter, and then committed suicide today at his home forty miles north of here. The wounded girl was shot in the left breast, the bullet entering the lung. She may recover. A large caliber revolver was used.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—"If the senate does not kill the present currency bill," said David Forgan, the Chicago banker, speaking at the opening session of the Illinois Bankers' association convention here today. "I ask your forgiveness for the speeches I made advocating currency reform."

"The law, in its present form, would destroy the only three existing advantages that national banks have—their right to hold reserves, their right to handle government deposits and their right to issue currency."

RAISING FUND TO AID HOME RULE FIGHTERS

Sir Edward Carson Subscribes $50,000 to Half Million Dollar Fund to Indemnify Any One Wounded in Resisting Irish Rule.

Toypay O'Connor Says Trouble Will Be Confined to Large Cities—Clashes Due to Carson.

BELFAST, Sept. 25.—Sir Edward Carson, one of the bitterest opponents of Irish home rule, subscribed $50,000 today toward what is scheduled to be a $5,000,000 fund to indemnify anyone wounded or the families of those killed in resisting government by an Irish parliament.

Some of the participants in yesterday's conference said today that it is likely the anti-home rulers will try to seize the Ulster government without awaiting passage of the home rule bill.

The Ulster volunteer committee this afternoon announced that $125,000 had been subscribed already to the indemnity fund.

VICHY, France, Sept. 25.—"Ulster will fight, no doubt," said T. P. O'Connor, one of the most strenuous of Irish home rulers, commenting here today on news of the preparations in progress in Belfast to resist government by a Dublin parliament, "but the trouble will be confined to the big cities."

"If there are clashes, they will be caused by the inflammatory speeches of such men as Sir Edward Carson to the Ulster crowds. We will have the Dublin parliament running smoothly within a year."

TRY COMPROMISE ON TARIFF BILL

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—An incomplete report in an effort to effect a compromise is the announced plan here today of the tariff conferees. The incomplete report goes to the house calendar and will be called up tomorrow when the conferees expect to have a supplemental report covering the controversies in the measure.

BLUE SKY LAW ORDER ISSUED

SALEM, Or., Sept. 25.—The attorney general's office today officially advised Corporation Commissioner Watson that the International Mercantile company of Vancouver, B. C., and the Capital Security company of Norfolk, Va., are subject to the building and loan association laws contained in the state blue sky law, and must take out permits to do business in the state. The companies have been resisting the corporation commissioner's request to comply with this law.

WILL USE MILITIA FOR COLORADO STRIKE

DENVER, Colo., Sept. 25.—"If necessary to prevent strike rioting in the southern Colorado coal fields, the state certainly will intervene with troops," said Governor Ammons today. "If troops must be used they also will stop 'Mother Jones' inflammatory utterances. She's a smart old woman, but in case of her arrest the troops will see that she is held in such a way that she can't address the whole country as a prisoner. She will be well treated, but she will not be allowed to advertise strike conditions outside the state in the extravagant language she has been using."
