

SENATORS WORRIED BY SUFFRAGETTES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—If the suffragettes in Washington are not militant in the Pankhurst manner, nevertheless they keep a large part of the United States senate anxious. In this patriotic course they had the assistance of Senator Jones the other day.

Jones was a member of the subcommittee which found the police "not guilty of allowing the national suffrage parade on March 3 to be broken up by hoodlums. Now he is on record with the first demand from the minority side that the democrats bring to a vote the resolution proposing a federal constitutional amendment giving women the ballot.

Only half a dozen senators were present when Jones challenged Ashurst on the question. Ashurst promised to bring the resolution up as soon as a quorum of the senate should be present. That means that the democrats will have to fall back again within a few days upon the personal objection of southern senators to consideration of the suffrage, if they are to stave off a general debate.

Senator Poindestor, Senator Works, Senator Lane and Senator Chamberlain will take part in the contest to not the resolution before the upper house for rollcall.

"OFFICER 666" TO OPEN FALL SEASON NAT PAGE

"Officer 666," which ran all last season at the Gaiety Theater in New York City, will be seen at the Page Theater Monday, October 6, when the fall theatrical season in Medford will be opened. This play is said to be full of risible tricks and melodramatic moments that start a wave of shivery thrills chasing each other up and down one's spine only to end in an uncontrollable burst of laughter at the funny antics of this particular policeman who, in an unguarded moment is induced to part with his uniform for a brief period, while the borrower of it is endeavoring to rescue a lady fair from the web of complications that have been woven around her by the machinations of an internationally famous picture thief.

"Officer 666" has been declared the best farce of last season. It has all the elements that go to make a successful play, least of which is a charming love interest wherein Cupid matches his wits against the stern arm of the law and wins a complete victory.

"Officer 666" opens the season at the Helig in Portland.
