

WOMEN WAGE WAR ON IMMODEST DRESS

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 26.—Every W. C. T. U. local and women's organization in the United States will be asked to fight the "indecent tendency of modern dress styles" by setting young girls an example in dressing. The campaign to drive the slit skirt, immodest waist, diaphanous skirt and indecently tight, form-displaying dress back to the demimonde from whence it came, was outlined today at the closing sessions of the annual convention of the Cook County Women's Christian Temperance Union.

OBITUARY

CASE—Near Antioch, September 24, 1913, Earl Case, Jr., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Case, of pneumonia. Buried in Antioch cemetery September 25. At the Isis Friday and Saturday. A drama of unusual interest and power, "The Curse of the Golden Land," will be portrayed Friday and Saturday at the Isis Theater. The story is told of a Russian immigrant to this country and of the manner in which his success causes him to forget the loved ones that he has left behind him to do them grievous wrong. His wife and little son, who, not having heard from him for a long time, follow him to America, are unable to find him for, having become a partner in a successful firm of clothing manufacturers, he has changed his name. They become reduced to severe straits and finally, by a strange coincidence, obtain work at the factory of which he is now the manager. A chance meeting with his son, whom he recognizes, brings the man to his senses and he proudly acknowledges his relationship to them, although it had been his intention to divorce his wife in order that he might make a successful marriage that would greatly advance him socially. Together the immigrant and his wife start the battle of life over again, each happy in the help and companionship of the other.

"Evil Power" at Star. The Star Theater has for today and tomorrow an exceptionally strong and fascinating story entitled "The Evil Power," with Miss Margerita Fischer and Robert Leonard in the leading roles. The plot of the story portrays an Armenian doctor who practices hypnotism to gain evil ends, but by a misuse of his occult power, brings tragic retribution and pays the penalty to his dupes. The other photoplays on the bill include the latest news in pictures and "The Statue" and "In Laughland," two clever and laughable comedies. The program closes with Hamilton and Dope, in vaudeville, presenting their comedy act, entitled "Down On the Farm."
